Duke of Edinburgh May Replace Princess Margaret as Regent

By ALAN HARVEY

London (AP)—The British press granted today that under the new legislation, the Duke of Edinburgh would replace Princess Margaret as regent. The Duke of Edinburgh would replace Princess Margaret as regent. The Duke of Edinburgh would replace Princess Margaret as regent.

In announcing the impending legislation, acting prime minister R. A. Butler merely said that a bill to amend the Regency Act would be introduced before the Queen leaves on her Commonwealth tour in November. Parliamentary correspondents anticipate the bill will be presented early in the autumn session of Parliament, which the Queen will open.

NO DETAILS

Butler did not go into details on the proposed changes in the act, but nearly every British newspaper carried stories to the effect that the principal provision would be to name the Duke of Edinburgh as regent. As the law stands now, Princess Margaret would become regent if the sovereign were prevented from ruling, through death or incapacity, while the heir to the throne, Prince Charles, was under 18. Margaret is the first person of full age in line of succession.

There was little tendency today, either in official quarters or in newspaper comment, to link the proposed changes in the act with recent reports of romance between Princess Margaret and Group Capt. Peter Townsend, British war hero now stationed in Brussels as air attaché. The Yorkshire Post said:

"Inevitably, the decision to supersede Princess Margaret as the first in line for the regency is being linked with recent rumors about her matrimonial intentions."

SMOOTH PATH

"It would appear that if by any chance the regency were considered a bar to Princess Margaret's matrimonial plans, the change now envisaged could not materially smooth her path. She will remain third in line to the throne and, presumably, she will also remain second in line to the regency."

The Daily Sketch, on the other hand, said that a change in the act relieving Princess Margaret of any probability of becoming regent "would leave the princess free to marry whom she wished."

The Daily Mirror said: "Whatever other factors are involved in the decision to change the act, an effect would be to ease the constitutional problems raised should Princess Margaret desire, as has been reported, to marry Group Captain Townsend."

"There has been much speculation recently as to whether the present situation in which Princess Margaret would be automatically regent would be fully acceptable in the event of such a marriage."

The regency change will require approval of the other Commonwealth countries. Sources in Ottawa said they believed Canada would assent to the change, and could do this by order-in-council. Confirming legislation would be submitted to Parliament at the next session.

THREE WEEKS HARD WORK ENDS IN ARMS OF SHERIFF

TOLLAND, Conn. (AP)—Every day for three weeks William Lanahan, 29, hunkered a little off the bars of his jail window. He finished his job Wednesday and climbed out into the arms of the sheriff and a band of guards.

What Lanahan didn't know: The sheriff had somebody watching him the whole three weeks.

Coroner Denies Report He Barred Newsmen

VANCOUVER (CP)—Attorney General Robert Bonner said Wednesday he will study the official report of a coroner's inquest which newspaper reporters were barred during the trial. The coroner's inquest into the death of a young man who died accidentally from wounds in the washroom at the police headquarters. The coroner, when jurors were barred from the scene in the washroom, said he was barred from the scene in the washroom. Mounties Find Stolen Truck In Short Order

Quick action by the city detachment of the RCMP yesterday resulted in the return of a half-ton truck to Northern B.C. Power Company Ltd., which had reported the vehicle missing at 9:15 a.m. The truck had been parked in front of the Northland Dairy, Sixth Avenue, when Northern B.C. Power officials noted it was missing. Shortly afterwards police observed the truck traveling west on Second Avenue. The truck was stopped and the driver, Donald Keith Milne, 21, of Terrace, was apprehended. Milne appeared in police court before Magistrate W. D. Vance, charged with taking a motor vehicle without consent of the owner, and the case was remanded until July 30. Also appearing before Magistrate Vance yesterday was R. Parker who was fined $15 and costs on a charge of creating a disturbance by swearing. This morning Richard Letourneau pleaded guilty before Magistrate Vance to a charge of driving a motor vehicle while his ability to do so was impaired by alcohol. He was fined $50 and costs or in default one month in jail.

Weekly close season is extended to 72 hours for all salmon net fishing in salmon purse seine Areas 6 and 8, effective 6 p.m. Thursday, July 23. Long-Awaited Truce Expected To Be Signed Soon At Munsan

Swiss, Swedish Members Arrive

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN, Associated Press Staff Writer

PANMUNJOM.—Allied and Communist officers worked on final details of a Korean truce today and then recessed indefinitely as an advance party of Swiss and Swedish members of a commission which will supervise an armistice arrived in Korea.

There was mounting speculation that the long-awaited armistice ending more than three years of bloodshed on this battered peninsula would come within 72 hours despite renewed South Korean opposition.

Four Swiss and four Swedish members of the neutral nations armistice commission flew to Seoul from Tokyo and were hustled to the United Nations advance camp at Munsan by helicopter. Their names and positions on the commission were not disclosed.

The armistice commission members landed in Korea as Allied and Red liaison officers huddled secretly here, then recessed without scheduling another session.

Earlier in the day staff officers conferred. It was announced that the next meeting would be set by liaison officers.

Without it, he said, Korea would go Communist.

In Washington, Eisenhower told a press conference he still was reasonably confident a truce would be signed soon.

But in London Labor party leader Clement Attlee called for a UN general assembly session "in view of the tendency of Syngman Rhee and his government to run out of their engagements."

Acting Prime Minister R. A. Butler expressed shock at Rhee's statement.

In New Delhi, Indian officials called the situation confused.

Sockeye Run Sets Record In Fraser

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fraser River fishermen were hauling in record-breaking catches of up to 500 sockeye a boat Wednesday.

