South Koreans Will Push North If Peace Talks Fail Says Rhee

Warning Reiterated As U.S. Aid Arrives

PUSAN, Korea (Reuters)—President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said today his forces are "going to push up north" if the Korean political conference fails.

Rhee reiterated his warning as United States Senate Republican leader William Knowland stood at his side in a ceremony marking the arrival of the first shipment of American supplies for Korean rehabilitation.

The 77-year-old president, in a fighting mood again after weeks of comparative silence, offered to send his troops "whenever you need Koreans to come to your aid in Indo-China and India." This, he said, is the meaning of collective security through the world.

"We are going to push up north in case the political conference fails, gaining nothing for us," he declared.

Before the armistice was signed July 27, Rhee threatened to resist by force the landing of Indian troops on South Korean soil to guard unrepatriated war prisoners.

The first contingent of Indian troops is expected to land at Incheon, west of Seoul, Tuesday, on their way to the neutral zone at Panmunjom.

Knowland arrived here Friday night from Tokyo for a week's stay in Korea. He was entertained at Rhee's residence Friday night by the president, his Australian-born wife and leading members of the South Korean government.

Agreeable Prisoners To Be Freed

PANMUNJOM (CP)—The Communists today announced that all United Nations prisoners of war who wished to return home would be freed. This, they said, included all those sentenced to jail for offences allegedly committed during Red captivity.

However, there are "more than 300 Koreans and more than 20 non-Koreans" who refuse to be repatriated, the Reds told the joint prisoner of war repatriation commission.

"Owing to the fact that the operation of repatriation is still going on, our side shall continue to persuade them to be repatriated," the Communists continued.

"Therefore, there still will be changes in this number."

At the port of Incheon, a returned U.S. soldier, Pte. John McNeill of Brooklyn, said he had been told that 22 Americans and one British soldier were among those either refusing or reluctant to be released.

McNeill said he understood that the 23 are expected soon at Kaesong, Red assembly point near Panmunjom, to be turned over to the neutral nations repatriation commission.

The Reds promise to repatriate all prisoners asking to be returned with in reply to a question from UN.

Numerous prisoners had been sentenced at the time of the truce signing to prison for "investigating against the peace."

But in reply to UN questions, the Reds told the commission: "Our side will . . . repatriate all the POWs who insist on repatriation. The repatriation of prisoners of war who insist on repatriation is now approaching the end. All the POWs under our custody who insist on repatriation will be returned to your side by the time the repatriation operation concludes."

Former Resident Dies in Victoria

Word was received here today of the sudden death in Victoria of Arthur Brooksbank, former resident of Prince Rupert. Mr. Brooksbank was in the city only two weeks ago on a business trip.

A Mason, Mr. Brooksbank was in his early 70s and started out his business career here at the Percy Morris Drygoods Co. He later worked at the city hall until going into business with Dybbavn and Hanson Ltd. He retired a few years ago and moved down to the capital to live.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Fred and William and a daughter Lucille (Mrs. Harry Lipsett).

BENNETT DENIES REPORT ON HOSPITAL INSURANCE

VICTORIA (CP)—Premier Bennett Friday denied a Prince Rupert report that the provincial government will enforce compulsory hospital insurance.

The report quoted Prince Rupert Hospital Board chairman R. G. Moore as saying the premier had told the board he proposed to have payment of premiums put on a more compulsory basis.

The premier explained he was referring only to the government's already announced policy to expand compulsory payroll deductions.

Italian Army and Defence Chiefs Alerted As Yugoslavia Ponders Policy on Trieste Issue

ROME (AP)—Premier Giuseppe Pella called his defence minister and army chief of staff into urgent conference today as a result of open Italian alarm that Yugoslavia's President Tito may try to settle the hot Trieste issue by force.

The move came as the government officially warned Yugoslavia and the Atlantic Pact countries against any Yugoslav move to annex permanently the Trieste zone she now occupies.

Pella conferred for almost two hours with Defence Minister Emilio Paviani and Gen. Erisio Marras and immediately afterwards called the U.S., British and French ambassadors into conference, one after another. He also sent a warning note to Belgrade.

The concern over Yugoslavia's intentions developed here after news reports from Belgrade were interpreted as threatening annexation of the Yugoslav-occupied zone in the disputed territory.

