Simple Question in Liquor Plebiscite

House Given Hint by Attorney General
As to What Wording Will Be

VICTORIA (CP)—Some indication of what the wording of the proposed liquor plebiscite may be was given in the Legislature last night.

The subject came up when the Attorney General's estimates reached the floor of the House.

Don Brown (Progressive-Conservative) asked Attorney General Gordon Wismer if the House could be told what wording will be used in the plebiscite which will be put to the voters at the coming provincial election.

Mr. Wismer said the exact wording would be decided by the cabinet but this question was favored:

"Are you in favor of sales of spirituous liquors and wine in licensed premises?"

The Attorney General said that, in his view, one question was sufficient.

"If we start breaking it up into a lot of compartments, we won't get a proper expression of opinion."

Speculation earlier had been that the voters would be given several choices for broadening of the province's liquor laws and that the question might be put on a local option basis.

Premier Johnson said that he, himself, would prefer to confine it to a very simple question such as the Attorney General had suggested.

OPPOSES PLEBISCITE

Mrs. Tilly Rolston (Independent, Vancouver-Point Grey) said a Royal Commission should probe the liquor distribution question and that a plebiscite should not be put at the election.

"Vote-giving and liquor don't mix," she warned.

Canada's NATO Sphere Under Discussion

OTTAWA — For two days of conference here with Canadian defence officials with a view to settling Canada's operational responsibilities in northwest Atlantic defence, Admiral Lynn McCormick, USN, supreme commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, arrived in Ottawa today. Sea and air defences particularly will be discussed.

Canada's defence sphere may be set to extend from the east coast as far as Iceland with Halifax becoming sub-headquarters for NATO.

Victorian Sportsman Dies

VICTORIA—George Yale Simpson, 65-year-old manager of Canada's Fairbanks-Morse Co. and prominent in sports here, died at the age of sixty.

SURRENDERS SMILING—Edwin Alonzo Boyd, 38, alleged mastermind of a gang of bank robbers, was arrested in bed in Toronto Saturday after an all-night vigil by police. Boyd, smiling wryly as he is escorted by sergeant of detectives Adolphus Payne, left, and detective Jack Kenneth, right, gave up without a struggle. Two others believed in his gang, Steve Suchan and Leonard Jackson, were captured by Montreal police. Suchan was wounded when he reached for a gun and Jackson was wounded in a furious gun battle with police. Jackson and Suchan are alleged to have shot sergeant of detectives Edmund Tong and detective Roy Perry before fleeing to Montreal. (CP PHOTO)

British West Indies as Eleventh Province Mooted

HALIFAX—Hope for federation of the British West Indies with Canada as an eleventh province was expressed here yesterday by F. Carlyle Noel, member of the legislative council, St. Georges, Grenada, B.W.I. He arrived here recently by Canadian National Steamships to discuss trade between Grenada and Canada.

"We have been endeavoring for some time to federate with the other British West Indies," said Mr. Noel, "with the idea of eventually becoming a province of Canada. Our big difficulty has been interesting the mainland colonies. A conference will be held in London this summer and perhaps we may be able to iron out some of the difficulties then."

There was no reason insofar as Grenada was concerned why there shouldn't be increased

Allied Guns Strike Reds

SEOUL, Korea (CP)—Allied guns routed 1000 Chinese Reds who tried to punch through United Nations lines on the western front before dawn today.

Texas Crash Proves Fatal

DALLAS, Texas (CP)—Twenty-one servicemen parachuted out of a blazing two-engine transport plane on the outskirts of the city Monday. Two were killed in the jumps and a third, who had been missing, showed up in a Dallas hospital today with minor injuries.

The body of one man was found in a field with his parachute open.

Another was critically injured when the parachute dragged him along a street. He died in hospital.

Witnesses said the parachute of a third man did not open at all. He is the missing man.

Passengers aboard the plane began bailing out after the left engine caught fire. The pilot was the last to jump. He left after the engine fell off the transport when it was only about 500 feet above the ground.

Fears Dairy Price Break

SEIGNIORY CLUB, Montebello, Quebec (CP)—Gilbert McMillan intimated Monday that a break in Canadian dairy prices may develop if the Canadian government declines to impose controls on dairy imports.

President of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, McMillan told the annual meeting of the National Dairy Council here not to be too surprised if many of Canada's cheese factories remain closed in the spring.

