End To Salmon Fishing Strike Looms As Negotiators Agreed

Three Boats Sail South With Catch

Depth of Fish Over in Rupert

Three Canadian halibut boats sailed south from Prince Rupert today to unload catches totalling 237,000 pounds in Vancouver as local fish plants are reported to have as much halibut on hand as they can handle.

Union, Brotherhood Vote Again Friday

Prince Rupert's strike-bound fishermen may go back to work Sunday night. The end of the strike, launched last Saturday midnight, was forecast today after union and operators' bargaining committees in Vancouver reached an agreement on salmon prices.

Joint bargainers for the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union and Native Brotherhood of B.C. have recommended acceptance of the prices by B.C.'s 3,000 fishermen, who will vote during the next two days on the issue.

In Prince Rupert, a union Brotherhood sponsored meeting will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m., in the Canadian Legion Hall, when voting will take place.

Prices agreed on at yesterday's bargaining session in Vancouver are: sockeye, 22 cents a pound; coho, 13 cents; pinks, 7 1/2 cents; summer chums, 5 1/2 cents; fall chums, 6 1/4 to 8 cents.

Negotiations on prices for this year's salmon catch started April 30 and, with little progress made the fishermen struck last Saturday night. The season was scheduled to open at 6 p.m. last Sunday.

The union asked 23 1/2 cents a pound for sockeye, seeking an increase over last year's price of 22 cents, and the operators asked a cut to 17 cents. Yesterday's offers on pinks, chums and coho all represented slight increases over last year's prices.

In Vancouver today, Homer Stevens, UFAW (AFL) secretary said, "Our committee recommends acceptance of the agreement with the idea of preventing any further dislocation in the industry."

Meanwhile in Prince Rupert yesterday, another section of the union, salmon tenders, voted on a conciliation board majority award, but the result is not known here. The ballots were sent to Vancouver for counting.

Tom Parkin, UFAW northern representative, reported this morning that the meeting had been inconclusive, with only a small turnout. Several Prince Rupert tenders would be voting elsewhere, wherever their ships docked.

The conciliation award offered the men no wage increases but recommended elimination of a $3 monthly laundry charge and minor holiday concessions. The union had asked for a $30 a month wage boost.

Diver Locates Wreckage Of Ill-Fated Canadian Tug

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (CP)—A 60-year-old diver has radioed a report of his discovery of the sunken Canadian tug Chelan, which went down with a crew of 24 men last April 15.

Diver Kay Antonsen reported discovery of the 148-foot craft by dragging. He said he confirmed its identity Tuesday by diving into the icy 180-foot deep waters of Sumner strait.

The tug sank while towing a barge of zinc ore southward. The barge wreckage, broken into nine pieces, is on the shore more than a mile away.

Churchill, Eden Get Backing of Commons For Talks in U.S.

Churchill and Eden, scheduled to leave for Washington tonight, both place great emphasis on what parliamentarians call the "feeling of the House." Wednesday night, in a Commons debate on Southeast Asia, there was no doubt what that feeling was.

Leaders of opposition parties warmly applauded Eden's exposition of Britain's policy. Labor leader Clement Attlee and Liberal leader Clement Davies in effect said "amen" to the underlying theme of Eden's remarks—that the United States could make things easier by relaxing its present attitude toward Communist China.

Eden's speech was devoted to outlining the progress made at the Geneva conference on Korea and Indo-China. His chief new proposal was that in addition to a NATO-type organization for Southeast Asia there might also be a kind of Locarno pact for the area.

On Korea, Eden said "reluctantly" that no real progress had been made at Geneva toward bridging the gap between the contending sides.

On Indo-China, there still seemed a "chance" of agreement. He called the proposed Southeast Asia pact a future safeguard rather than a present panacea thus again underlining the difference of approach between the U.S. and Britain on ways of meeting Communist infiltration in Asia.

"It should be clear to all," the foreign secretary said, "that the hopes of agreement will be jeopardized if active military operations in Indo-China were to be intensified while negotiations for an armistice are proceeding at Geneva."

Eden referred to the absence of normal diplomatic relations at Geneva, something which he said was unique in his experience. This was obviously a reference to the lack of contact between the Chinese and U.S. delegations at Geneva.

Newspapers of all political complexions today expressed hope that the Washington trip will smooth over differences and bring new accords with the U.S.

Doctor Given Five-Year Term For Manslaughter

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. Raymond D. Rush was sentenced to five years' imprisonment by Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane here Wednesday for the manslaughter of his wife Margaret last Nov. 30.

Dr. Rush was accused of failing to take proper steps to try and save his wife's life, when she was seriously ill.

The Assize Court jury took one hour and 25 minutes to reach its guilty verdict.

Leslie Parsons, Dr. Rush's counsel, said an appeal will probably be made.

Government Not Tipping Hand On Red Activity in Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The government declines to give any information on its knowledge of communism in Canada or methods of fighting it.

That kind of information, Justice Minister Garson told the Commons Wednesday night, is just what the Communists want.

Mr. Garson made the reply to questions by John Blackmore SC, Lethbridge regarding steps being taken to counteract communism.

Mr. Blackmore, who has made repeated Commons speeches about communism, said the Red high command "just plays across the world like a skillful performer playing the violin."

Communists, planned every move in advance and "have the stage all set for British Columbia next." A newspaper report had said B.C. had 90,000 Communists "and they are probably all ready to march." He did not elaborate.

"We are losing the cold war," Mr. Blackmore declared. He asked what has been done to discover Communist techniques, what success communism has achieved in Canada and what means are available to combat communism.

Mr. Garson replied that complete reticence is the only safe policy in discussing the counterespionage work of the RCMP's special branch, which deals with subversives.

Nothing would help Communists more than to disclose the opinions of RCMP experts on the success of communism.

Mr. Garson said he made the decision reluctantly. He was sure Mr. Blackmore would be the last member of the House to ask questions whose answers would give comfort to the enemy.

Asked if he had anything to say, before sentence was passed, Rush replied: "I think this verdict is the greatest miscarriage of justice which has ever taken place."

Suspect Held After Break-In

The RCMP in Prince Rupert report that Bud's Cigar Store, 741 Third Avenue West, was broken into early yesterday morning and $109 in cash, a number of watches, bracelets and miscellaneous articles taken.

Entry was gained through a rear window of the cigar stand. A suspect, still unidentified, was picked up last night as police checked leads on the $22,000 robbery of Sargent's Store in Hazelton Sunday.