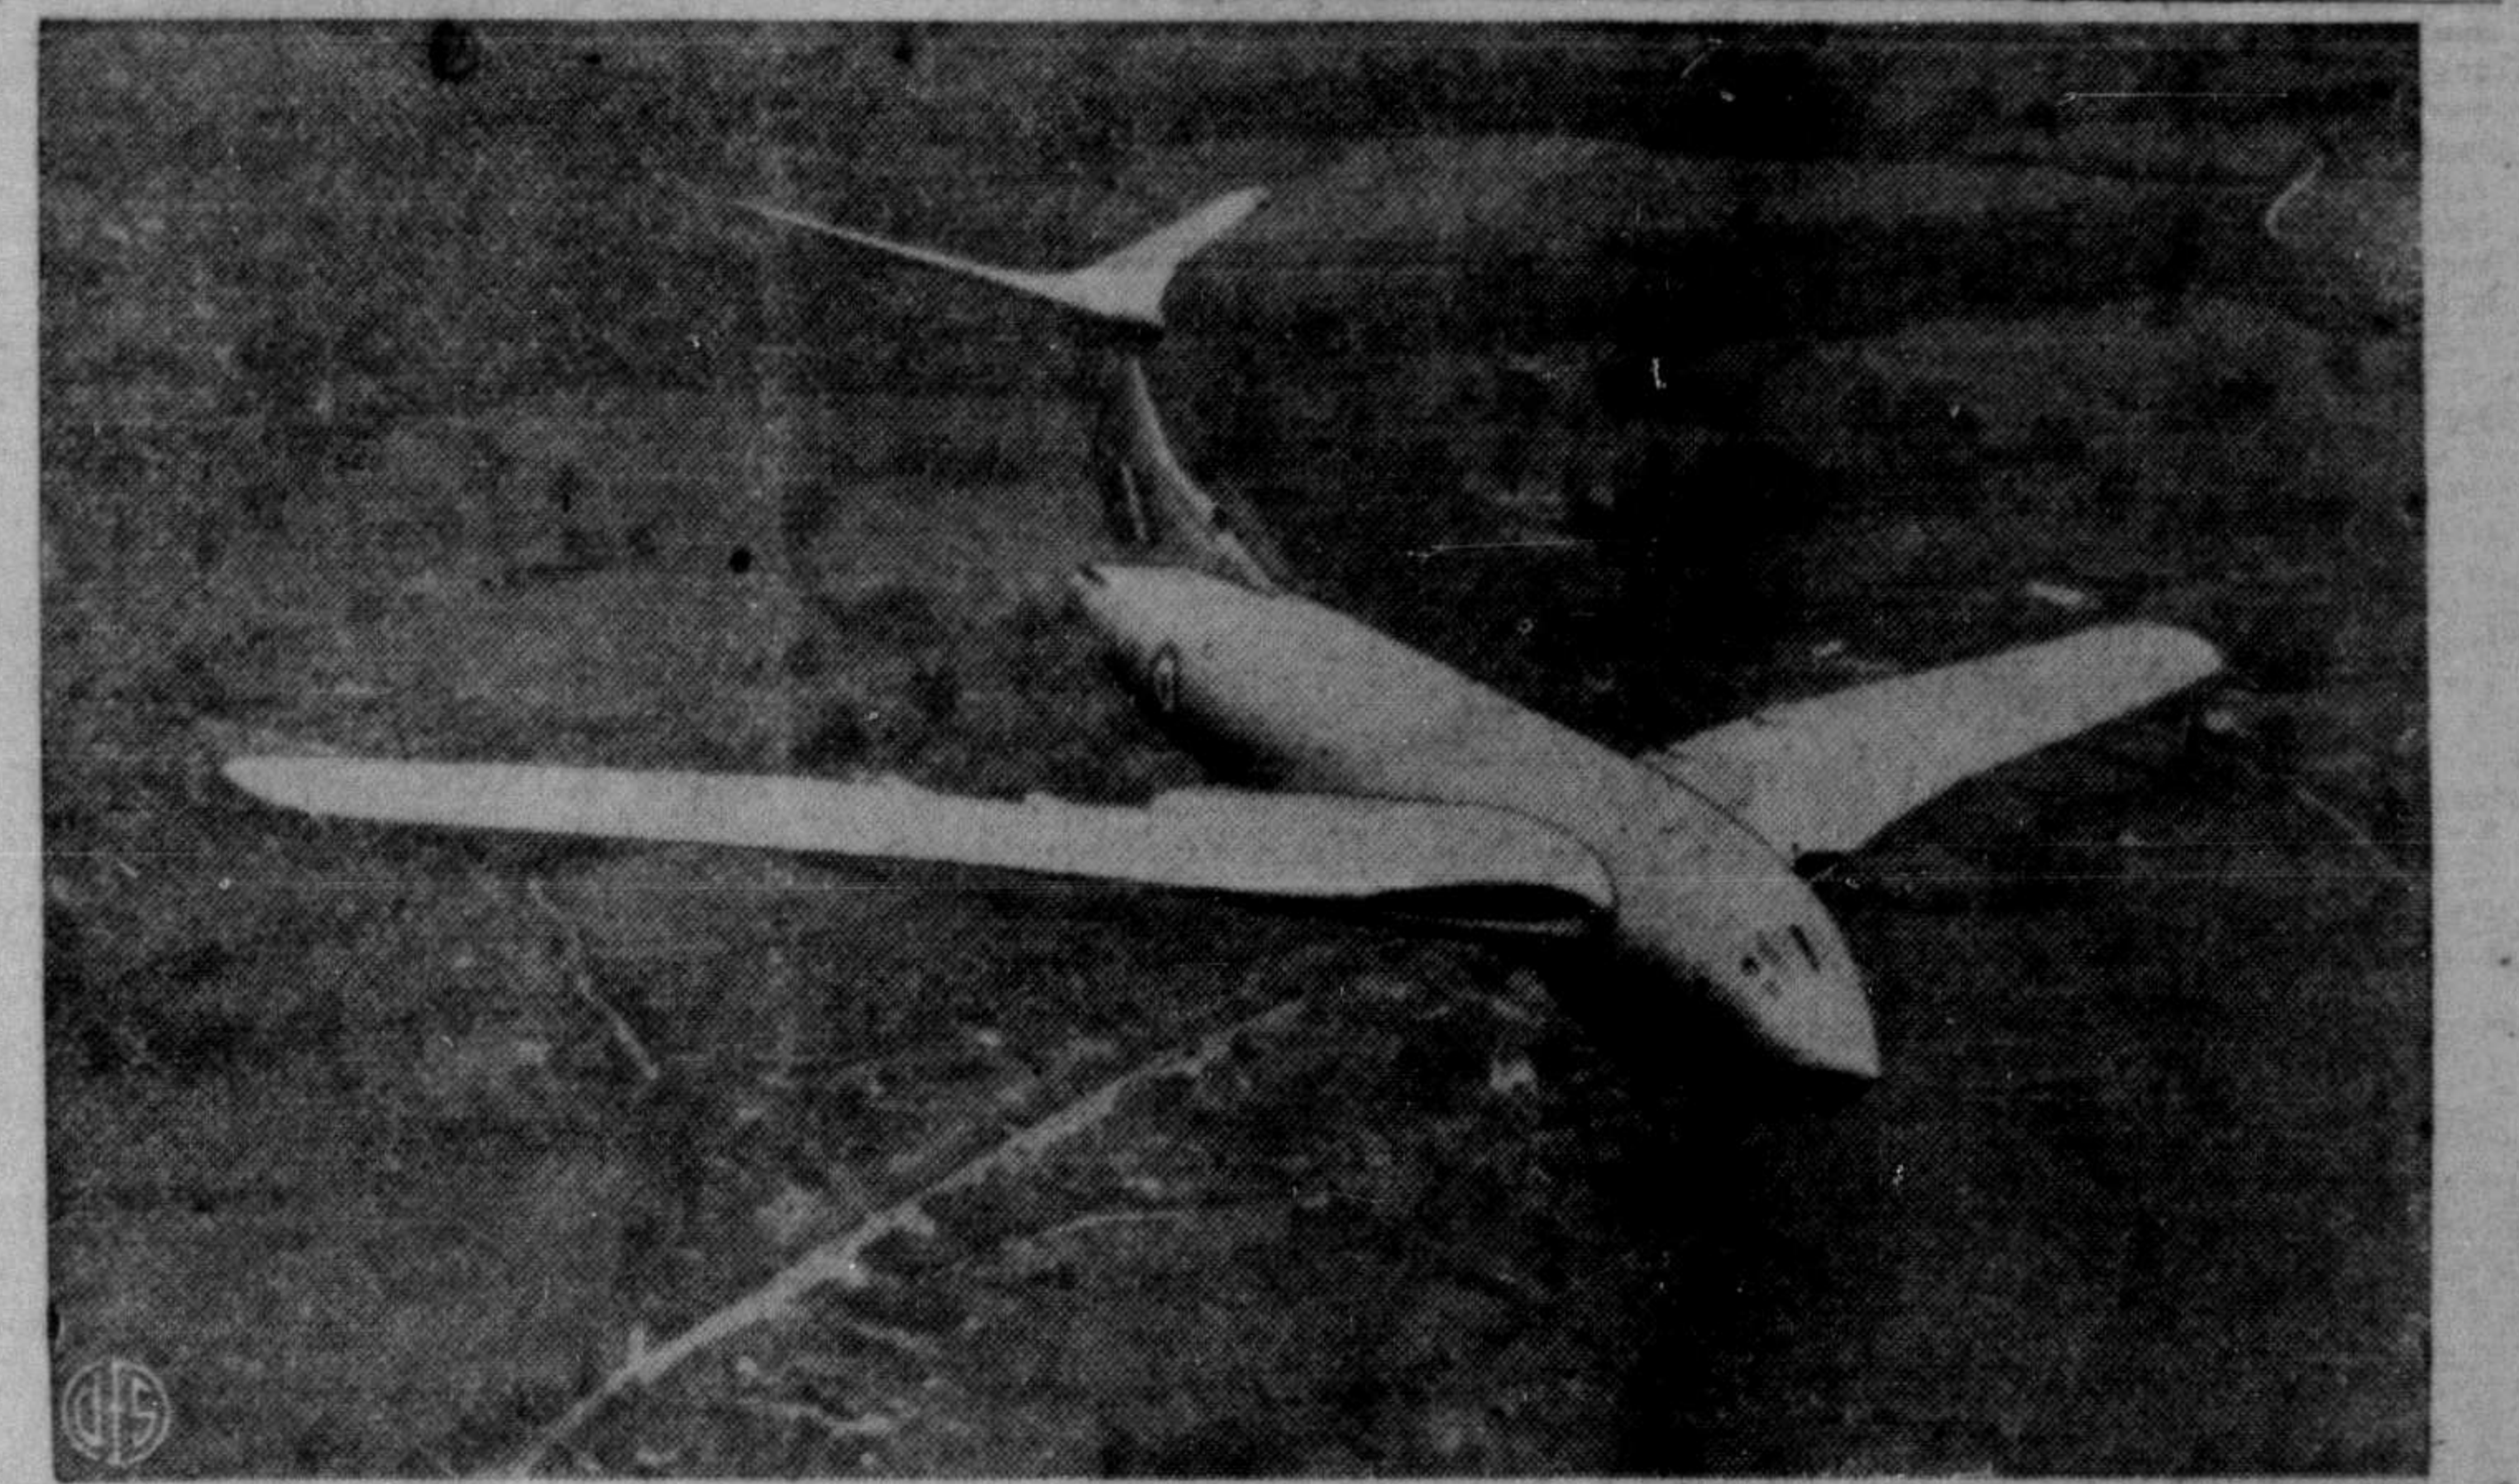

Normally, a catch of 100 sockeye a day is considered "exceptionally good."

Not all of the 1,000 seine and gillnet fishermen netted 500, some got 400 and some less. Still, this was additional proof that the sockeye run this season is the best for a similar period since 1899.

As a conservation measure, the International Pacific Salmon Commission has ordered fishermen to tie up their boats for an extra day this week-end.

A THREE-LEGGED GOOSE has his "spare" shown by Mrs. Deane Stahmann Jr. at Stahmann Farms near Las Cruces, N.M. Farm workers say the goose can waddle along and scratch his head without stopping. The fowl are used as hde hands in weeding cotton fields.

THIS IS THE HANDLEY PAGE VICTOR FOUR-JET, crescent-wing bomber that recently made its public debut before Queen Elizabeth at the Royal Air Force Coronation review. The jet engines are more powerful than 25 locomotives and are capable of delivering near-sonic speeds with the aid of the revolutionary-shaped wings. The plane is now in production for use with the Bomber Command.