"If this is allowed to happen and a break in prices occurs, it may give the public some temporary benefit but it will be fatal for the dairy farmers and eventually for our whole economy."

Film Board to Receive Airing

OTTAWA—A special committee of Parliament will be set up to study operation of the National Film Board, Hon. R. H. Winters, minister of resources and development, announced yesterday. For some time there have been opposition demands for such an inquiry.

Two Former Ministers Arrested

CAIRO (CP)—Arrest of two key members of the ousted Wafdist Party cabinet—the party strong man, Fued Serag El Din Pasha and the former Social Affairs Minister Abdel Fattah Hassan Pasha—was reported today.

A high-ranking police source said that the police took them under escort to two villages in northern Egypt.

Egypt's prosecutor-general recently accused Serag El Din of "administrative responsibility" in destructive fire riots here January 26.

Political circles term the arrests "the first major blow" aimed by the independent government of Premier Ahmed Naguib Hilaly Pasha against the Wafdist party.

Challengers Down Penticton to Enter B.C. Hoop Finals Tonight

Compiled From Dispatches to The News

For the second year in a row a Prince Rupert all-star senior basketball team has defeated Penticton in a championship meet and last night the Co-op Challengers sank the Omegas 60-56 to move into the B.C. Senior "A" finals against Vancouver Eilers.

The Challengers, who took the best-of-three semi-final with two games, get little rest before the final best-of-three championship series opens tonight at Vancouver. Second game is Wednesday and the third, if necessary, on Thursday.

The fast-breaking visitors from the north made no mistake about it in their final game with Omegas. They were definitely the more determined team and opened the final tussle with a furious pace.

Displaying superior shooting and an airtight defence, Challengers were never headed as they took a 32-26 lead in the first half, mostly on the efforts of Don Scherk who scored 11 points in the half and a total of 21 in the game.

SCHERK AND DAVIS
Ray Spring, second Rupert starrer forward, combined with Scherk to contribute 20 points in the first half and when in the third period Rupert pulled away with as much as an 11-

INJURIES

A fast elbow into the eye put Scherk off the floor for a few minutes while he took three stitches to close the cut, then headed again to the front line.

Other injury was suffered by Omegas' playing coach, Haas, when in collision with Davis in a scramble for the ball. Haas sat down on the floor with a pained expression when Davis' knee came up to hit him in the stomach. He recovered promptly, however, but was fouled out in the last few seconds of the game.

Meanwhile, in Prince Rupert, a hundred keen sport fans arranged to hear the last half of the game over a long-distance telephone play-by-play broadcast, sponsored by Prince Rupert Elks.

The broadcast, wired into loudspeakers in the Elks home, thrilled the listeners as they cheered on their favorites to victory.

A similar broadcast may be engineered tonight as Challengers meet Eilers in the first final game.

Score by quarters: Challengers, 16, 14, 17, 13; Penticton, 14, 12, 10, 20. Forty-two fouls were called, Rupert making 12 of 23 free throws, Penticton 16 of 19.

SCORING

Challengers—Olson 4, Carlson, Flaten 3, Davis 12, Webster 4, Mathews, Holkestad 3, Scherk 21, Morgan, Spring 13, Total 60.

Worthy Cause, Support It!

THE Red Cross night tonight in Prince Rupert. Canvassers will be on the march throughout the city's residential areas. Householders are being asked to have their porchlights on and their most generous donations ready so the collection may be expedited with as little delay as possible.

It is few people who do not know now of the various good works and special endeavours of the Red Cross—all in the humanitarian interest. There is the blood transfusion service that goes on all the time and which has become so important as a ready aid in case of medical emergency. There are the outpost hospitals and the nursing stations in pioneer areas where community hospitals cannot be organized. There is the work among the sick and disabled war veterans. And of prime importance is the organization standing ready to give disaster relief—and who knows when and under what circumstances disaster might strike?

Should war come, the Red Cross will be ready this time. It will not have to be rushed into operation after the hostilities are started. In fact, the Red Cross is doing international service of various kinds now.

Yes, the Red Cross is a vitally important institution and we have once again no hesitation in recommending to all people the most generous support on its behalf.

Children in Boats

EVERY so often thoughtless people venture forth on reckless expeditions in boats which cause a lot of unnecessary anxiety and inconvenience.