A suspect was placed in Hazelton jail and will be brought to Prince Rupert for trial.

Asked if he had anything to say, before sentence was passed, Rush replied: "I think this verdict is the greatest miscarriage of justice which has ever taken place."

His wife had no use for other doctors and refused to be x-rayed or go to hospital, Dr. Rush testified. He gave these as reasons for not sending her to hospital.

Asked if he had anything to say, before sentence was passed, Rush replied: "I think this verdict is the greatest miscarriage of justice which has ever taken place."

Largest Canadian Freighter Haul Alumina For Kitimat

VANCOUVER (CP)—The newly-launched SS Sunrip, largest going freighter built in Canada, will start hauling alumina to Kitimat in October, Saguenay Terminals Ltd., says of the ship, said Wednesday.

The 475-foot vessel, which has an all-welded, aluminum structure, was launched at Davie Shipbuilding Ltd. yards in Quebec, Monday.

The ship's main function will be to carry alumina from Alouville, Jamaica, to the new Alcan smelter at Kitimat, 100-mile voyage.

On the return voyage to the Caribbean, it can be used to haul aluminum ingot, flour, grain, lumber, fish and newsprint to British Columbia.

Memory of First Aid Training Helped Woman Save Daughter

When the first aid training I learned as a girl flashed through my mind.

summer camp when I was 10 years old, but I'd never even thought about it in all the years since.

"But when I saw Sara lying unconscious it all came to me." The little girl had fallen through the ice and snow covering the pool after climbing over the little fence that penned her in the back yard.

"I looked out the window and she was gone," said Mrs. Robson. "I ran out the door and all I could see in the black hole through the snow was two hands sticking out of the water."

"I screamed and pulled Sara out and flopped her on the snow. I called to my neighbor to phone the fire department and then my mind went blank."

Mrs. Robson applied artificial respiration for 10 minutes before her daughter came around. After a three-hour sleep Sara wanted to go outside to play.

Up to the end of 1953 more than 50,000 British Columbians have been trained in first aid through St. John Ambulance.

All firemen, policemen, RCMP, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Civil Defence wardens and first aid industrial attendants as well as housewives receive St. John Ambulance training.

In 1953, 7,856 first aid certificates were awarded in 67 centres throughout the province. This includes 2,265 juniors, who, like Mrs. Robson, may have occasion to remember their training.

Past Regimes Given Blame For Poor Roads

VICTORIA (CP)—High cost of maintaining northern roads in B.C. is mainly due to neglect by past governments, Public Works Minister P. A. Gagliardi said Wednesday.

The minister joined Premier Bennett in hitting back at Liberal Leader Arthur Laing who Tuesday accused the Socred government of playing politics in road building and wasting money.

Mr. Gagliardi said the roads up north were "suffering from lack of adequate expenditure in the past."

"Since we have taken over we have had to spend 300 per cent more money on them," he said.

"We are trying to make up for the terrible treatment received from the past administration,"

Thanks To A Noted Order

TODAY an organization that is held in high esteem the world over, marks its 855th birthday, and Prince Rupert along with the rest of Canada owes it a vote of thanks and a helping hand. It is the Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, parent body of St. John Ambulance and this city is extremely fortunate to have within its limits a most active branch of this First Aid group.

While the City of Prince Rupert ambulance is manned by paid firemen, members of the ambulance crew are qualified first aiders. The ambulance is on call 24 hours a day with men trained by the St. John Ambulance. Unknown to many citizens, a St. John Ambulance man is present at practically all sporting events. He isn't distinguishable by his blue and white uniform, as he is in the larger cities, but he is there nevertheless with his box of first aid equipment. An injured basketball, football or baseball player usually finds the St. John man at his side by the time he reaches the bench.

All winter long classes in First Aid were carried out by experienced members of St. John, who spread the gospel of easing the pain of injured persons until medical aid can be summoned. Long hours, months, years are spent by these men to teach others to help themselves should the need arise.

Within the next 40 days St. John Ambulance volunteers will take on the biggest job they have ever been called on to handle in British Columbia when they serve the huge crowds at the British Empire Games in Vancouver. More than 300 St. John Ambulance personnel from as far away as Montreal will be ready to serve the public at the Games and as in all cases their services will be free. Apart from a small administrative staff, practically all St. John Ambulance workers are unpaid volunteers.

For this reason the Order has launched a campaign to raise $100,000 to carry on its volunteer services. Every quarter, fifty cent piece or bill of any denomination sent to 345 West Third Avenue, Prince Rupert, will help this noteworthy cause. Such a small contribution could pay wonderful dividends should you or a member of your family need the services of a St. John Ambulance man some day.

My Lady's Nicotine

JAMES BARRIE would probably be profoundly shocked by the news, but one of the results of the continuing investigation of cigaret-smoking is that some ladies are turning from cigarettes to pipes to enjoy the fragrant weed.

The most interesting possibility is that pipe-smoking may change the feminine nature. Pipe-smokers are notoriously men of few words; they have to be, because of the necessity of removing the pipe from the mouth before giving utterance.

Last Go First

CNR NEAR Winnipeg: There are quite a few far western MPs on the train today for there is an unwritten rule in the parliament of Canada that those who come farthest may go home first.

The "boys" from Ontario and Quebec, who go home every weekend all through the session, are told very plainly that turn about is fair play.

Week after week those of us from the far east and far west seacoast ridings have held the fort in parliament on Fridays and Mondays while our mates from central Canada have been in their own homes. Now they have to play it for fat by letting us get away a day or two before the end.

WE LEFT Ottawa without knowing for sure whether parliament meets in the fall, or not till next January.

There is a sharp argument about this in the cabinet—so we back-benchers hear via the grapevine.

One school of thought says that it is just a waste of time to meet in the fall, because that just gives the longer-winded MPs the chance to be longer-winded than ever. They say that no matter when the House is called to meet it never finishes the job until the midsummer heat and humidity literally drives the sweating MP's out of Ottawa. Therefore, this school of thought argues—it is plain silly to meet in the autumn.

Over against this argument is the other, which seems to be sure to win out, for I think it includes the Prime Minister. They reason like this:

The job of being an MP has come to be pretty well a year-round task—and in fact the increase in the pay was made on recognition of that fact. They say it is all very well to talk about streamlining the rules and shortening the debates—but that the Opposition will always find ways of dragging things out as long as they—the opposition—choose to do so.