Britain Watching For Further Changes by Premier Malenkov

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—British government leaders were reported far from convinced today that Premier Georgi M. Malenkov yields total power in the Soviet Union.

Qualified informants said Prime Minister Churchill and his colleagues, on the basis of their own information from Moscow, would not be surprised if changes even more dramatic than the purging of Lavrenti P. Beria take place in the Russian hierarchy, and within the foreseeable future.

Government spokesmen did not express these views officially. But the private opinions were given considerable support by Acting Prime Minister R. A. Butler's statements to Parliament Wednesday.

AWAIT EVENTS

Opening a foreign-affairs debate in the House of Commons, Butler explained that the western Allies had proposed a Big Four foreign ministers meeting on Germany and Austria even though they "might await further and perhaps even more sensational events behind the Iron Curtain, and above all wait to see who are likely to remain the repositories of power in Moscow with whom we will have to negotiate."

Uncertainties about the Soviets, said Butler, led the British to shelve for the time being Churchill's proposal for a top-level parley between the Russians and the West.

Within the context of this thinking, British officials today pondered the meaning of:

• The apparent failure of three high leaders of the Red Army to attend an important meeting of the Russian military men in Moscow last week.

• The sudden eight-day postponement of the meeting of the Soviet Union's parliament, the Supreme Soviet, which had been set last week for July 26 and now has been put off to Aug. 5.

The Moscow meeting of the Red Army bosses was called to hear denunciations of Beria, the deposed police chief formerly considered No. 2 man to Malenkov.

British officials noted that the absentees included one of the two deputy ministers of defence, Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky. The other deputy, Marshal Georgi Zhukov, spoke at the meeting attended by Marshal Ivan S. Konev, before Stalin's death commander of Soviet ground forces and an honor guard at Stalin's bier, and veteran Gen. Sergei Shatev, a former army chief of staff.

Jimmy Butler Not So Sure He Wants To Join Mounties

DETROIT (AP)—Young Jimmy Butler is disillusioned with the Mounties. He went to a bit of trouble to get that way.

The 13-year-old Pittsburgh youngster, being held in the juvenile detention home here, has been the object of a Pittsburgh police hunt since Sunday night when he left his part-time job at a filling station and failed to return home.

"I decided all of a sudden that I would go to Canada and talk with some of the Mounties," Jimmy explained. He had often dreamed of being a member of the RCMP.

He said that he bought a bus ticket for Detroit with his pay and arrived here Monday.

After two days of sightseeing Jimmy said he walked across the Ambassador bridge to Windsor, Ont., Wednesday and then hitchhiked to nearby Amherstburg, which he said he had once seen on a map and which appeared to be a good place to find Mounties because it was near Lake Erie.

While hunting for the RCMP the youngster discovered that he had lost his wallet and reported this fact to Ontario provincial police.

It was then that young Jimmy reached the end of his quest. He was turned over to U.S. immigration authorities and Detroit police, but not before he said he had learned that life in the RCMP was not for him.

"They don't even wear their red and blue uniforms except in parades and stuff," Jimmy explained. "I sure am sorry I ran away. I only hope I can make understand that I won't do it again."

Fisheries Boat Sights Tuna Off Cape Beale

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three persons aboard a Fisheries Department patrol ship have reported sighting a school of the elusive albacore tuna.

It is the first time they have been seen for two years. First fished here in 1948, they became a $2,000,000 annual crop for three years.

In 1951, the tuna disappeared. None have been seen until the sighting by the patrol vessel.

Rain Falls Over City for 13th Day; Weatherman Sees More

Today is the 13th day of rain in the past 14 days in this city and more wet stuff is forecast.

With the exception of July 21—when it was overcast most of the day—it has rained every day since July 10.

Officials at the Digby Island weather station said yesterday was the wettest day with 39 inches of rain being recorded although today's steady down-pour may equal or better that

Rainfall for the other 12 days is as follows: July 10, .10; July 11, .26; July 12, .24; July 13, .22; July 14, .05; July 15, .09; July 16, .60; July 17, .31; July 18, .39; July 19, .01; July 20, .23; July 22, .39. Total for the 13 days is 2.89 inches.

The weatherman is not too cheerful about his forecast. He said this morning unsettled weather will continue over the northern half of the province for the next two days.

In north coast region, he said variable cloudiness and a few showers will occur today and Friday, with little change in temperature. Winds will be westerly 15 today, otherwise light.

Low tonight and high Friday at Port Hardy, Sandspit and Prince Rupert, 50 and 62.

Heartache For Margaret

SINCE everybody seems to have an opinion about whether or not Princess Margaret should marry Group Captain Townsend, we are moved to express the hope that she does not.

Millions of devoted subjects apparently disagree, but that cannot be helped. As far as Margaret herself is concerned, we would like to see her marry a man of her instinctive choice, whatever his title or lack of one. In Townsend's favor it must be observed that he has an excellent title, though possibly not the kind that some critics of the match have in mind. He is an officer in the RAF who has earned his rank in valiant defence of his country. That gives him a title that merits respect in any company.

Moreover, Margaret, though only slightly removed by age from being a queen, will almost certainly never be one. Ranking in line after her sister's youthful and healthy family to which there may be additions yet to come, she is already beyond likely stepping distance to the throne and probably quite happy to be so. But the point is that she is often going to be called upon as stand-in for Elizabeth without enjoying the Queen's distinction though still subjected to the rigors of that position.

For these reasons it is important that Margaret's personal life be as happy as possible, and it is the opinion of many that marriage to Townsend would provide this. Unfortunately in his case, however, there are two children by his former wife who would have to be exposed to the inquisitive and probably cruel publicity of national attention or pushed into a dark and intensely lonely background. Although the latter course possibly would be preferred, it is only the lesser of two bad ones.

It can be argued, of course, that Margaret's happiness is as imperative as theirs and, because she has many trying duties to perform, perhaps more so. But the truth is that one cannot be weighed against the other. Margaret could not, and would not want to, buy her happiness at the expense of theirs. The price of such a deal would be pain and heartache for all.

Many Qualifications Necessary For Federal Election Candidate

OTTAWA — Many hurdles must be leaped before the Canadian who wants to be a candidate in the federal election can contest one of the 265 Commons seats.