Yugopress, the semi-official Yugoslav news agency, said Friday night that President Tito's government was seriously reconsidering its policy on Trieste. It declared he would outline the new attitude in a major speech Sept. 6.

The note to Belgrade said: "If Yugoslavia tries to carry out such ill-considered and irresponsible act as an annexation of Trieste territory the reaction of Italy would undoubtedly be that indicated by the feeling of the Italian people."

already taken steps to bring this matter to the attention of the Allied governments most directly concerned."

An Englishwoman, believed to be a former anonymous donor who has contributed greatly to the Anglican church in Western Canada, has left £5,000 ($14,000) to the Synod of the diocese of Caledonia, of the Church of England in Canada. News was received this morning in a Canadian Press dispatch.

The bequest was learned when the will of Mrs. Marion Beatrice Smith of London and Bourne-mouth was filed for probate.

Mrs. Smith stipulated in her will that the money be used to maintain the ship "Northern Cross," which she gave to the diocese in 1934, and to provide a replacement if needed.

The Bishop of Caledonia, the Rt. Rev. H. G. Watts, of Prince Rupert, was not available for comment this morning. The bishop is on his way to the executive meeting of the general Synod of the Anglican church in Fort William, Ont.

However, Canon Basil S. Procter, of St. Andrew's cathedral, said that he thought Mrs. Smith was the anonymous donor who has given so much to the churches in western Canada during her life time. He had heard that the anonymous donor had died, he said, but he didn't know that it was Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Smith died last April, leaving £130,549. She also made a £5,000 bequest to the diocese of the Arctic for maintaining a mission at Cambridge Bay.

Canon Procter said that the "Northern Cross" mission ship which plied the B.C. coastal waters since 1934 until about a year ago, has recently been put back into operation. The ship, formerly skippered by Rev. Charles L. Lomas, who is now at Port Alice, has been tied up at the Prince Rupert Yacht club floats for nearly a year. New engine blocks have been installed and Bishop Watts is earnestly seeking a permanent skipper for the mission ship, Canon Procter said.

Before leaving for the Synod meeting, Bishop Watts journeyed up into the Peace River district, as far north as Fort Nelson, where he performed a Confirmation.

San Francisco or Honolulu Possible Korea Parley Site

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—South Korea was reported today advocating San Francisco or Honolulu as the site of the Korea peace conference. An alternate choice would be a city in Latin America, perhaps Rio de Janeiro.

This development came as UN delegates waited for Communist reaction to the general assembly decision Friday that its side would be made up of UN countries which sent troops to Korea, plus South Korea. The Soviet Union is to be invited if the Communist side desires it.

The UN hopes that Red China North Korea and the Soviet Union will be the Communist representatives. Some sources here pointed out, however, that the Reds have the right to invite other countries beside the Soviet Union. These sources speculated they might undertake to enlarge their side to meet the UN representatives nation for nation.

As the special Korean session of the assembly adjourned Friday, UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold sent its decisions regarding the peace parley to Red China and North Korea.

No date has been set yet for the conference, but under terms of the Korean armistice it should convene before Oct. 28. The United States, which bore chief responsibility for the unified command in the Korean fighting, was asked to consult the interested nations as to the time and place for the meeting.

Britain Eases Travel Curbs Hungarian Diplomats

(Reuters)—Britain today eased travel restrictions on Hungarian diplomats here in the city.

The first came after the release of British businessman Edgar Sanders from a Budapest jail Aug. 18. He had served 3½ years of a 13-year term as an alleged spy.

A ban on trade with Hungary, improved after Sanders' arrest, was lifted immediately. Early this week Britain eased travel restrictions on Soviet diplomats in London in response to similar concessions made in Moscow.

Today's action stems from Hungary's action Aug. 10 in permitting freer travel to western diplomats in Budapest. Britain is understood to have consulted with other western powers on today's move.

The foreign office announced that from next Tuesday Hungarian diplomats in London will not be required to ask for permits to travel further than 18 miles from London. But if they want to travel more than 35 miles from the centre of London they will give the foreign office 24 hours' notice.

Little Hope Held For Hall Party

VANCOUVER (CP)—The search for a New Mexico private plane missing 11 days is continuing, but British Columbia's top bush pilot said Friday he considers it a "pretty slim chance" that any of the persons aboard will be found alive.

