Titanic Anniversary

IT WAS 40 years ago today that the "unsinkable" Titanic sank. That disaster affected the history of rica. Prince Rupert for it took to his death Sir Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, which was just about to complete the transcontinental railway with this port as its terminus. There are those who say that the progress of Prince Rupert suffered a generation's setback as a result. No peacetime deep-sea disaster, before or since, took more lives than did the Titanic.

The Titanic went down with 1513 men, women and children. Only 711 were saved.

Sunday, April 14, 1912, the new 45,000-ton queen of the Atlantic run was steaming westward on her maiden voyage from Southampton to New York. She moved under clear, starlit skies, in a serenity of superlatives. The Titanic, everybody said, was the newest, biggest, most luxurious, safest liner afloat.

Late in the afternoon, the air became cold and damp, the decks were deserted.

In the evening an Anglican clergyman led a large group in a hymn-sing in the D-deck salon. By 11, most of the passengers had retired.

On the bridge, watch officers saw only black, calm seas. The Titanic sped on at her full 21 knots.

About 15 minutes before midnight, at a point some 450 miles south of Cape Race, Newfoundland, the crow's nest lookout sounded the alarm bell. The first officer also had sighted the peak of a huge iceberg. He shouted to the quartermaster to starboard the helm. .

The huge ship responded but her forward motion was so great she slid obliquely against the iceberg. There was a gentle lifting motion.

Many passengers paid no heed.

Below, the Titanic was dying. The submerged bulk of the ice mountain had ripped open the double hull of steel plates and the seas rushed in.

The wireless crackled out distress signals. At least seven ships heard the pleas but only the cruise ship Carpathia, 48 miles away, was to be of any help. (Later she gathered the survivors, carried them to New York.)

. The Titanic's great engines stopped. Apprehension spread among the passengers as they gathered on deck.

The order went outs women and children first into the 16 lifeboats—and the lifeboats only had room for one-third of the people aboard.

Some women elected to stay with their husbands. Many had no choice. Fame and fortune had no vote. Those remaining behind also included John Jacob Astor, Benjamin Guggenheim, Isidor Strauss.

The bow of the Titanic began to dip. But the first lifeboats were only partly filled with women and children as they swayed down toward the dark sea. On the slowly sinking deck, the ship's orchestra played and people aboard and in the lifeboats sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

At 2:20 a.m., Monday, April 15, about 21/2 hours after the collision, the Titanic's lights went out. The stern rose, machinery was torn loose and everything movable rushed in a great roar toward the disappearing bow.

The Titanic slid to the bottom of the Atlantic.

First, decide what you want most, how much it will o open a special savings account at The Royal Bank of Canada for that one particular purpose. Then save for it.

SECOND, use the Royal Bank Budget Book to keep yourself on your course, and to avoid careless spending. The budget book does not suggest how you spend your money. It does provide you with a simple pattern to help you PLAN YOUR BUDGET TO SUIT YOURSELF. You can get a copy at any branch. Ask for one.

BRITISH COLUMBIA CONQUER CANCER CAMPAIGN

For 50 years we have used little white tablets-acetylsalicylic acid-for relief of pain. Today this familiar pain-killer is available in a new form without the disadvantages of acidity, insolubility and bitter taste. It is called DISPRIN and is sold at druggists everywhere.

DISPRIN is soluble and substantially neutral. When taken in water as recommended, it enters the stomach as a true solution and not as undissolved particles. It is therefore less liable to cause stomach discomfort.

DISPRIN is readily absorbed. Because it definitely dissolves (not merely disintegrates) DISPRIN permits speedy absorption and gives quicker relief. DISPRIN is palatable. Even children will take it readily.

This same hand was shown in yesterday's column. Against the spade slam, Mr. Champion opened the king of diamonds and shifted to the queen of hearts. Miss Brash then won the rest of the tricks on a squeeze play, squeezing Mr. Champion in hearts and diamonds.

This is a type of squeeze that comes up fairly frequently. Miss Brash was not surprised when the hand developed as it did. Mr. Champion's opening lead indicated he held the ace of diamonds. His heart overcall showed he was probably the only defender who could guard the heart suit.

Here is what must happen for a squeeze play to develop. One defender must find it necessary to guard two or more suits. He must have the only guards which his side has in those suits.

You, as declarer, must have South some other suit (usually the 4.6 trump suit) which you can lead 68 until the "key" opponent has to throw away a guard in one of (the jack). So he needed to keep the suits he is protecting. It is two hearts. A total of three also vital to have entries be- cards.

Rookie Gets DiMaggio's Job

Meteoric Success Spiral For Jackie Jensen

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)-From the Rose Bowl to the world series and into Joe DiMaggio's shoes in three years is a success spiral that should jar an average numan, but it hasn't turned a hair on Jackie Jensen's sandy

"Somebody had to play centrefield when DiMaggio left and I figure it might as well be me," the 25-year-old New York Yankee fly-catcher said before he took the position in an exhibition game against Brooklyn Dodgers.

Manager Casey Stengel gave the big job to Jensen after a brisk spring fight among a handful of candidates. Young Mickie Mantle at first had figured for

"No, I'm not nervous or conscious that I'm filling DiMag's shoes," Jensen said. "I don't think anybody can play centrefield as Joe did. I'm just out there trying to do the best pos-

Besides the way Case (Casey Stengel) shifts men around and plays hunches, I don't know how long I'll hold it. I plan to work hard and do my best to keep the

Jensen, halfback of the University of California football team which lost to Northwestern 20-14 in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 1949, said until DiMaggio retired he'd never thought about playing centrefield for the Yankees

"I played left and right at Oakland and I thought I had too many faults for centre," the athlete added. "But I've been workon these faults and now I think I can do it. I prefer centre because it's a greater challenge."

While patterning his fielding after the Yankee Clipper, Jensen said he went elsewhere to improve his hitting, which reached a .353 mark in spring training.

"I went in to more of a crouch more like Stan Musial," he said "I think I'm meeting the ball a lot better."

ILFRACOMBE, Devon, England (P)-British mothers now can obtain knitting details of highnecked sweater, gloves and cap, similar to those worn by Prince Charles in the gardens of Clarence House.

Prince was photographed in a white sweater colorfully patterned with ships and sailors, knitting mothers began worrying the fashion journals for a pattern. Now, Margaret Youings, designer of the royal sweater, has produced a number of scarletcoated sentries marching across the front, and instructions on how it can be knitted have been published.

Mrs. Youings, who started these designs as a hobby, now has a shop here and supplies firms in North America. A "Royal Tour" number bound for Montreal is patterned by the royal train that took the queen and her husband across Canada. It is, in fact, Canadian in every detail.

Death Due to Natural Causes

Holgar B. M. Valentin, former Prince Rupert dairyman and more recently engineer at Miller Bay Hospital, died of natural causes when he expired at the end of the week while on shift at Miller Bay, Coroner Will Robinson of Terrace, who was called here in connection with the case, found after conducting an inquiry. Mr. Valentin, it was ascertained, had suffered from heart trouble for some time before his death.