It is bad enough to go forth under doubtful conditions when a little thought might suggest that trouble would ensue. It is worse to make no particular effort to report or make a real effort to get back when it can be very well assumed that others are worried and may be instituting searches that are costing time, effort and trouble.

These things are bound to happen once in a while, especially if those involved are children who are not old enough to realize the trouble they may be causing.

These stormy, changeable days are no time for anyone to be prowling around in small skiffs. The results might be more serious, too, than just anxiety and inconvenience.

Now the Main Line

THE Prince George Citizen has something when it suggests that the changing economy of this country and the new importance it has given the railway should call for some shifting of Canadian National "brass" and key personnel to Prince George and Prince Rupert.

It was rather a convincing statement that was made recently at system headquarters in Montreal that business along the main line to Prince Rupert is now twenty percent greater than that on the Red Pass-Vancouver line.

The prospects are that the traffic on this line will become even heavier in proportion to Vancouver what with the stepped-up tempo of Alcan operations, the building of the Terrace-Kitimat line, the connecting up of the Pacific Great Eastern with Prince George and the mounting shipments of lumber.

With the business shifting this way so definitely, it is logical that administration and control will also have to be moved from the less important to the more important locations.

Taft Could Bring War

IN EARLIER articles I have tried to show, from Senator Taft's own book, why his election would mean a grave threat to U.S.-Canadian neighborliness.

I think calm consideration of his larger program will show that it would almost surely mean world war.

Here is his own program as set forth on page 66 of his book, "A Foreign Policy for Americans."

1. The creation of powerful American armed forces.
2. Economic aid to countries where such aid will enable anti-Communist countries to resist the growth of communism from within.
3. Arms aid to countries where such aid will enable anti-Communist governments to resist aggression from without or armed Communist forces within.
4. Warnings to Soviet Russia or its satellites that armed aggression beyond certain lines or against certain countries will be regarded by the United States as a cause for our going to war.
5. The sending of American troops to a country threatened by attack from Russia or its satellites (European army) or where the attack has occurred (Korea).
6. An ideological war against communism in the minds of men.
7. An underground war of infiltration in Iron Curtain countries.

THERE IS nothing new in the first five points above. It must also be made clear that in his ideas re Europe Senator Taft takes a much less provocative line than does, say, President Truman.

He recognizes that too big a build-up of military power by the NATO nations may actually cause the very thing it is supposed to prevent. Taft says:

"I do not think arms aid should be given in such a way as to lead Russia to believe that an attack is contemplated against Russia itself and so incite it to a war which it might not otherwise undertake."

But how in the name of commonsense can the man who wrote the above also calmly urge "an underground war of infiltration in Iron Curtain countries."

RECENTLY an American plane was forced down in Hungary and the U.S. government paid $125,000 fines to secure the release of five airmen. The U.S. claimed these men were "lost." Hungary claimed they were spies.

Taft suggests that the west should not fib about or deny such activities but organize them on a large scale. "The OSS did work of this general character during the war," he says. "Today we hear nothing of anything being done in this field."

WAR IS WAR, no matter how you disguise it. What Taft suggests above is a new method of beginning world war three. He does not deal in his book with this, his later suggestion, to outfit Chiang Kai-shek to re-invasion the Chinese mainland. This is the plan which our own Mr. Pearson has rejected in advance. He seems oblivious to the plain fact that what he plainly sets forth is clearly contrary to the UN Charter. What is perhaps more to the present point is clearly contrary to common sense. Not a single ally, outside U.S. would condone it.

For if it comes to an international civil war, such as Taft suggests it will be fought with all the devilish devices of modern war, including disease germs.

1951	100	100	100	100	100	100

MERCHANT SHIPPING—The world's total merchant shipping of 87.2 million tons now exceeds that of 1939 by 25 million. Shipbuilding is also being undertaken at a remarkable rate, and Lloyd's Register Annual Summary shows that in 1951 world ship construction reached a record figure, over a third of it launched from United Kingdom yards. Of this British tonnage 45 per cent (100 ships) was for export, while 62 per cent is accounted for by oil tankers, many for Norwegian Registration. Germany doubled her production for 1950. The United States post-war merchant fleet of 32 million tons, now decreased to 27 million, is still the world's greatest. Some ex-United States vessels now sail under Liberian and Panamanian flags for United States financial interests.