Russ Baker, general manager of Pacific Western Airlines, made the comment after returning from a personal two-day search of the mountain territory over which several of his company's planes are taking part in the 30-plane hunt.

RCAF search and rescue officials meanwhile, said they will continue the search at least another seven days for the De Havilland Dove, flown by oil man Ellis Hall, who had his wife, two daughters and a family friend along as passengers.

New Tremors Cause Damage

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Three new tremors, accompanied by gales and heavy rains, caused heavy damage Friday night on the earthquake-devastated Ionian Island of Keffallinia.

The Greek ministry of information said the destruction wrought by the shocks and storm was "incalculable." At Argostoli on the main port, the strong winds were said to have "played havoc" with anchored vessels.

Come to the Fair

HERE is a matter which needs the urgent attention of anyone who gardens, cooks, does home canning or embroiders.

On Labor Day, barely more than one week from today, the local chapter of the IODE is putting on a "country fair" at the Armoury. This is a new undertaking on which the ladies have spent much time and thought. They have prepared classifications for the various exhibits, drawn up entry forms and regulations and arranged a long list of attractive prizes.

But here is the disappointing part — at the moment of writing, not one person has signified intention to enter the show. Out of 500 entry forms which have been distributed, not one has been returned.

In view of the interest always taken by the people of Prince Rupert in such events—the hobby show comes to mind as a fairly recent example—we are sure this circumstance is not so bad as it seems. Possibly this coming week will bring a rush of entries as no doubt there are many would-be exhibitors waiting until the last minute before deciding what to enter. Others who would like to enter may not have received the notices which are being circulated.

Whatever the cause of delay, we hope the next few days will tell a different story. Entry forms must be received not later than next Saturday, so there is exactly one week left. Mrs. I. E. Halliwell, 1419 Sixth Ave. East (Red 370) is in charge of arrangements and will be pleased to hear from anyone interested in taking part.

By efforts such as this the IODE raises money for those who need help. It is a cause that deserves our generous support.

Just to be sure everyone knows what exhibits the show will include, here is a full list of the different classifications:

Reflects and Reminisces

Viscount Montgomery does not appear to be any the less hard boiled. Britain's No. 1 soldier suggested that much in opening the provincial exhibition Friday. We've all got to be willing to fight and have the means, if there is to be survival. Anyway, that's the way it sounded.

A Winnipeg veteran, it has just been announced, willed $10 on each Christmas to each of the 120 fellow vets still surviving in Manitoba, as long as he lives. Wonder if the donor ever remembered the Christmas cake—looking rather ratty yet delicious—that reached his regiment in May, 1900, instead of December, 1899.

A Gaspé (Que.) peninsula trapper named Wilfred Coffin has been arrested charged with murder. Victims came from Pennsylvania and had come to Canada to hunt bears. Circumstances have awakened a growing interest throughout the country. Incidentally the general subject of capital punishment has not declined in attention.

THE FAMOUS FIVE

The quintts will be 19 years of age next month, after which Cecile, Annette, Emilie, Yvonne and Marie will go their separate ways. One may become a nun. Until now they have lived, played, studied and worshipped together.

They commenced life nationally known, educated, crowned with health and financially independent. We all can't have the pull the quintuplets were blessed with.

MUST BE HEEDED

Prince Rupert's prize collection of totem poles, once it starts to degenerate, will soon be beyond recovery. If any organization or individual feel "horrified" at the thought of spending $100 to put a pole in proper shape, he'd better keep a couch handy, to fall on, in the event of fainting. The longer the city prevents decay and final disappearance, the greater the value of what we possess. And this means a willingness to spend real money and the cost from year to year. Whatever it is, the determination will be well worth it.

Premier Urges Canadian Funds For Investment

(SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Australia should seek Canadian capital for development rather than American, Premier Robert Cosgrove of the state of Tasmania said on his return from a world tour recently.

Cosgrove said such a step would benefit from the "vast amount" of capital available in Canada at cheaper terms than in the United States. It would encourage closer co-operation, he felt, between the two Commonwealth countries.

Cosgrove said he had studied Canadian experiments aimed at the worth of replacing hydroelectric power with atomic power. Canadians felt that in countries like their own, the vast hydro resources, atomic power would not be economical.