BY AND LARGE, the younger MP's who bring their wives and families to Ottawa prefer to meet in the fall. That enables them to put their children in Ottawa schools, and keep them there for the full fall and spring terms.

Everyone knows that it is a terrible hardship on a child to be shifted around from pillar to post, especially in mid-term.

A good many of us, including me, do not care when we meet—so long as we get plenty of notice in advance, so we can make our family plans accordingly.

ON THE WHOLE, I think about the hardest thing to take on the MP's job is the Ottawa climate. I can well believe the legend that Louis Riel picked the capital of Canada blindfold, by shutting her eyes and sticking a pin in the map.

Ottawa is too cold in winter and too hot and humid in summer. The best thing about the city of Ottawa is the westward train.

Americans don't travel as much as you'd think, says Readers Digest for June. Fifteen million persons have never been more than 250 miles from home. One person in ten has never travelled on a train. About 52 per cent of total population cannot swim. The typical American likes most of his neighbors—only two per cent say they don't get along.

OTTAWA DIARY

NORMAN M. McLEOD

At the close of the parliamentary session the MPs generally are feeling just a little frustrated. For seven months now they have labored with commendable diligence and considerable conscientiousness. Yet they feel that they haven't been too successful all that time in holding the ear of the public.

They admit that the session hasn't been spectacular. Post-election sessions never are. For there's never any use in fighting over again the issues that have just been decided at the polls. And the next general election is too far off to be realistic. Hence a post-election session generally provides a breathing spell for politicians and political parties alike—unless in some exceptional period of partisan strife such as the stormy nineteen-twenties.

But despite the lack of fireworks at this first session of Canada's 22nd Parliament, the MPs feel that it contributed some highly useful work. The bulky revisions of the Bank Act and of the Criminal Code were marathon legislative projects that had to be done. It is admitted that the work would have been done more satisfactorily if decisions hadn't been laid over on the controversial issues of capital punishment and the legalization of state lotteries. In addition, the world's longest pipeline was authorized to bring Western Canada natural gas to Ontario. The prospect is that this gas will mean an important fuel saving to residents of Eastern Canada. Then a start was made on pensions for the nation's disabled citizens. The National Housing Act was amended to make its terms of repayment longer and easier, even although in the process interest rates and other charges went up. The Customs Act was strengthened, although again with only qualified success since experience already has shown that the changes aren't fulfilling their main objective of halting the dumping of United States textiles in the Canadian market. From the standpoint of the MPs themselves, of course, the feature legislation of the session was the bill which they passed to raise their own indemnities. The legislators argued that no lesser folk than $10,000-a-year men—or women—should be considered suitable material for sitting in Parliament. As they themselves were $8,000-a-year men at the time, their argument was a condemnation of themselves. Once they had set the stage by raising the indemnity, they should, both in logic and in consistency, have bowed aside and let real $10,000-a-year men take over.

But consistency has been a fetish of Parliamentarians. Besides, once they raised the indemnity they automatically became $10,000-a-year men. And wasn't that all that mattered? So they just took the raise pay and held on to their seats as well. Nobody expected they would do any differently.

United Church Candlelight Rites Unite Mary-Ellen MacKenzie, Harold Marshall

The soft gleam of candlelight on the delicate, muted tones of the bridal attendants' dresses, repeating the colors of masses of flowers in First United Church, formed a lovely setting for last night's marriage of two well-known Prince Rupert young people, Mary Ellen MacKenzie and Harold Vernon Marshall.

The popular pair are daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. MacKenzie, 1237 Eleventh Avenue East, and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Marshall, 1105 Ambrose Avenue.

The Rev. L. G. Sieber conducted the beautiful double-ring ceremony at 8 p.m., for which tall white tapers in candelabra, baskets of vari-colored peonies and sprays of other spring flowers decorated the church.

CHARMING BRIDE

The attractive brunette bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a wedding gown of traditional white. The ballerina length dress of rayon taffeta featured bouffant overskirts of nylon net and tulle, flaring from a tiny waisted, strapless bodice of lace, topped by a matching lace jacket with ruffled point sleeves and demure Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip-length veil cascaded from a pretty pearl-trimmed tiara and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses with white carnations.

Her three attendants were Miss Marjorie Tattersall as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Dorothy Marshall and Miss Marie Hiltz.

Miss Tattersall was gowned in mauve rayon taffeta in ballerina style with permanent pleated overskirt of nylon net, lace bodice and nylon net bolero. A matching headdress and bouquet of yellow carnations completed her ensemble.

Miss Marshall and Miss Hiltz wore similarly styled gowns of pale green and dusky rose taffeta respectively. The frocks, also of ballerina length, featured nylon tulle and net overskirts, bodices of embossed taffeta and matching boleros. Both wore headdresses matching their gowns and Miss Marshall carried pale pink and yellow carnations while Miss Hiltz carried rose and pink carnations.

Groomsman was Mr. George Dumas and ushers, Mr. Bill MacKenzie, the bride's brother, and Mr. Barry Watson. Mrs. Yvonne Calderwood was organist and Miss Evelyn Hrehorka soloist, singing "Oh, Promise Me."

ELKS RECEPTION

The Elks' Home was gaily decked with rainbow hued streamers, cedar boughs and crepe paper roses for the arge reception. The bride's table held a three-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Andy Thompson. Tall pink tapers and pink and white carnations added to the table decor.

Mr. Arthur Murray was master of ceremonies for the event for which the bride's mother wore a smart tailored dress of rose linen and lace with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a navy blue linen dress, en tailleur, with pink accessories and pink and white carnations en corsage.

Following the gala affair, the bridal pair left on a two-week motor trip through the interior of B.C. For the trip, the bride changed to a pretty light green boucle suit with matching hat and white accessories. A black-flecked rose-toned coat completed her travelling ensemble. On their return, the pair will make their home at 940 Tenth Avenue East.

Laird-Twaites Vows Pledged At United Church Ceremony

Making their home in Prince Rupert are Mr. and Mrs. Barry Laird, whose quiet wedding ceremony was held at the First United Church here recently with the Rev. L. G. Sieber officiating.

The bride, Patricia Anne, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Twaites, 915 Eighth Avenue East and the groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Laird, 1428 Sixth Avenue East.