Besides possessing vote-getting ability — theoretically, anyway — he must be 21 and an eligible voter and have at least 10 voting friends and $200 to bet on himself.

There is also the general cost of running a campaign which can be high.

By and large, most Canadians can get into the fight, but there are exceptions.

Those ineligible include prison inmates, federal civil servants, Doukhobors and most Indians on reservations.

The insane are disqualified, and so are judges and electoral officers, clerks of the peace, county crown attorneys, government contractors, members of provincial legislature and of the Northwest Territories Council.

Members of the active forces can run for office in wartime. However, the Korea police action does not count as a war for election purposes.

Shareholders of companies with government contracts are eligible, except where the contract is for building a public work.

MUST HAVE SUPPORT
Apart from eligibility, there also is the problem of support. A candidate does not necessarily have to live in the riding he plans to contest, but he must be nominated by at least 10 qualified voters in that riding. He must put up $200 as an election deposit and be prepared to lose it if he does not get enough votes. The money is forfeited to the federal treasury if he does not obtain half the votes polled by the winning candidate.

OTTAWA DIARY

By NORMAN M. McLEOD

As dealt with in my previous column, one of the reasons why a Liberal-CCF coalition is n-o-t amongst the possibilities that may arise out of the voting on August 10th next is Prime Minister St. Laurent's dislike of the entire principle of merger expediency.

But there's another reason as well that stands with equal firmness against any possibility of union. That reason is M. J. Coldwell, CCF Leader.

Mr. St. Laurent stands opposed to even the thought of coalition with the CCF because he is an old-line Liberal and doesn't believe that the free enterprise principles of Liberalism could survive under the regimentation involved in CCF Socialism.

Mr. Coldwell stands equally opposed to the idea of coalition with the Liberals because he believes firmly that if Canadian Socialism has the endurance just to paddle its own canoe long enough, it is certain to arrive in due course at the shores of power. But from his knowledge of past coalitions in which the Liberals were one of the partners, he is satisfied that the CCF wouldn't retain its identity long enough to claim its heritage, if it entered into a marriage of convenience with the St. Laurent forces.

Being a realist in his politics, Coldwell shrewdly suspects that the Liberal idea of perfection in coalition is patterned upon the technique of a shark when he coalesces with a minnow. Coldwell just doesn't trust Liberal overtures.

From the standpoint of his personal fortunes, it's perhaps just too bad for the CCF leader that he is so suspicious of Liberalism when it comes bearing gifts. If he hadn't been so distrustful a matter of eight years or so ago, he might today have been Prime Minister, instead of just the Number One Man in a minority party.

For back a little more than eight years ago then Prime Minister Mackenzie King sent an emissary to Coldwell proposing a Liberal-CCF merger. And one of the terms of the offer was that Coldwell was to have King's support for the post of Liberal leader when he (King) vacated it. Coldwell rejected the offer because he believed that coalition with Liberalism would mean the disappearance of the CCF and the end of a true Socialist movement in Canada.

Curiously enough, history could repeat itself. If the Prime Minister made an offer of coalition to Coldwell after the August 10 voting, he'd be in the same position of imminent retirement as Mr. King was. Hence he could make the same offer of support for the Liberal leadership. But Mr. St. Laurent won't renew the Mackenzie King offer. And the CCF leader wouldn't accept it if he did. But the recurring situation shows the tendency of politics to travel in a circle.

• Them Golden Slippers

SOME Conservative criticism of the spending policies of the Liberal government is no doubt justified. No country can expand its military establishments as vastly as we were forced to do without laying itself open to mistakes in administration.

But some of the Conservative criticism of the Liberal army expenditures is surely a wee bit over-stretched. Take this matter of army boots. Tramp, tramp, tramp, them golden slippers are marching, in every newspaper in the country. But the Tory ad men have only opened their mouth on army boots to put their own foot in it.

THE advertisements ask: "Why 20 Pairs of Shoes?"

"How many shoes do you own? The Liberal government spent on defence $22,000,000.00 for boots and shoes (or 20 pairs for each serviceman)."

Please note that the Tory advertising does not say in what period. Was it one year, two years, or the whole 18 years that the Liberals have been in? They have borrowed that

Canada Facing Likely Boost In Steel Output

LONDON — Biggest contribution to an anticipated increase in Commonwealth steel production will probably come from Canada, says the July bulletin of the British Iron and Steel Federation.

Total Commonwealth production of 31,000,000 tons is predicted by 1957-58, contrasting with 21,000,000 tons last year. The bulletin says it expects Canada will be producing 4,400,000 tons annually within five years, an increase of 30 per cent above current figures.

It notes that Canada is the only Commonwealth country which does not take most of its steel imports from the United Kingdom, buying rather from the United States.

Currently, the Commonwealth produces 10 per cent of the world's steel supply and consumes more than 12 per cent. Canada is the largest importer.

The first baseball World Series was held in 1884.

technique of soap advertising on the radio which says something like this:

"Blank is 66 per cent more efficient" or "Such-and-such gets clothes two thirds cleaner." They do not say "two thirds cleaner than any other soap can get them" or "two thirds cleaner than our old style soap." No, they just say "two thirds cleaner."

THE FACTS about the army, navy and air force boots were given by the Deputy Minister of National Defence in the House of Commons on June 20, 1952, and again by Mr. Claxton on November 27 last. He said:

"A man wears out four pairs of boots a year in Korea, two a year in Germany, and generally speaking, less than one and a half per year in Canada. We vary the issue for the Navy and Air Force because they use less footwear than does the Army."

"Trade figures on footwear give an estimate that the average (civilian) male in Canada buys 2.38 pairs of shoes a year. The amount we provide the armed forces is less than that."

"At September 30, 1952, depot stocks were 479,643 and stocks held against a possible mobilization amounted to 361,971. Maintenance stocks are therefore less than two years' expected consumption."

SURELY ex-soldier George Drew remembers back to the first year of the First World War, when both he and I and a vast number of other fellows joined the army.

Sir Sam Hughes (in a Tory government) overnight bought vast numbers of boots with fake leather soles, which turned out to be paper and which melted in the rain. Surely everybody also remembers that in the Second World War we had soldiers marching around for over half a year in civilian boots.