OTTAWA DIARY

By Norman M. MacLeod

No one in their political senses in these parts gave serious thought 24 hours after the general election to the possibility of Hon. George Drew being turned out of the leadership of the Conservative Party by a palace revolution amongst his own elected MPs.

Now, almost three weeks after the Conservatives received their bad news, that very event appears to be in the making. Reports which have been reaching the Capital in impressive volume during the past week have indicated strongly that Hon. Mr. Drew, instead of being able to control his Parliamentary Caucus as had been taken so largely for granted, is going to have the greatest difficulty with it.

As the situation stands at the present week-end, Hon. Mr. Drew would seem to have no hope whatever of securing a vote of confidence from his Parliamentary caucus when he meets it—as inevitably he must—prior to the opening of the November session of the House.

One report of the past week to which informed political circles attach particular significance relates to a meeting held recently by the PC elected MPs and defeated candidates in the Western Ontario region. This was the area in which, on the basis of results, Mr. Drew should have been able to depend for his strongest support. The party had made its most concentrated gains there—in the city of London, Oxford, Bruce, Huron.

Some 22 MPs and defeated candidates attended the gathering, which was held in London City. They debated the Drew

SATURDAY SERMON

VACANT PLACES
By THOMAS SHARPE

"You will be missed, because your seat will be empty."
1 Samuel 20:18.

For the church these words touch on a very important part of common life.

I am speaking of public worship or church attendance.

There are so many empty seats so many vacant pews in our churches today.

Not only do those who neglect public worship leave empty seats, but they are also missed by their worshipping brethren. For the fullness of a worshipping congregation is weakened by this lack of effort on the part of so many Christians.

In this modern age, science labs are full of wonderful microscopes, finding strange new atomic secrets each day, while the churches cannot produce any new gadgets of faith or insight.

Today if a man bores a mile into the earth, he is rewarded with a gushing fortune of oil.

The Church has been boring at earthly things for many years and has not yet been rewarded with a new spiritual gushing. Probably it has not bored deeply enough and with time the gusher will come.

Time seems to be one of the main factors. Because of man's fast moving pace, he expects everything to keep up with him.

Suppose I should suddenly try to tell men what Christ means to them?

How far would I get? For Christ is so woven into the fabric of our lives, so knitted into the texture of our civilization, He is so basic to our industry and prosperity, He is the germ of our culture, and vital to our health and happiness.

If we should try to find all that Christ means to us, we should have to haunt the libraries of the world, morning, noon and night. We would have to survey the centuries and analyze them.

This would take time, for the full meaning is undiscoverable. It is even more than that. Out in the spaces of God's eternal purposes we have no map or compass to guide us. So we are only able to be humble and reverent in the presence of the mystery of God's love in Christ.

But the modern generation is so strongly focused on the seen and temporal, that the unseen and the eternal has become distorted and out of focus.

Therefore, when the question is asked, "Why don't you attend church?" These are the usual replies:

"I worked all week and took Sunday morning for a much needed rest."

"I send the children to Sunday School and that leaves the house quiet and it is so nice to be able to relax for awhile."

"There were things about the house that needed attention, and as I work all week, I had to take Sunday for keeping up with these duties."

"My favorite radio program comes on just at church time and I didn't want to miss it."

"I have to go to work at a certain hour every day and it is such a relief to feel that I am free to do what I like on Sundays."

"Well to tell the truth, I just don't care to go, I'd rather do something else."

"I don't want to take on any religious responsibilities, I would rather go to a ball game or curl up in a cushioned chair."

Yes, things are badly out of focus.

Attending church is like a thermometer. It registers our interest in the Christian religion. When our attendance registers zero, then chances are that our interest in things that are Christian is not at the boiling point.

We notice that people who are interested in business are found at their places of business.

That people who are interested in politics are usually found at the polls.

People who are interested in sports are to be found at the playing field.

(Reuters)—Parts of the Abbey may have to be closed to the public unless repairs are made to the roof of the centuries-old building.

Dr. Adam Fox, of the Abbey, made a plea to the women of the city to aid the £1,000,000 appeal launched by Minister Churchill last week.