WEDDING SERVICE

At the early evening service, the bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pretty suit of pale blue wool with sparkling white accessories and red roses en corsage. Her only attendant was Miss Verna Wouden, bridesmaid, clad in a suit of dark grey with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Mr. Alex Farlane was best man.

FAMILY RECEPTION

A small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Murdoch, 1161 Ambrose Avenue, when relatives and a few close friends of the bridal pair were entertained. The bride's mother, who for the occasion a navy blue afternoon dress with navy white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses, while Mrs. Laird wore a light blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage also was of yellow roses.

Lutherans Fete Pastor Olson On Departure

Pastor and Mrs. H. O. Olson of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, who have left for a new post at Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, were honored prior to their departure at a congregational social.

The event also honored Miss Curline Helde, choir leader and Sunday School teacher who left with the Olson's bound for Camprose, Alta., where she will attend the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute.

The young people of the church conducted a devotional program after which T. Fossen presented a gift of money to the Olsons on behalf of the congregation. Pastor Olson, in thanking the group, urged equal co-operation for Pastor Arthur Olson who will take over the parish in August.

Miss Helde also received a farewell gift, presented by Miss Helen Olson.

Last Rites Held At Hartley Bay For M. Edgar

Special to The Daily News

HARTLEY BAY—Funeral rites were held here Sunday for Magnus William Edgar, son of the late Rev. George Edgar, in Hartley Bay United Church, with many friends from Prince Rupert, Klemm and Hartley Bay attending.

Edward Clifton officiated at the service for which the Hartley Bay choir rendered special music.

Pallbearers were Arthur Robinson, Herbert Ridley, jr., Herman Reece, Fred Bolton, Ivan Eaton and Heber Clifton, jr.

Burial was at Hartley Bay Cemetery.

Graduation Ceremonies Held

Borden Street
Graduating exercises were held at Borden Street School Wednesday afternoon when in the presence of parents, report cards were issued to the Grade Six students and presentation of the Miss S. A. Mills Memorial Trophy was made.

Principal J. S. Wilson, complimenting students on their scholastic achievements, presented report cards to the youngsters, and named Evelyn Rowe and Donald Lewis joint winners of the coveted Miss Mills trophy, given in memory of the former school principal. Each of the youngsters will hold the trophy for six months. They also receive small cups.

Evelyn Rowe gave the valediction and Gail Davidson extended good wishes to the graduates on behalf of next year's grade sixers.

Annunciation
Grade Ten students of the Annunciation School graduated yesterday with an impressive ceremony.

The day opened for the graduates with a mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. O. P. Mohan and sung by the secondary grades of the school. Later, with their parents, they attended a graduation breakfast in Annunciation School Hall. Father Mohan, Father McMahon and Brother Smallcombe were special guests.

The graduation breakfast was arranged by Mrs. P. Lyons assisted by Mrs. W. Pierce and Mrs. J. Rogerson. It was served by the Grade 9 girls.

Father Mohan, in his address to the graduates said: "This is the parting ceremony at Annunciation School. Another link in your chain of life has been completed. Start all future links, with the same principles that have been taught you in Annunciation School and Church and you will live happy useful lives."

The award from the Burns Club for the best all round student was won by Ann Brown. An award from the Home and School Association for outstanding good citizenship was won by Tony Toth, as well as the Name Proficiency award. Charlene Choquette also won a good citizen award and the Grade 9 award for proficiency was won by Anita Rogerson. All graduates received leather bound new testaments and a medal as parting gifts.

Tony Toth, on behalf of the graduating class, thanked the Sisters for their guidance and assistance and Sister St. Martin, principal of the school gave her best wishes to the graduates.

The graduating class consisted of Ann Brown, Charlene Choquette, Connie Basso, Cathy Roos, Tony Toth, Alice Etzertza and Nancy Wood.

They completed their day with a picnic at the Parish Cottage across the harbor.

City Schools Close Today; 22 Quitting Local Staffs

Excited students of all but one of Prince Rupert's schools flocked from their classrooms today, not to return until next September.

The youngsters received report cards, tidied up their desks, collected books and rushed away, looking forward to two happy months of no "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic."

At Annunciation School, youngsters will end their spring term tomorrow, with presentation of prizes and receipt of final report cards.

The day marked the end of the season's work for teachers, too, many of whom will not see Prince Rupert students again.

Fifteen teachers of the Booth Memorial High School are leaving the district, and the board of school trustees have made five appointments for next fall.

In elementary schools in the city, a total of eight teachers are leaving and five appointments have been made. The rural school picture is more complicated with resignations and transfers, but counting moves from one school to another in the district, as resignations, the total is five, with three appointments (or new posts for present teachers) made.

Teachers leaving Booth Memorial High School include Harry Johnson, Tomo Naka, Mrs. Christine Worsley, Frank Moore,

Comeback in Last Half Sees GM Edge Union XI

A determined General Motors club overcame a one goal deficit and a player shortage last night to win the first game in the Prince Rupert District soccer league from Pulp Workers Local 708 by a 4-2 score at Roosevelt Park.

Playing with 10 men only for the majority of the first half, the motors team saw the union club's coach Jim Perry score two goals before Ted Gofers took the field at left back to even the sides. The full motors squad started on the come-back trail shortly after, and the half ended 2-1.

The union eleven, playing downhill for the first half, had the edge on the play and Perry made no mistake when he drove a hard ball to the left hand corner of the goal, while motor's goalie Frank Rutten was caught out of position in a scramble.

Pressing their own advantage, Local 708 peppered Rutten with shots and the motors' goalie came up with several difficult saves. However, he was not given a chance when Perry netted a ball which was coming down from a high kick.

With both sides at full strength, play evened out and General Motors' Ed Rutten beat union goalie Harry Winston when he nicked up a rebound from Ernie Kreutzky to end the half.

General Motors tied the score when Kreutzky deflected in a penalty shot by Henry Lindquist just after the second half started.

The winning goal was scored by Rod Tait who aimed a ball at the left hand corner of the union goal. The ball hit the post and bounced in, giving netminder Winston little chance.

Casey Nuyten added the insurance goal ten minutes before the whistle ended the game.

The next district soccer league fixture is Saturday when the Gondola Cafe will meet the Port Edward eleven.

Lineups:
General Motors—Frank Rutten, c; Ted Gofers, lb; Brick Eby, rb; Henry Lindquist, lf; Maurice Bishop, ch; John Bessering, rh; Dave Murray, ol; Ed Rutten, il; Rod Tait, cf; Ernie Kreutzky, ir; Casey Nuyten.