MURRAY REPORTS

Doing Ottawa with Cariboo's M.P.

FLYING BOOM—Grant MacConachie, popular young president of the Canadian Pacific Airways, has been a recent visitor on Capital Hill. He had an official conference with the Transport Department, the Post Office and a few minutes with his old friend, Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe of Defence Production.

He reports the future never was so good for air transport in the North. Renewal and extension of airways at all points along the north-west staging route and in the MacKenzie River Valley is urged by Mr. MacConachie. He says by 1953 his company will have a fleet of DC 6 A's, freight-carrying aircraft, on the northern route, and that air freight from Vancouver to Whitehorse will be reduced to 14 cents a pound. These ships are now on order along with a fleet of jet planes for the trans-Pacific run.

"Export Air Service should be a Canadian policy," said Mr. MacConachie. "Canadian Pacific Airways is doing this very thing and will open new mail routes on the Pacific from Japan to South America which will mean bringing home a lot of extra foreign dollars for the Canadian economy."

Foot-and-Mouth Disease — Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner was in Saskatchewan during the critical hours of the foot-and-mouth epidemic. Our legislation to provide compensation for livestock owners who have suffered great loss as a result of the outbreak seems to have met with general approval. Fortunately, the epidemic is not the great disaster which was at first indicated. The response of the House to the bad news from Regina proved again that Canadians are united in the face of a common enemy.

Ridiculous Policy—The ridiculous policy of stopping movement of Canadian farm goods into the U.S.A. as a result of F. and M. in Saskatchewan was revealed by L. E. Roberge, MP for Stanstead, Que. when he told of loads of Canadian hay being stopped at the border at Rock Island, Que. by U.S. authorities.

While Mr. Roberge was speaking in the House, I asked Mr. Speaker if the Stanstead member would explain further how unjust and ridiculous were some of the embargoes resulting from F. and M. "Could germs from Saskatchewan travel over 2,000 miles and infect the loads of hay at Stanstead?" I asked.

F. and M. has been greatly exaggerated. The frenzied debate in the House last week, no doubt, helped to panic the public from coast to coast.

Railway Trucking — Donald Gordon, president of the Canadian National Railway, made a statement some days ago that he would explore the possibilities of a new policy of employing motor trucks as a companion transport service to C.N.R. lines.

Gordon's plan, while not fully outlined, has aroused wide interest particularly in the Peace River country and in territory along the Canadian National Railway where freight must be hauled long distances to rail head. In the Peace River country, it was hoped that a test may be made using trucks in areas not served by steel rails, granting the usual rail rate, where the load is carried jointly by truck and rail.

Maximum amount that may be deposited in any one year in Canada post office savings banks is $1,500.

Confidence In France

Canadian Ambassador Says She'll Find Her Way Out
HALIFAX — "Don't be pessimistic about France," Major General G. P. Vanier, DSO, MC, Canada's ambassador to France, returning home on leave with his family, told newsmen here Monday aboard a Canadian National Railways special train on his way to Montreal.

The French would find a way to stabilize their government, he said. Whether it would be done under the new premier, Antoine Pinay, or another no one could tell. They were a hardy race with tremendous resources in agriculture, mining and other fields, and production was never higher.

The country had suffered terribly from two wars and occupation, his excellency said, and this should always be considered when drawing up a balance sheet of its morale. France lost 2,300,000 persons in the two world wars, including many of her best men. Politically and in every other way France was feeling that loss.

"In southeast Asia France stands as a bastion against the Communists," Major General Vanier said. "To defend Indo-China it is costing her more than $1,500,000,000 each year. Should Indo-China fall, France knows that the door barring the Communists from swallowing other countries in that area would be opened."

Canada's ambassador to France had high praise for NATO. It had made a tremendous difference in the morale of Europe. Nations open to Russian attack and with little to defend themselves, now had a firm spirit and realized they could defend themselves.

Other prominent persons among the 800 passengers who arrived aboard the Cunard liner Scythia and are enroute across the country in two CNR boat trains were L. H. Ausman, Canadian Trade Commissioner, J. Frankfort, Germany, H. J. Horne, assistant commercial secretary, Canadian legation, Oslo, Norway, and C. E. Smith, director of Canadian immigration, Ottawa.