That only $840,000 has been raised and the Abbey is in "grave danger." "It is the more serious part of the higher parts of the building," he said. "Here the roof is rotting and crumbling. Many of the pinnacles at the exterior such as the height are rapidly being lost. If they are left without attention they will fall."

The dean said most of the Abbey has been in the last 100 years and chemical impurities in the air by the city's industry.

The Abbey" appeal closed Jan. 30, but was extended when the floods hit Britain in February. It later was revived by the Coronation, but was again revived.

Young Operatic Star, Lucine Amara To Open Alaska Trail Concert Series

The 1953-54 concert series of the Alaska Music Trail will be opened at the Civic Centre September 9 by Lucine Amara, lovely soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Accompanying Miss Amara, as the Alaska Music Trail begins its fourth season, will be pianist Don Jones, known to Prince Rupert music lovers for his fine part in the Raymond Manton concert of last season. Lucine Amara's singing career began auspiciously when she won the Attwater-Kent Award from live. She attended the University of Southern California on a scholarship while earning her living as a typist for the U.S. Navy department and the Southern Pacific Railway. Her entire voice education in private lessons given by the famous Viennese coach, Stella Eisner-Eyn and in dramatics by the noted teacher Carl Ebert, has prepared Miss Amara for her opera roles.

The young artist made her concert debut as a soloist with the San Francisco symphony orchestra in 1949. The following year she was granted two auditions by Rudolph Bing, director of the Metropolitan Opera association and won herself a contract for a 20-week engagement at the famed opera house.

During 1952-53 Miss Amara sang 77 performances at the Met and this coming season has included an Alaskan tour, opera performance in Italy and a heavy schedule and more exacting roles in New York.

1,500 contestants and rose to prominence soon afterwards. Born in Hartford, Conn., of Armenian parents, Miss Amara later went to San Francisco to

SYLVAPLY DOUGLAS FIR PLYWOOD

... you can enjoy the exciting experience of watching an older home transformed into a modern dream home, made into a more livable, more spacious place for comfortable living—with Sylvaply. And, if you're planning a new home, remember Sylvaply is Canada's busiest "new home" material.

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING—you can do, too. And, that includes a modern built-in storage wall like this. There's no end to the things you can do with Sylvaply to make any home—old or new—more livable.

BASEMENT REMODELLING—take advantage of the "gold mine" of unused living space you can get by remodelling your basement. A bright playroom or useful laundry room are just two ideas—the Free "How-To-Do-It" your dealer has for you will spark others.

ROOM AT THE TOP—Extra living space in your attic is easy when you do the job yourself with easy-to-handle, easy-to-saw and nail Sylvaply panels. Ask your dealer for Free "How-To-Do-It" on attic rooms, and get started.

YOU'LL BE PROUD—The whole family shares in the fun and satisfaction when you make smart living room furniture. Few hobbies are more rewarding than "doing-it-yourself" with simple tools, average skill and easily-worked Sylvaply.

Tough! Light! Easy-to-use genuine wood panels

"Do-It-Yourself" with SYLVAPLY

Lightweight and strong, the big 4 feet by 8 feet panels of Sylvaply Douglas Fir plywood are more fun than work for building, remodelling and making furniture. They're just right for the "week-end" carpenter using the simplest tools.

It's FUN—only a few simple tools needed

All you need to work successfully with these easy-to-handle 4 feet by 8 feet panels of lightweight Sylvaply is just average skill in the use of ordinary household tools. Get started by talking over your project at "Handyman Headquarters"—your local Sylvaply dealer. (He has the new "Take Home" sizes, too—smaller Sylvaply panels handy for odd jobs.)

Don Doe Ousts Scotsman To Make Amateur Finals

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (AP)—A sandy-haired pug-nosed tobacco company employee and an almost-bald crooner who probably will give up competitive golf for a singing spot on an American breakfast radio program today sought the Earl Grey Cup and the 49th Canadian amateur golf championship.

Behind them in a long trail of busted hopes in the week-long match-play tournament were the 16-man British Walker Cup team and a field of 189 golfers from Canada, the United States and Great Britain. This was the first overseas challenge in history and it ended at the semi-finals.