Harv Haddix Not Upset Over Near Miss

PITTSBURGH — Harvey Haddix, St. Louis Cardinal southpaw who's leading the majors with 12 victories, says he isn't disappointed because he lost his bid for a fourth consecutive shutout by an eyelash.

"I just want to win 'em all," Haddix explained after his sparkling 7-1 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday night. "No, I'm not disappointed I didn't get another shutout. We won, didn't we?"

Haddix allowed only five hits to the last-place Pirates as he hurled his 10th consecutive victory. It was a particularly pleasing win for Haddix because the last time he was defeated, his third of the season, was by the Pirates April 29.

Haddix was rolling along in fine style Wednesday night, having given up only two hits until Dick Cole came up in the sixth. The Buc infielder sent a drive to right field that went for a triple. A moment later he scored on an infield out to mark the first run tallied against Haddix in 37 consecutive innings.

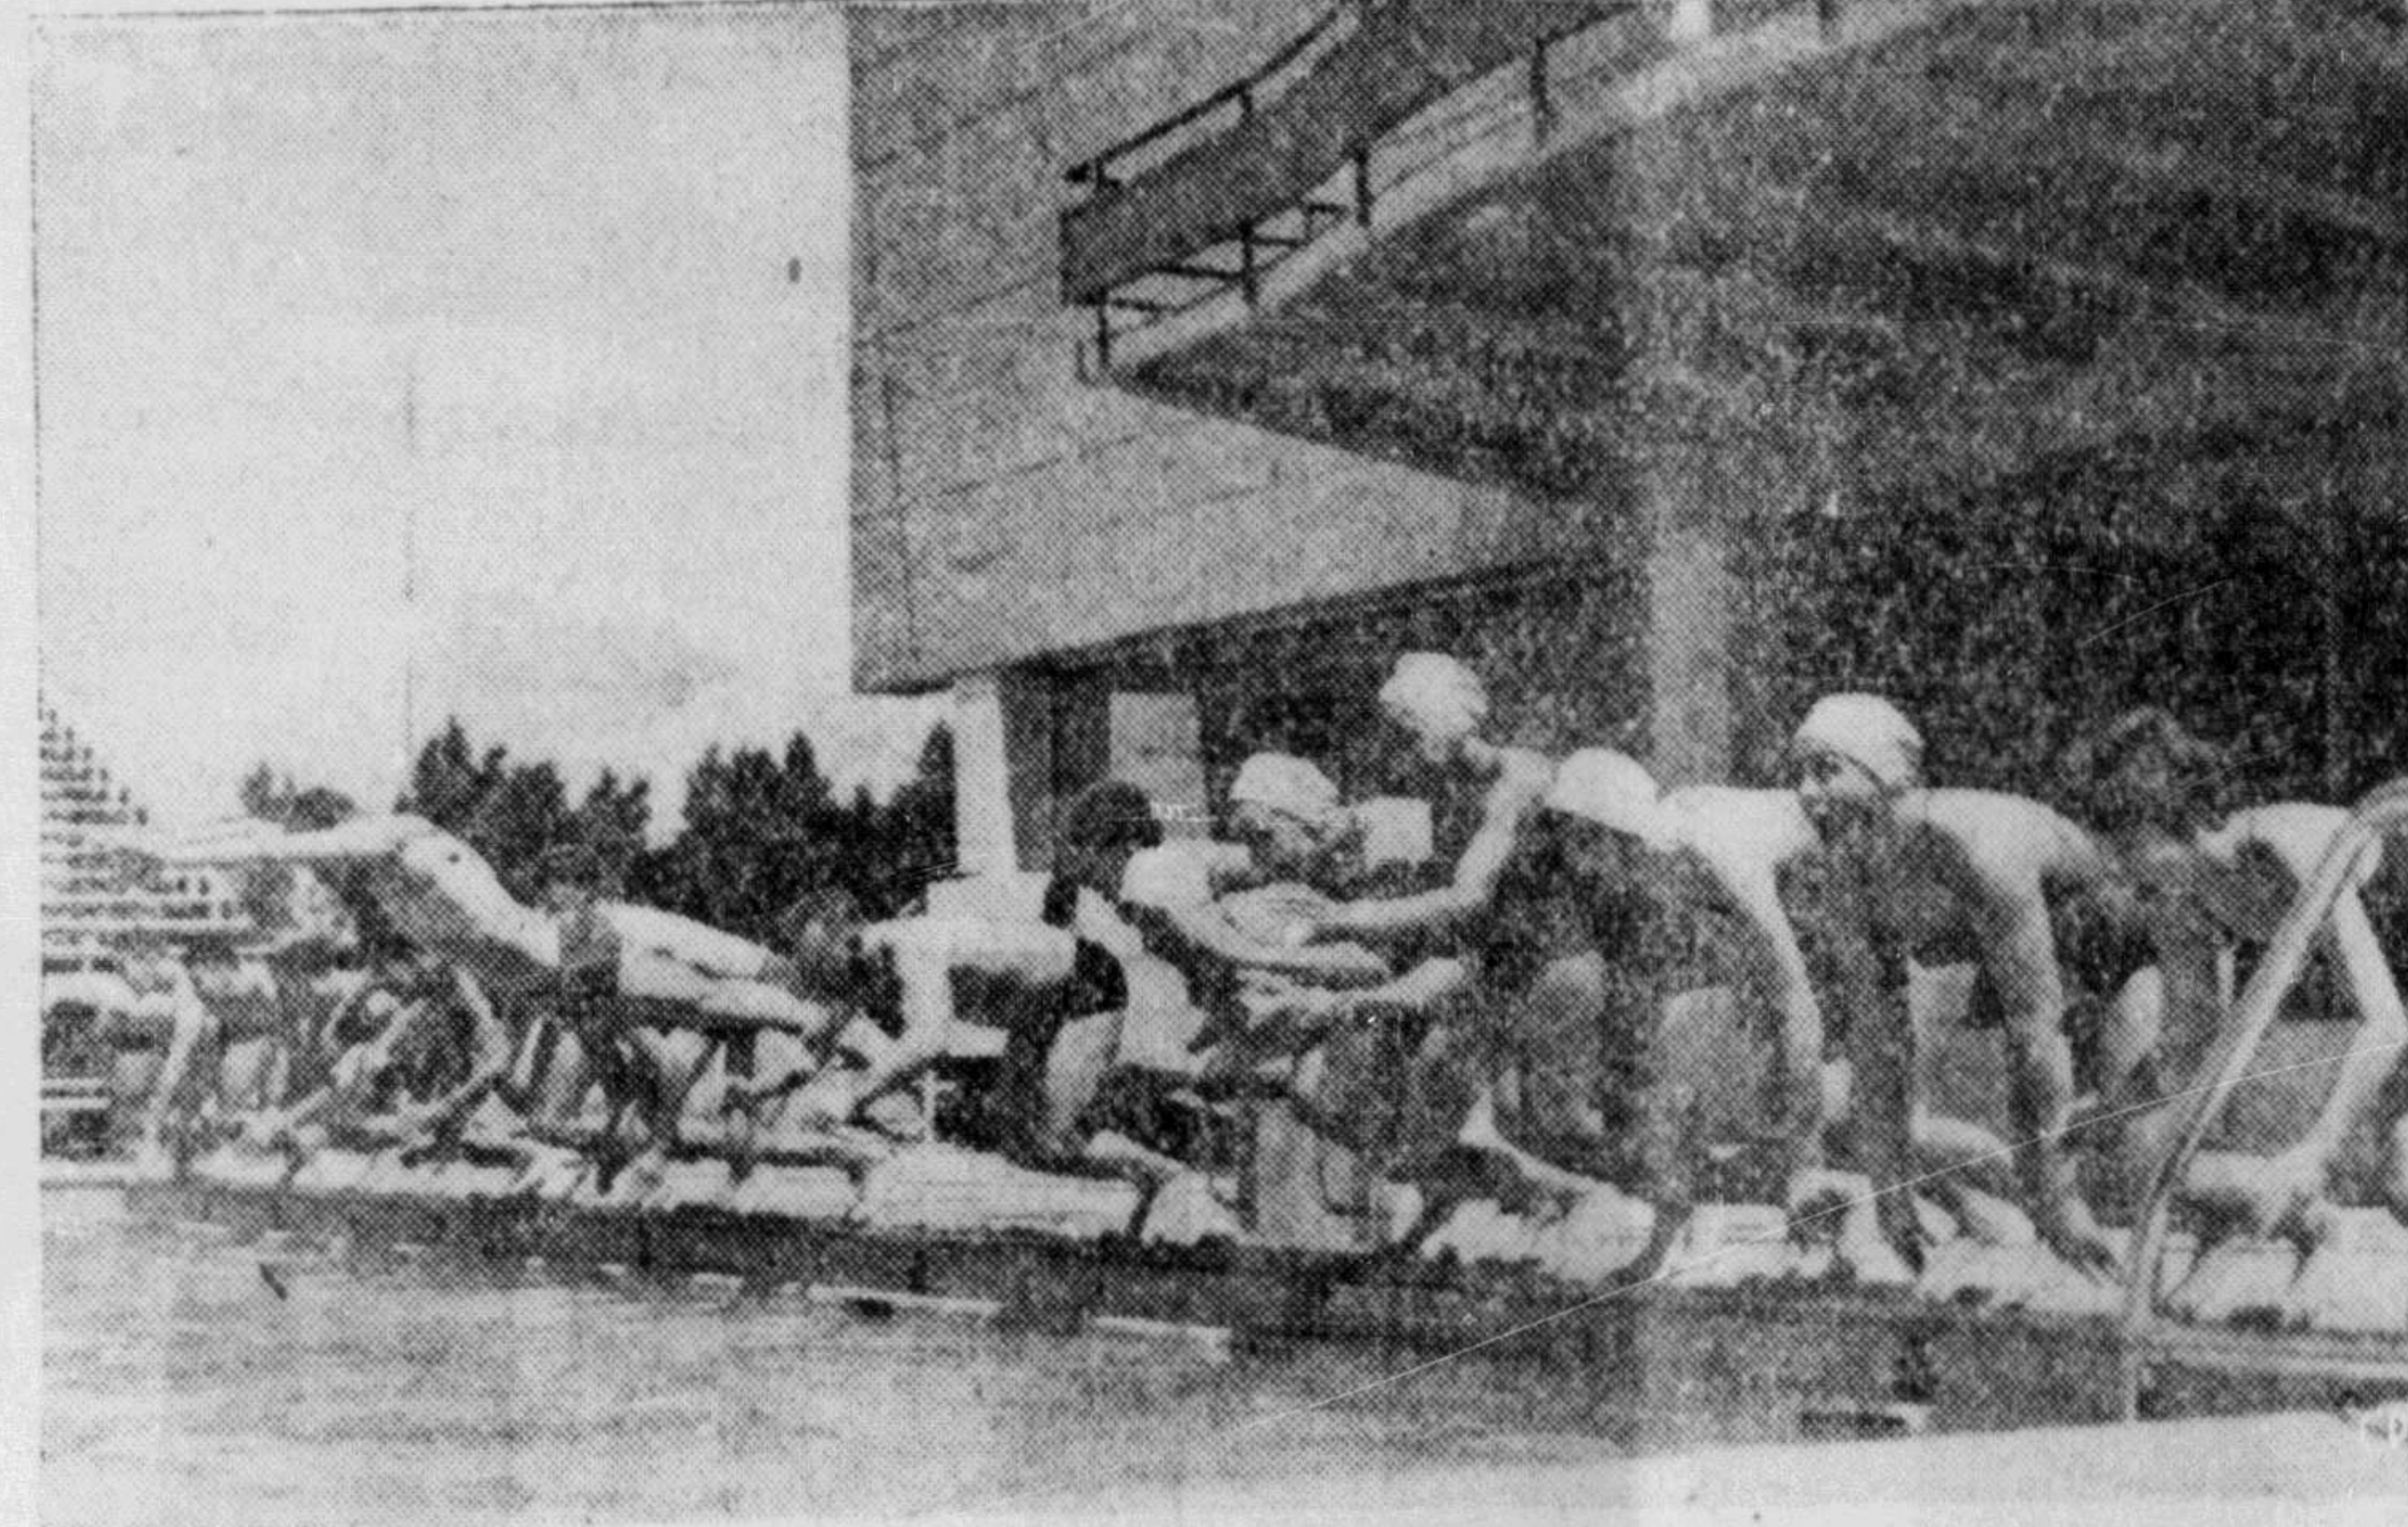

With Cole's hit went Haddix' chances of beating the record of 46 consecutive scoreless innings set by Carl Hubbell, ex-New York Giant pitcher, and the bingle kept Haddix from trying to tie the National League record of four consecutive shutouts held by several pitchers.