No Shortage Of Beef Now

VICTORIA (CP)—Minister of Agriculture Harry Bowman said Sunday night that the province "need not run short of beef for the next few days."

The ban on prairie beef will continue, Mr. Bowman said, until authorities are assured that British Columbia herds will not be endangered by foot and mouth infection.

Meanwhile, a government survey showed that 1000 head of British Columbia cattle are ready for market, enough to supply retail outlets for nearly a week.

The cabinet minister said: "We still hope the ban will be relaxed soon."

Hon. R. W. Mayhew, minister of fisheries, arrived from Ottawa today to discuss with Hon. Harry Bowman, minister of agriculture, the possibility of an early lifting of the B.C. embargo.

Still Hope To Settle Iran's Oil

TEHRAN (CP)—A World Bank team wrote "failure" today in the latest efforts to start Iran's oil flowing west again.

Talks with Iran's government broke down last night and a spokesman of Iran's joint oil board announced: "Negotiations are now ended."

Later a government spokesman said that it was hoped, after officials of the World Bank had reported to Washington, a solution for an oil settlement still may be found.

In the official order of precedence in Canada, the Prime Minister ranks second, directly behind the governor-general.

WEARS "G" SUIT—FO. Bill Bain of Hamilton, a pilot with the RCAF based at North Luffenham, demonstrates an anti-gravity suit, worn by a distinguished visitor, Lord de l'Isle and Dudley, British Minister of State for Air, right. Group Capt. E. B. Hale, centre, is officer commanding the base.

Missing Boat Called Here

It turns out that the small American pleasure boat Reva, missing on a trip from Port Townsend, Washington, to Vank Island, Alaska, did call at Prince Rupert after all last Wednesday afternoon to undergo engine repairs.

But the vessel neither entered or cleared the customs. Ed Lindquist, Prince Rupert waterfront machine shop operator, reported to customs yesterday that the Reva was lying at the nearby Cow Bay floats last Wednesday and a couple of men from the vessel called at the shop to have some valves repaired.

The two men, who did not give their names and paid cash for the job, had little to communicate except that they were in a hurry.

Lindquist did not have time to do the job in the morning but, at urgent request, did it about 2 p.m.

Lindquist noticed that the boat was registered from the Wash-

Nurses Hear About Drugs

Dr. G. E. Fiddes, Lecturer in the Prince Rupert General Hospital Nurses' Home for active and retired nurses, discussed the nature and use of some of the more important of the newer drugs and recent developments with such therapeutic agents as whole blood, plasma, hormones, antibiotics and refrigeration anaesthesia. Dr. Fiddes extended the purpose of his discourse beyond the effects of bombs, gas, shell-fire or bacterial contamination, which it was to be hoped would never be experienced, to any common trouble be it fire or flood, famine plague or war.

Collaborating with Dr. Fiddes in last night's class was Miss Elizabeth Clement, R.N., who gave practical demonstrations with the new drugs, their use and application.

Dr. Fiddes traced the origin, clinical trial and medical use of each of the new drugs including the numerous sulphas, penicillin, streptomycin, etc., and the drastic advancement that they had made possible thereby in effective medical treatment.

Mrs. Bartlett, who speaks each week on nursing problems arising from atomic, bacteriological and chemical warfare, discussed the nursing care of trauma and burns.

Next Monday night the special speaker will be Dr. J. D. Galbraith on Biological and Chemical warfare.

One Night Drive for Red Cross

"Lightning Drive" of Prince Rupert Red Cross Association opens tonight at 7 p.m. when hundreds of volunteer canvassers blanket the city for a one night's appeal stand. Objective for Prince Rupert and district is $5,500.

There will be no other canvassing of homes, says local Red Cross President Stan Saville.

"We will cover all homes to night and appeal to all householders to stay at home for an hour or so with their porch lights on." He is convinced the annual drive will once again exceed the quota, as it did last year, when more than $5,000 was collected in a single night.

As was done last year, Red Cross "nurses" in full uniform will be waiting in corridors of the two local theatres making their appeal to those going to the early movies. At the Tote Theatre will be Mrs. G. E. Withers, Mrs. Stan Saville and Miss Iona Hardy.

At the Capitol will be Mrs. Robert Parker, Mrs. Clarke McLean and Miss Milly Olsen.