The pug-nose is 32-year-old Don Doe from the eastern Quebec city of Granby. He scored a 3 and 2 victory over Glasgow's Jimmy Wilson in Friday's 36-hole semi-final and his opponent is singer-golfer Don Cherry from Wichita Falls, Tex., who disposed of Roy MacGregor, also of Glasgow, by a similar score. The Scotsman were the last hopes of Britain's cup team.

It is nothing new for an American to enter the final or even win it but today's 36-hole final is the first Canadian-American set-off since 1949 and of more interest to golfers of this province. It is the first time in 11 years that a native has hit the final.

It wasn't surprising to see Cherry, United States Walker Cup team member, advance to the final round, but hardly anyone around this Coughnawaga Indian reserve course expected Doe, Quebec champion 14 years ago, to get this far. Gerry Kesling of Kitchener, Ont., and Toronto's Phil Farley, considered Canada's No. 1 and 2 hopes, went out Thursday, Wilson disposing of Farley and Doe scoring a one up fourth-round triumph.

Milwaukee, Brooklyn Wins Keep Margin Same; Yankee Loss Evened as Boston Trims Chicago

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charlie Grimm better check with Charlie Dressen on which astrologer he reads.

If he doesn't the stars may get the National League pennant race all confused.

The Milwaukee Charlie celebrated his 45th birthday Friday and his horoscope, as compiled by one New York stargazer, claims his present frustration is only temporary, and that everything will be okay in two weeks.

Grimm, who hasn't conceded anything to the Brooklyn Charlie even though his club trails Dressen's by 9½ games, might interpret this prediction as meaning the Braves are still alive and the Dodgers are due for a fall.

The big hitch is that Dressen has a birthday coming up Sept. 20 soon enough that his horoscope at the moment is the same as Grimm's. And Brooklyn Charlie's "slight frustration" at present is the fact his Dodgers are so close and yet so far from clinching their second straight pennant. If everything clears up for him, too, in the next two weeks, as the astrologer suggests, it could only mean the Dodgers would be in.

Both clubs won Friday night.

The Braves beat New York Giants 3-1, Warren Spahn winning his 19th. Brooklyn banged four home runs for the second game in succession, whipping Cincinnati Reds 9-7. Pee Wee Reese hit two, Carl Furillo one and Roy Campanella one.

The Dodgers now have tied the National League record of having four hitters with 20 or more homers in the season. Campanella's drive, his 33rd, equalled his all-time major league high.

Curly Simmons of Philadelphia Phillies blanked Chicago Cubs on four singles 5-0 and St. Louis Cardinals edged Pittsburgh Pirates 10-9.

In the American League New York Yankees dropped their second straight to Cleveland 3-2, but didn't lose any ground to Chicago White Sox, who bowed 4-3 to Boston. St. Louis Browns defeated Philadelphia Athletics 3-2 and Washington trounced Detroit 7-4. The Yanks lead by 9½ games.

The Cardinals rallied after Pittsburgh exploded for seven runs in the fifth inning. A pinch-hit single by Red Schoendienst with the bases loaded in the seventh provided the winning run.

Steady Eddie Lopat of the Yankees lost his third game of the season, in bowing to Cleveland. Al Rosen's 34th homer tied the count in the sixth and the tribe got the winning tally in the seventh when Bobby Avila singled, stole second and scored on a double by Bill Gynn. Lopat has won 13.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By GALE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Events have taken a fast turn in recent days, and now we find baseball commissioner Ford Frick being depicted as the arch villain who, through his failure to go to bat more vigorously for major league players, virtually forced them to hire a lawyer to protect their interests.

It is even being stated that Albert (Happy) Chandler, the commissioner once removed, devoted himself more diligently to guarding the diamond heroes against their rapacious employers than Frick has done. We have gone into this aspect of the big wrangle rather thoroughly with men who are in position to know and they insist that Happy didn't do any such thing.

We are told that if the athletes mistrust Frick it's only because they haven't tried him, and that he has, actually, done more good deeds for more individual players since he took office than his predecessor did in his entire tenure. It's just that the two men operate differently.

"You'll never find Ford in the dressing rooms slapping players on the back and telling them he's their dear friend," said our informant.

"He would quit the job before he would do that. But I happen to know that not a single player has appealed to him on any matter without getting action. Ford does not seek publicity about such instances because he simply considers them part of his job."