"Saver" Jolly To Rescue As Braves Edge Giants

By The Associated Press

Dave Jolly, a lean Irish right-hander from Stony Point, N.C., is the Milwaukee Braves' "saver," the pitcher who gets the call when the going is the toughest.

So far this year he has been in 23 games, more than a third of the Milwaukee total. In 36 innings Jolly has given up only 23 hits and four earned runs for a sparkling earned-run average of 1.00. His personal record shows four victories and two defeats.

But one of his most spectacular performances won't appear on his won and lost totals. This came Wednesday in Milwaukee's 5-2 triumph over the fast-moving New York Giants.

THREE RUNS AHEAD

Jim No-Hit Wilson sailed into the last of the ninth with a three-run edge enroute to his fourth straight victory. But the Giants, who think they own the copyright on Frank Merriwell finishes, got rid of Wilson with successive singles by Monte Irvin and Don Mueller.

With the dangerous Willie Mays at bat, Jolly strolled to the rescue. He worked the count to 2-2 on Mays, who had homered earlier, before hitting him in the back to fill the bases.

Then Jolly applied the pressure. Pinch-hitter Hank Thompson lofted a short fly. Wes Westrum fouled out. And Bobby Hofman, who has hit three pinch-hit home runs this season, popped up in front of the plate.

Brooklyn took advantage of Milwaukee's success and cut the Giants' first-place margin to a single game by defeating Cincinnati 6-3. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 7-1 as Harvey Haddix won his 12th game. Philadelphia whipped Chicago 5-3.

TRIBE WINS

In the American League Cleveland tripped Philadelphia 5-2. Chicago outlasted Washington 8-6. New York defeated Detroit 9-4 and Baltimore broke its nine-game losing streak, shading Boston 8-7 in a 17-inning marathon that ran four hours, 53 minutes, the longest game ever played in the American League; and one minute short of the longest night game in major league history.

Kinsmen Trounce Super Valu For First Victory of Season

Kinsmen of the Prince Rupert Little League gained their first win of the season last night at Algoma Park by downing Super-Valu 8-3.

Neither team scored in the first frame, but the inning saw the first of three double plays in the game retire the Super-Valu club. With the bases loaded, Rosedale grounded to the mound. Hebb threw to the plate to catch Mintenko coming home and catcher Johnny Olsen fired to third to catch Main.

Kinsmen's first run came on three successive walks by Martin, Super-Valu's pitcher. Ray Windle pulled off the second double play of the game when he took a fly ball from Kinsmen's Erickson and tagged Armstrong coming into second. However, Hebb scored on the play to give Kinsmen the edge.

Mutch evened the score when Hebb walked the first two men up in Super-Valu's second, hit the next batter and walked Martin. Windle figured in another double play, batting to the mound. Hebb threw to the plate to catch Morrison and catcher Olsen threw to Voggen at third to cut off Jensen.

Foster got the first hit off Martin in the top of the third and came in to score on Olsen's blow to deep centre.

Kinsmen added three more insurance markers in their half of the fourth. The runs came on a triple by Armstrong, a double by Erickson and singles by Olsen and Voggen.

Super-Valu threatened in their fifth when Hebb hit Martin, walked Calderoni and Russell topped the Kinsmen pitcher for the first Super-Valu hit to score. However, Mutch's ground ball to third forced Russell to end the inning.

Kinsmen added three more runs in the sixth on doubles by Foster and Olsen, two walks and a single by Turner off reliever Ray Windle who replaced Martin on the mound.

Ford Names Possible Line-Up For Series With Ketchikan

Tentative starting line-up of the all-star team which will meet and American invasion from Ketchikan next Wednesday and Thursday was announced this morning by Rusty Ford who was named to pilot the All-Stars by the baseball commission yesterday.

Commercial Hotel's heavy hitting Nick Pavlikis will be in right field with Gordon and Anderson's Ralph Endridge in centre and team mate Stan Petrow in left.

The hot corner will be handled by Gord Mundle of Esquires if he is in town, manager Ford said. Esquires' sensational shortstop Joe Giordano will play in short, with heavy batting Dave Hill of G & A holding down the keystone sack.

The brother combination of Syd and Don Scherk have also been named to the all-star aggregation, with Syd on first and Don behind the plate. Starting pitcher has not yet been selected, Ford said.

NEW PROOF

THAT MILLIONS CAN END THE NEED FOR LAXATIVES

—find relief from constipation this safe, natural way—without the injurious effects of repeated laxative use.

With all the progress of medical science over the past 30 years, authorities say there is no longer any reason why irregularity should be our most widespread human malady.

Nor is there any reason for developing the habitual use of harsh laxatives—of dosing with one preparation after another in the vain hope of finding, in some potion or pill, the "secret" of lasting relief.

Long-continued study of the problem has shown that one of the most common causes of irregularity is lack of bulk in the diet. And when this is the case, the common-sense correction is to be found not in the drug store but in your food store!

IT HAS LONG BEEN A MEDICALLY RECOGNIZED FACT THAT NATURE HAS PROVIDED, IN THE NATURAL FOODS MEN WERE INTENDED TO EAT, ALL THE ELEMENTS NECESSARY FOR THE LIFE-LONG AVOIDANCE OF COMMON CONSTIPATION.

One of these elements is natural fibrous bulk, or vegetable cellulose, which normally and naturally aids the rhythmic process of elimination.

In no natural food is this natural bulk so ideally found as in the outer layers, or bran, of the whole wheat kernel which, as you know, is lost in modern milling.

Because of the known value of bran in promoting regularity the Kellogg Company has produced a complete, whole bran—with nothing taken away to lessen its effectiveness—sold under the name of Kellogg's All-Bran, the natural laxative cereal. How effective is All-Bran? This has been demonstrated in a series of systematic clinical studies reported in leading medical journals.

In one study, 135 people with known delayed bowel function were given one ounce of All-Bran daily for one week. They were studied clinically and with X-ray with tests made before, during and after they ate the All-Bran.

OF THE 135 PEOPLE, 100 SHOWED DEFINITE CLINICAL IMPROVEMENT IN JUST 7 DAYS.