Canvassers are volunteers from city organizations and service clubs who have divided the city in sections.

Bedtime Snack

solves laxative problem

"Constipation made me sullen all day. What a change since I started to use ALL-BRAN regularly! Even my wife notices it!" writes man from Ville Montmorency, Que. If you suffer from irregularity due to lack of bulk, try a bowlful of this toast cereal every night before bed. It may bring back the youthful regularity you thought long lost. ALL-BRAN is the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. It's high in protein and iron. Not habit-forming. Kellogg's is so sure you'll like ALL-BRAN that if you're not completely satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, London, Ont., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Household Hints

Do you understand what the sizes mean in canned peas? They vary from size 1 to size 6. The smaller the number the smaller the pea. The same applies to beans. If the label says ungraded as to size that means that the can contains a mixture of sizes.

Ever tried adding a little molasses to whipped cream? It's wonderful on gingerbread or pumpkin pie. The new flavor and color are interesting and appealing.

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

There's No Reason To Keep Bidding Open Unless There Are Values Still Unshown

It is practically a fetish with many players to "keep the bidding open" for partner. It is desirable to give partner another chance to bid only when he has not "limited" his hand by the previous and when you can assume (with reason) that he has potential values yet unshown.

The bidding of today's hand (dropping it at one of a suit) is something you seldom see. Mr. Muzzy would find some second bid on the North cards. "I never drop a one-over-one," he says, proudly. It may be added that he takes a lot of 300 and 1100 tests that Mr. Masters avoids.

Mr. Masters responded with one diamond on his pitifully weak hand to give Mr. Dale another chance in case he had opened a hand just short of a two-bid. He also had hopes of hearing his partner rebid in one of the majors which would offer a much better fit with his cards.

NO SECOND CHANCE

Now, when Mr. Dale rebid one spade, Mr. Masters dropped it fast. He had given partner one chance. A second one was not justified. If Mr. Dale could not make a jump rebid of two spades, then game was practically out of the question.

The way the play came up Mr. Dale made his bid, but it was nip and tuck all the way. The opening was the trey of diamonds. Dummy played small and Mr. Meek won with the jack. He

Expansion of Credit Union

Members of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Credit Union, at their annual meeting this Thursday evening, will hear from their directors that 1951, instead of being a period of levelling off as had been anticipated, had turned out instead to be a year of further marked expansion and service for the mutual benefit of all concerned. Therefore, it had been decided to step out and do bigger things and a $300,000 loan had been made to the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association to help it in contemplated enlargement of the cold storage plant.

The annual meeting will deal with a recommendation that a three percent dividend be paid on shares, that ten percent of the interest paid on personal loans be returned to the borrower as patronage fund and that five percent of undivided surplus be allocated to education reserve.

The report of the secretary-treasurer, George Viereck, will reveal an increase in assets during 1951 from $1,033,231 to $1,490,229, members' shares climbing from $463,253 to $637,247, deposits up from $543,665 to $730,905 and advance in membership from 1,495 to 1,645.

During the year 651 loans were made to members amounting to $821,109, in addition to funds of $910,000 being made available to the Fishermen's Co-operative Federation.

Rotary Club At Smithers

Successful installation of the Smithers Rotary Club Saturday night saw eight local Rotarians attend the ceremonies which gave the charter to 34 original members. President of the new club is Norman DeWitt.

Other officers installed were Norman Baker, vice-president; Murdoch Robertson, secretary; Gordon Jewell, treasurer, and Norman Jackson, sergeant-at-arms. Directors are Xavier Weber, William Whittaker, William Collison, Ernest Butchard, Howard Wheeler, Len Evans and Norman Kilpatrick.

The event was sponsored by the Prince George Rotary Club, with Past President Martin Caine as principal speaker. Jim Lightbody, district governor, presented the charter.

Prince Rupert's presentation, a speaker's desk, was made by S. D. Johnston, past president and charter member of the local club. A sumptuous dinner was served at the Anglican Hall prior to the program.

A highlight of the affair featured a curling match between Smithers and Prince Rupert clubs, won by the visitors.

Those making the trip from here were S. D. Johnston, P. H. Linzey, G. D. Frizzell, A. P. Crawley, John McLeod, J. H. Black, C. A. Berner and George Mitchell.