What do the tax-cuts-at-all-costs critics want? Do they want us to be caught not only flat-footed but bare-footed if war should come suddenly upon us?

Two Russians Reported Killed in Big Nationalist Guerrilla Raid on Tungshan

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The English-language China News said today two Russians were killed in last week's big Nationalist guerrilla raid on Tungshan island off the China coast.

A defence ministry spokesman said, "I am not denying the report, but so far we have not seen any mention of the Russians in our dispatches."

The China News said the Russians presumably were technicians connected with a radar station which is reported to have been operating on Tungshan. The island is just off the mainland coast opposite Formosa.

The newspaper gave no source for its information.

PRISONERS TOTAL 890
It also reported that 890 prisoners were captured by the guerrillas in their biggest raid since Nationalist troops evacuated the mainland in 1949.

Informed sources said about 300 guerrillas wounded in the raid have been flown here for treatment.

The attack began last Thursday and the raiders withdrew the following day. The raid involved the first use of paratroopers against a Red-held island.

The Communist radio at Kunming said today the people's government of coastal province and various local organizations have sent a "solidation group" to Tungshan.

The broadcast, heard in Kung, said the group will solidate the island garrison, liberation army, civilian and residents in the event another Nationalist attack

Tourist Praises Culture Of Exhibits in Museum

Praise for the fine culture of the North American Indian as demonstrated by the exhibits in the Prince Rupert museum was expressed yesterday by a local American painter and art critic.

The museum for 2½ years was Wyclif Taylor of San Diego, Calif., former president of the United States Arts and Crafts Administration, who, with his wife, Wilfred Taylor, is making a tour of Canada and the United States. Taylor was fascinated by the examples of Indian work in the local museum and the Peggy Sowler museum, that some of the work of the North B.C. Coast Indians is a very superior nature. Taylor and his brother left by car for Jasper and continue on to Montreal, Quebec. Later they will go south to Boston, New York and plan a visit to the Carlsbad Caverns.

While visiting the museum yesterday, Taylor was expressing delight in the environs of Prince Rupert and the courtesy they received here were Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Azusa, Calif. Senator Says Canadian Protest 'Out of Line'

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON.—United States Senator Milton Young (Rep. N.D.) today asked President Eisenhower not to be swayed by Canadian protests against reduced quotas on agricultural imports.

In a letter to the president, Young said it was reported the Canadian government had delivered to the U.S. state department a "note of warning."

This note, Young said, threatened possible trade reprisals against U.S. products unless the government relaxes existing and contemplated restrictions on Canadian oats, dairy products and other goods.

"This protest, it seems to me, is out of line with the past friendly and understanding attitude of Canada and its good people," Young wrote.

"It seems to ignore the great assistance the U.S. government has given to Canada and its people all through the years, particularly with respect to their farm products."

"For example, in 1948 our government made available $345,000,000 to England to purchase wheat in Canada. This wheat, at that particular time, could have been purchased at a lower price in the United States . . ."

Young, a member of the U.S. Senate agriculture committee, said a proposed 23,000,000-bushel quota for Canadian oats imports seems liberal and in line with average Canadian oats imports over the last 10 years.

"American oats prices have been driven far below parity and even well under the government price support levels during the last two years as a direct result of record quantities of oats moving into our markets from Canada," Young said.

"It is quite evident today that the same interests which were so active in importing huge quantities of oats during the last two years are again selling American oats against purchases of Canadian oats," Young said he understood that the Federal Tariff Commission is preparing a report to Eisenhower on the matter of such imports. It would then be up to the president to rule on what quotas should be allowed on imports.

Rainiers Gain On Hollywood

By The Canadian Press

Seattle has cut Hollywood's lead in the Pacific Coast League race to 3½ games, but it took an eighth-inning homer by Walt Judnich with Clarence Maddern on base to turn the trick Wednesday night. Hollywood obligingly gave Seattle its chance to gain ground by bowing to San Francisco again, 6-5.

Seattle got a minimum of runs from a maximum of hits at San Diego. The Rainiers collected 13 safe blows and two runs. Big Al Widmar held San Diego to five hits, but one was a homer by Dick Faber in the fifth inning, and for a time it looked like this might be the only run of the game, since Bob Kerrigan was bearing down in the pinches.

It was Widmar's eleventh victory of the season.

Portland and Sacramento split a night twin bill. Sacramento won the opener, 3-1, behind the effective six-hit pitching of the veteran portlander, Herm Besse, but Portland grabbed the wind-up, 6-4, and ended a Sacramento winning streak that had gone to five games. Five Portland double plays in the second game cut down budding Sac rallies.

Al Gettel, Oakland's 35-year-old right hander, scored his 20th pitching victory as he shut out Los Angeles, 2-0. It was his fourth shutout of the season. He has lost only six games.

Piano Makers Play Merry Music as TV Boost Sales

By STEVEN V. DAVID

NEW YORK (AP)—Piano manufacturers are making merry music on their cash registers these days, business hasn't been so good in nearly 30 years.

With the help, surprisingly enough, of television, the industry is counting on selling 180,000 units this year, the largest number since the 1920's.

"The future of the piano industry looks very bright indeed," says Harold S. Morse, a director of the 90-year-old Baldwin Piano Company and head of its New York office. "Our own company, although manufacturing to capacity, is thousands of units behind in orders."

The present piano boom has built up since the Second World War. Baldwin, largest in the field, did a business of more than $21,000,000 last year, almost double its sales in 1947.

The radio killed the old player piano, and no one but the piano maker ever regretted its passing. "But, says the industry, television has been largely responsible for the resurgence in piano sales since the end of the war.

Baldwin officials figure it this way: A piano heard on the radio is invisible, and a good many listeners can't identify it as one of the instruments in an unseen orchestra. On television, however, the piano is seen as well as heard. Its decorative qualities as well as its tone are apparent.

Moreover, by keeping families home evenings, television has made the home an entertainment centre again. Seeing pianos on TV screens, Baldwin officials say, has created a desire to own one in countless families.

Another factor: Smart redesigning of pianos has made them more practical for the average home and easier to move.