IN A FOLLOW-UP STUDY BETTER THAN 6 OUT OF EVERY 7 PATIENTS WHO WERE GIVEN ALL-BRAN IMPROVED.

The greatest advantage of All-Bran is that it corrects the cause of irregularity due to insufficient bulk. Chemically or drug-type laxatives, on the other hand, are intended only for overnight relief of a temporary stoppage.

When people use these products habitually—in a way that forces makers never intended—they push their digestive system in a way that nature never intended. Instead of correcting the cause, they actually make their condition worse.

If you think you must take a laxative preparation occasionally, do so. But do it wisely. Read the instructions completely. AVOID EXCESSIVE USE. But for permanent lasting relief put your trust in Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast and plenty of water.

This All-Bran plan has helped millions to re-establish and to maintain their regularity. Why not yours?

Murder Suspect Arrested

VANCOUVER — Cecil Terry, 41, will appear in court here today to hear a charge of murder formally read against him. Terry was arrested on a city street less than 24 hours after his 38-year-old wife Catherine, mother of five, died in hospital from multiple brain injuries.

She was found brutally beaten at the Terry home Monday, and never regained consciousness.

Police believe a heavy hammer they are holding as evidence was used to inflict the crushing blows.

Terry was nabbed by a beat constable and after a short scuffle was taken into custody, handcuffed to a detective.

OUTDOORS With Marty —

Unless one makes a prolonged trip through the United States immediately south of B.C. it is difficult to comprehend the hugeness of the business that has developed in the past few years in outdoor things. Any small town near lake or stream devotes itself virtually entirely to catering to the visiting angler. A place of say 5,000 population would have not less than ten stores carrying fishing tackle, bait and WORMS. These alone are raised in prodigious quantities and a common sight is to see a dozen signs on as many houses or stores in a row, each bearing the single magic word WORMS!

Some of the more progressive stores actually have "brag displays" outside, a favorite being a refrigerator about four cubic feet with a glass top. Right beneath the top will be displayed a recent catch of trout by some fortunate fisherman. The finest I examined was of five rainbows each but sixteen inches long, taken on worms of course. Names and places are given and the fish remain on show perhaps longer than they ought. The "let's go fishing" theme is played on constantly. Each evening a report on the day's catches is given from the local radio station, and derbies of all kinds are employed to give all comers a chance at a prize.

Now all this is very well. This tremendous build-up whets appetites to the point where just going fishing with little to carry home merely serves to drive the unsatisfied angler to more prolific waters. That means RIGHT HERE my brother, and when he comes here he gets his fish to carry home alright, and a few to keep in the freezer too! We are happy enough to share our good things with the right kind of neighbors, and we are willing to accept their contribution towards the betterment and perpetuation of these good things. It merely remains for us to raise a single loud voice calling upon our own powers that be to see that legislation is forthcoming to ensure that this contribution is exacted.

Rivers in our own B.C. waters is possibly unique in the number of spawning streams that empty into it, and in the marvelous run of heavy spring salmon which occupy it at certain well known times. Naturally these things are common knowledge in well-heeled angling circles in the U.S. but are you, brother Canuck, aware that some of these cousins of ours come to Rivers Inlet in their fine sea-going yachts, to anchor for protracted periods and actually shuttle back and forth to their homes by airplane? Just how long do you suppose this angling resource of ours is going to withstand this pressure?

Do you realize that some of the choicest stretches of land bounding northern B.C. rivers are being bought (some of them for frankly commercial resort purposes) by aliens? It is definitely NOT alarmist to state the possibility of the unhappy day coming when we Canadians may have to pay for the privilege of angling in these rivers. There are already scores of places in Oregon and California where anybody may fish private waters at any time and pay for fish caught at so much per fish. May the Gods of our woods and waters never let it happen here!!!

Former Attorney-General R. H. Pooley, Dies Aged 75

VICTORIA — Robert Henry Pooley, 75, B.C. attorney-general during the Tolmie regime and for 25 years Esquimalt member of the legislature, died in St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday night after a lengthy illness.

His death severed one of the few remaining links with the pioneers of this city and removed one of the last stalwarts of the pre-war Conservative party in the province.

Mr. Pooley was attorney-general from 1928 to 1933 and a member of the legislature from 1912 until 1937 in successive Conservative governments. He was leader of the opposition for one term of four years—1924-28. He was born in Esquimalt Sept. 19, 1878 and received his early education in private schools in Victoria and graduated from Bradford College, Berkshire, England in 1896.

He was admitted to the bar in 1901. In the legislature he was a brilliant debater and in all aspects of life he was a man of force and power.

Mr. Pooley is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. R. H. Tye and Mrs. D. W. Gross both of Victoria; three sisters, Miss Alice Pooley of Victoria, Mrs. S. C. Sweeney of Vancouver and Lady Stanley of London.

OLDSTERS LOOKED AFTER

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Rules of No-Dummy Days Survive, But Are Obsolete

In the days of whist there was no dummy, so each player saw only his hand. In that period many "rules" of play were devised, most of which have survived to the present time.

One of these was, "play second hand low." This rule was pronounced not because it was always right to play second hand low but because it was more often than not.

Today, every player at the table can see one of the other hands—the dummy. Therefore, there is much less excuse for blindly following the second hand low rule—or any of the old whist axioms, for that matter. A careful scanning of his own cards and the dummy will often tell the alert player that the winning action is second hand high.

MASTERS vs. ABEL
See what Mr. Masters did to Mr. Abel in today's deal. He opened the four of clubs and Mr. Abel won with the 10. A small heart was led and Mr. Masters promptly played the king. That play held Mr. Abel to one heart trick at the most.

If Mr. Masters had played low, the 10 would have gone on from dummy and Mr. Meek would have won with the queen. A subsequent finesse against the king of hearts would have brought in four tricks in the suit.

Even if Mr. Meek had made the good play of refusing to take the queen of hearts on the first lead of the suit, Mr. Abel would have got two heart tricks—enough for his contract.

ABEL GETS NO TRICKS
As the play actually went Mr. Abel got no heart tricks at all. Realizing he had to take as many as two hearts to make the hand, he let the king hold, hoping Mr. Masters held the queen, too.

Mr. Masters led another small club and Mr. Abel won and finessed the jack of hearts, losing to Mr. Meek's queen. A spade was returned and there was now