As for the demands the players now are making, it is not within the commissioner's power to grant a single one of them on his own hook. He can only recommend certain reforms, such as an increase in minimum pay, and it will be up to the club presidents to make the decisions at their meeting during the world series. Frick did have the power to make three players from each club eligible to play winter ball in the Caribbean, and he acted promptly.

Spokes Crowd WIL Leaders; Seattle Gains on Hollywood

By The Canadian Press

Spokane Indians continued to make a tight race of it in the Western International League Friday night, winning a double-header from Calgary, 13-0, and 10-6, while the league-leading Lewiston Braves were defeating Victoria, 10-1. The double win still left Indians 10 percentage points behind Lewiston although the games behind column showed them even.

Tri-City defeated Wenatchee, 4-3, to move into eighth position, pushing the Chiefs into ninth.

Yakima strengthened its hold on sixth place with a 7-1 win over Edmonton, closing the gap slightly between it and Vancouver, which was idled at Salem because of wet grounds.

Best pitching performance of the night was turned in by Spokane's Jack Spring, who limited Calgary to three safeties in the opening game. The second tilt was a different matter, with both pipes getting 13 hits and using two pitchers each.

Second place Seattle gained a game on the Pacific Coast League leaders when Hollywood lost to Los Angeles 2-1 while the Rainiers disposed of Sacramento 8-0, on 10 singles.

Seattle is now 8½ games out of first place.

San Diego was rained out at Portland.

The PCL standings show Los Angeles 15½ games behind pace-setting Hollywood.

For 4½ innings Oakland and San Francisco played really tight ball with the score 1-all. San Francisco then went wild, scoring 14 runs in three innings to whip the lowly Oaks, 15-2.

Dale's Unorthodoxy Incenses Mrs. Rhule

As Mr. Dale scored game and rubber, Mrs. Rhule acted like she thought she'd been cheated. Mrs. Rhule bids exactly according to the book and plays every convention known to man.

points for your two no trump bid," she said accusingly. "Your right bid was one spade."

"I'm old-fashioned," smiled Mr. Dale. "If I can get a lot of points on the score I don't care how many I've got in my hand."

Mrs. Rhule sniffed disgustedly. How silly this man talked.

Of course Mr. Dale is a great play-stealer on close hands where he is not sure of his partner. To preserve good partnership morale, he would never admit that. However, on this deal he knew as well as Mrs. Rhule did that he had overbid a little.

"You didn't have enough

He also knew that his current partner could handle the average contract well enough but might fall down if the contract were exceptionally tough.

With his two no trump bid, then, he was trying to get to play the hand, if the auction ended up in game at no trump. As you see, he was successful.

Mrs. Keen opened the four of hearts and Mr. Dale let it run to the queen. Now the routine play at no trump is to go after your longest suit first. But this was an exceptional case. At trick two Mr. Dale made the right play of a small diamond instead of starting the clubs. Mrs. Keen ducked and dummy's jack won. This was all the diamond tricks Mr. Dale needed and he promptly shifted to clubs. Although he misguessed the location of the queen, he was still cold for nine tricks—four clubs, two hearts, two spades and one diamond.

It was easy enough to go wrong on the hand. If you started clubs at trick two, you would be all right if you finessed successfully against the queen. But if you mis-guessed the finesse, Mrs. Keen would win

Sterling Area Convention Seen This Winter

LONDON (Reuters) — Commonwealth finance ministers are expected to hold another conference on the problems of the sterling area towards the end of this year, an authoritative source says here.

The source said dates and revenue are still unsettled, but consultations on these questions are taking place among Commonwealth capitals.

Richard Butler, British treasury chief, hopes the Commonwealth ministers will be able to meet before the end of 1953 to review progress made since the last economic conference in London in November and December, 1952.

It is possible that the next conference, unlike the previous post-war meetings, may not be held in London and instead take place in a Commonwealth capital. Australia's Canberra is mentioned.

The conference will deal with U.S. reaction and the United States administration's views on this week's report on dollar-sterling relations made by Lewis Douglas, former United States ambassador to Britain.

The report, still to be examined by congress, suggests how problems of the sterling area, of which Britain is the banker, should be solved.

The conference will be attended by Britain, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Southern Rhodesia and Canada, the only dollar country in the Commonwealth.