Business Slow On Montreal Waterfront

MONTREAL.—Harbor officials, eyeing rows of berths normally occupied by overseas freighters which have been vacant for days, said Wednesday that business is slow, and predicted an even slower period for August.

Near-record amounts of grain which left Montreal earlier this season were said to be partly to blame for the situation. Officials returning from England and other grain-importing countries say overseas harbors are "bulging at the seams" with grain.

Only 30 ocean-going ships were berthed along the 10-mile stretch of the harbor Wednesday, compared to the more than 50 here at the peak of the grain rush. Most of the 30 still were taking on grain cargoes.

All Aboard RAF Plane Rescued

LONDON (Reuters)—The occupants of an RAF transport plane which crashed in the Mediterranean have been rescued, the air ministry announced today.

The 16 men, including senior technical officers from transport command headquarters, were picked up from dinghies by a United States amphibian plane and transferred to the British destroyer Barfluer, it added.

The Parfluer is expected to reach Malta tonight.

The U.S. plane was unable to take off because of the extra weight and so waited on the water for the destroyer's arrival.

Among the rescued is Air Commodore V. D. Morshead, senior technical staff officer, transport command. The plane crashed Wednesday off North Africa on its way from Tripoli to Habbeh-niyah, Iraq.

Dodgers' Double Victory Boosts Lead; Yanks Drop Full Game at Cleveland

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the "break up" boys take a look at today's major league standings they may want to consider switching leagues. Instead of crying "Break up the Yankees" as they have for years, they might find it more appropriate to start chanting "Break up the Dodgers."

Today, for the first time since May 17, the American League has a closer pennant race than the National.

Brooklyn's steadily-moving Dodgers lead Milwaukee by 5½ games. New York Yankees own only a 4½-game bulge over the Chicago White Sox.

TAKE TWIN BILL
The Dodgers took a big stride forward Wednesday night by defeating Chicago Cubs in a doubleheader 9-3 and 11-1 as Milwaukee bowed to Philadelphia 6-3.

The Yankees frittered away a full game of their lead by losing to Cleveland 6-4 for the second straight night after the White Sox shaded Boston 1-0.

Brooklyn combined excellent pitching with its normally heavy hitting to humiliate the hapless Cubs. Johnny Podres, rookie lefthander, struck out 10 and gave up six hits in his second complete major league contest. Veteran Carl Erskine allowed only four hits and also struck out 10 in the nightcap.

The Dodgers combed Chicago pitching for 24 hits including two home runs by Gil Hodges, who drove in seven tallies, and single circuit blasts by Carl Furillo and Duke Snider.

At Philadelphia the Phillies jumped on Warren Spahn for four runs in the first inning and the Braves couldn't catch up. The opening attack featured a two-run homer by Granny Hamner. It was Spahn's fourth loss against 12 victories.

NO STAYING POWER
The Yankees tried to win it early in Cleveland, but their pitchers didn't have staying power. The Indians trailed by three runs after three innings. Then they got to Whitey Ford for a pair in the fourth on a home run by Joe Tipton and took the lead in the fifth on a homer by Dale Mitchell and doubles by Al Rosen and Larry Doby. After a bad first inning, Mike Garcia settled down to check the invaders for his 12th triumph.

At Chicago, Virgil Trucks scattered four hits and let only one runner get as far as second. Mel Parnell, ace of the Boston staff, hurled one of his best games too, but one hit, a triple by Chico Carrasquel to open the fifth inning, ruined him.

Parnell gave up three hits in seven innings before bowing out for a futile pinch hitter. The White Sox got one more safety off Ellis Kinder, who finished up. Trucks has won 12, seven in succession, since joining Chicago in mid-June.

The only other American League action was in St. Louis where Bob Shantz, last year's most valuable player in the loop, won his first game since May 3, a five-hitter over the Browns, 11-1.

SWAP BERTHS
In the National League the New York Giants and St. Louis

Cardinals swapped positions again as the Giants rallied for two runs in the ninth to edge the Cards 6-5. The victory moved New York back into fourth place.

Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 3-2, Cal Abrams hitting two home runs for the Pirates. Paul Lapalme went all the way for his fifth victory. Pittsburgh had lost 10 in a row to the Redlegs this season.

Yakima Goes on Rampage in Calgary

By The Canadian Press
The Yakima Bears must be helping the Western International Baseball League schedule-makers book them for frequent appearances at Calgary.

When they dropped in to visit the Canadian cousins last Saturday, the Bears had no particular reputation as a menace to pitching. The Calgary ball club with its close-in fences banged all that.

The Bears wound up the visit Wednesday night by handing the Stampeders a 16-3 pounding in the final meeting of a four-game series that saw the two teams produce a total of 83 hits, 47 by Yakima, and 18 home runs.

Of the 21 safeties the Bears collected on Wednesday night were out-of-the-park homers. Danny Rios held Calgary to four hits but the Stampeders knocked two of them into the fence.

TEES SPLIT
The shogers also held the spotlight at Victoria, where they split a doubleheader with the Spokane Indians, and at Lewiston where Salem's Senators fired a 20-hit barrage at the Broncs.

The Indians slammed out five home runs in the first game at Victoria, won by Spokane 14-6, and Victoria had two Round-trippers by Don Bess and Dwane Helbig gave the Tyces a 3-2 edge in the nightcap.

At Lewiston, Gene Tanselli's home-run homer started a six-run hit parade. The Senators added seven runs on six hits and two Bronc errors in the second inning, and scored three runs in third, fourth and sixth innings and one in the eighth. The final count was Salem 13, Lewiston 7.

Vancouver knocked over Tri-City 4-2 in seven innings, and 5-4 in 11, in a doubleheader at Vancouver. Pitcher Dale Thomson tripled, then raced home after K. Chorlton skied to left field with the winning run in the 11th inning of the night. Edmonton and Wenatchee were rained out at Edmonton.

TO EMPIRE GAMES
STONEY, Australia (P) — Australia plans to send at least 38 athletes to the British Empire Games in Vancouver, B.C. next year. A preliminary budget has been made for 10 track men, seven swimmers, five cyclists, three boxers, three wrestlers, three fencers, three weight lifters and four rowers.

The Jesuit order was founded in 1534 by Ignatius Loyola.