MR. DALE WINS

Back came another diamond and Mr. Dale ruffed. He cashed the ace of clubs and ruffed a club. He ruffed another diamond with the queen of spades. The queen of clubs was now high, but Mr. Dale led a low club and Mr. Abel ruffed with the 10 of spades and led back a spade, taking the last one from the closed hand and dummy.

Winning with the ace of spades, Mr. Dale played his queen of clubs. Mr. Abel ruffed with his last trump and had nothing left but hearts. His heart lead was won by Mr. Meek with the ace. The high club was cashed, but there was no way to keep Mr. Dale from winning with the king of hearts for his seventh trick.

THE ROUND-UP

By LARRY STANWOOD

Fans May Hear Challengers on Air Tonight

It is certain now Prince Rupert Challengers begin their final play-offs in Vancouver with Elfers tonight—and local fans may hear the game broadcast by play by.

Later announcement over the air this evening will confirm whether or not arrangements are successful to bring the first game of the series by telephone to the Elks Home from King Ed gym in Vancouver tonight.
Just like the last game at Pendiction was wired into Prince Rupert last night.

A brain-wave of a former city basketball player was executed to give a hundred died-in-wool hoop fans a play-by-play broadcast of how Prince Rupert Co-op Challengers won the Senior
"A" semi-finals at Penticton.

Helge Holkestad bore the thought-child. Radio Engineer Sid Anderson and Telephone Superintendent Eric Janes put it to work with the combined result that the third game of the Penticton series was broadcast over long-distance telephone.

wired to a couple of speakers in the Elks Home.

At Penticton, Don McDonald (former local cager) held the telephone mouthpiece to the radio speaker.

In Prince Rupert, 100 people thundered cheers for every basket the Challengers made and were tensely quiet when Penticton began cutting down an 11-point lead in the last quarter.
While there was a lot of room for the listeners to sit down, all were on their feet, practically on tip-toe as if to crane their necks to see better.

Suspense mounted. Then pandemonium broke out as the fans stomped and roared. Challengers won, 60-56. Close, but they won.

Some of the happiest faces were those of Mrs. Alex Bill, Mrs. Jim Flaten, Mrs. Joe
Davis, Mrs. Sam Haugen, "Ma"
Dickens, Dave Macphie, Fred
Calderone, Bob Rudderham,
Mel and Helge Holkestad, Sev Dominato, Art Murray, and a score of past and present ball players.

The Breaks in the Game Make a Difference

It is well to note that while the Challengers are strictly a home-grown team—made up of local men trained locally—Penticton this year went all-out to make up a Senior A team with the import of two well-known coast stars, Bill Raptis, for instance, is a former UBC Thunderbird player, while Bib Haas, Omegas' playing coach, is one of last year's Dominion Champion Clov-erleafs stars.

This gives Prince Rupert citizens a few more good reasons to be proud of their hard-fighting boys and Alex Bill, the coach who gets them there.

A few fans feel that Rupert has had a raw deal in the playoff dates. Northern BCABA representative, Don Forward, wishes to point out that had Vancouver Elfers not won Saturday night's game, they would have been rushed into the finals without a rest, same way the Challengers are pushed now. And had Rupert taken the Penticton series two straight, they would have had the advantage of a two-day rest.
Just the breaks in the game, says
Don.

A happy fellow for another reason was Calderone. He leaves today for Vancouver to see the first Senior "A" basketball finals participated in by a Prince Rupert team. And he's real keen about it. No one else has taken a greater interest in promoting the sport locally than has Calderone in the last several years.
"I want to see the final series as a sort of mental historic record—for posterity," he says, grinning widely.

Freddie will make arrangements in Vancouver for the broadcast, if possible.

Meanwhile, the Ocean Falls
"All Stars" and Jets arrive on the Prince George tomorrow for a feature return match with the Columbia Cellulose basketball club. It is expected to be a good spectator series for the teams are very evenly matched, as proven by the series between the two teams at Ocean Falls. The local pulp millers won the two-game total score event by one point.

Added attraction will be the girls' game. Jets meet Prince Rupert People's Store and Bo-Me-Hi Rainbirds on alternate nights.

The Ocean Falls players will visit Columbia Cellulose plant Thursday morning, have lunch at the cafeteria there and tour
the mill in the afternoon.