Saturday Game Slated To Help Little Leaguers

The Little League Baseball association lost another game to the weatherman Wednesday night and the league officials are planning to stage a Saturday evening game to try and repair the battered schedule.

The game set for 7 p.m. Saturday will see the King Edward Hawks take on the Conrad Street Chums, a game originally scheduled last Friday but washed out then and last night. Also rained out was the Moose versus Sockeyes game on Monday and now re-scheduled for Aug. 7. Tomorrow night, weather permitting, a regular league game will feature the Wildcats versus the Sockeyes.

Such is the eagerness of the Little Leaguers in keeping their league commitments that officials had a hard time last night preventing the Chums and the Hawks from playing in the downpour. The boys had been rounded up during a break in the weather when it looked like a game was possible and they weren't going home without playing.

WORK PARTY NEEDED

Little League association president Art Williamson said this morning that if the rain stops this afternoon and evening an attempt will be made to erect the bleachers for the fans. Lum-

Aiyansh Playing Here Saturday

A good fast game of soccer is slated for this Saturday night when the Aiyansh Indian eleven invade Roosevelt Park for the third game of this season. Playing host to the visitors, known for their clean play is C.Y.O. On the two previous trips down this year Aiyansh has won one game from the locals and drawn one. Game time for the third encounter is 7:15 p.m.

Toronto Woman Last Hope For Canada in Net Tourney

TORONTO ©—Canada's hopes of keeping at least one of its national tennis titles at home rested today upon a husky Toronto matron.

Mrs. Hilde Doleschell, former Austrian champion, kept Canada's chance alive in the women's singles of the Canadian championships when she whipped Joan Mercladis of Modesta, Calif., 9-11, 7-5, 6-3 Wednesday night.

Canada's Davis Cup players, Lorne Main of Vancouver and Toronto, the country's ranking player, and Mrs. Hannah Sladek of Montreal, both lost.

Main's loss to Mario Llamas, Mexican Davis Cup player, in the third round of the men's singles, was the stunner of the tournament.

Fans expected the 23-year-old Main to wipe out Llamas just as he did in the Canada-Mexico Davis Cup round at Montreal last week, but at the end of the hour-long match it was Llamas by scores of 7-5, 1-6, 6-3.

Earlier, Paul Willey and Bob Bedard were eliminated.

Supreme Soviet Meets August 5

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's Parliament, the Supreme Soviet, now has been called to meet a week later than previously announced, on Aug. 5 instead of July 28. The postponement by the Soviet's praesidium was announced today. No reason was given for the delay. Though no agenda has been announced for the Soviet, a rubber-stamp body, observers have assumed that it would approve the ousting of Lavrenty F. Beria from the Soviet high command and also okay the new government budget. Analysts of Russian affairs in New York speculated the meeting was being postponed because the government heads are not yet ready with their program.

Construction Slowed
 MOOSE JAW, Sask. — The value of building permits taken out during the first six months of 1953 was down 20 per cent from the same period last year. Officials said excessive rainfall during the spring was partly responsible for the construction cut.

B.C. Boy Scouts to Perform Tonight at Ottawa Jamboree

SOUTH MARCH, Ont. (AP)—It was shades of Mother India here Wednesday night to the strains of Scottish bagpipes.

The Nova Scotia contingent at the second Canadian national Boy Scout jamboree gave the first public display in Canada of the crinoline, used in Hindu ceremonials.

The crinoline is a loop from which cords connect radially to a limp sash loop weighted with small blocks of wood. When spun, it blossoms like a huge flower.

Before a grandstand packed with "pop-drinking" Scouts from other provinces, 40 boys did the actual crinoline spinning. A group of seven put on a special show from a platform, the Oriental ceremonial wheel coming to life as they twirled the crinoline overhead and behind their backs in various patterns.

L. W. Collins of Halifax, display master, said the boys had been practicing as a unit for only a week before the jamboree.

Tonight British Columbia Scouts will present a show called "It's in the Book," a story of a boy who becomes interested in Scouting, and a minstrel show. Some 200 Alberta Scouts will give a display involving construction of a signal tower.

AUTOIST'S EXPLANATION DOESN'T HELP IN COURT

DETROIT (AP)—The hot muggy weather, his wife's shapely legs and a red light were all against Robert Wright Jr. of Dearborn.

Police, whose attention was drawn to Wright's car because of the attractive limbs dangling from the window, forced Wright over to the curb, but not before he had run through a red light.

As Wright explained, there was nothing really wrong. His wife was lying in the front seat, her head in his lap and her legs out the window.

Said the judge: "It might be one way to beat the heat, but it's also reckless driving—$50."

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD
Second Chance Saves Mrs. Keen's Contract

In the old days there was no doubt about it, Mrs. Keen's immediate overcall in her opponent's suit was forcing to game.

Today, some self-appointed authorities are saying that a bid like Mrs. Keen's two club bid in this deal is forcing for one round only.

I don't like it. The side which does not open the bidding needs some bid which is unconditionally forcing until game is reached. Once such a bid is made, the pressure is off. No space-losing jump bids are now necessary. The holder of the big hand feels no urge or necessity to make a blind stab at three no trump or some other game contract, for fear his partner will drop him.

Mrs. Keen almost blew her four-spade contract but recovered just in time. The opening lead was the six of clubs and she won with the ace. Apparently she became obsessed with the idea the king of spades was a singleton so she laid down the ace. Nothing happened. She captured only the deuce and the "key."

Seeing her mistake at once, she saw another chance. If Mr. Abel had a doubleton honor in hearts or if Mr. Champion had both king and queen of hearts and she could guess which was the true situation, she could make her contract with only one heart lead from the board. There was also the chance if Mr. Abel had a doubleton honor in hearts, he might go in with his honor prematurely thus taking out the guess.

With these thoughts in mind, Mrs. Keen led the jack of hearts at trick three. Mr. Abel couldn't stand it. It looked to him as if his queen would never take a trick if it didn't take this one. He played it and returned a club.

Mrs. Keen ruffed and led a small spade. Mr. Champion won and led another club. But Mrs. Keen ruffed, entered dummy with a trump and pushed the nine of hearts through. This won and another heart finesse assured the contract.
