Toronto Nearly Wraps Up; Boston Stays With Solid Victory

STON (CP)—Hal Laycoe, bespectacled defenseman, Sunday night sparked the Boston Bruins decision over Montreal Canadiens. It was the first victory in the best-of-seven National League semi-final playoffs. Montreal leads 2-1 on the strength of two victories at Montreal.

The Bruins scored three times within 62 seconds early in the second period and Laycoe launched that blistering attack by scoring on a fifty footer through goaler Gerry McNeil. The Bruins kept Maurice (Rocket) Richard, a thorn in their sides in other two games, under check and much of the Montreal attack was carried out by Paul Meger and Dollars St. Laurent. The fourth game in the series will be played here Tuesday.

WINGS RIDING HIGH
TORONTO (CP)—The Detroit Red Wings, riding high on a power-laden front wall and solid defense, plastered the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-2 Saturday to take the three-game lead in their best of seven Stanley Cup semi-finals. The Wings should wrap it up Tuesday.

Truman Decides He'll Not Seek Another Term as U.S. President

Audience Says "No" But Chief Executive Says Decision Irrevocable

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—President Harry Truman announced Saturday that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

The historic announcement, before 5000 Democratic politicians at the annual party dinner, came as an off-the-cuff interpolation in his prepared address which had contained no intimation of his intentions.

Millions heard the announcement by radio and television.

A chorus of "Nos" from diners greeted Truman's statement.

The announcement touches off a free-for-all scramble for the Democratic presidential nominations.

Democrats predict that the party's July nomination in Chicago will be wide open although they look for Truman to take no back seat in the choice of nominee.

Immediate effect is to step up the campaigns of Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia, previously avowed candidates for the nomination, and it brought Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma formally into the race.

Truman has neither denied nor confirmed published reports that his own choice for the nomination is Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. Stevenson has said, however, that he does not intend to run.

The President made his announcement with every appearance of calmness. He told a reporter that there is no chance "whatsoever" that he will change his mind and run.

Nevertheless there is already a Truman draft movement under way.

IN TEARS
Persons close to his car when it left for the White House after the announcement said Truman and his wife were in tears.

The chief executive made his announcement after a scathing verbal assault on what he called Republican "Holler Than Thou" practices and prediction that the Democratic candidate—"whoever he may be"—will be elected next November.

Truman then said: "I shall not be a candidate for re-election. I have served my country long and, I think, efficiently and honestly.

"I shall not accept a re-nomination. "I don't feel that it is my duty to spend another four years in the White House."

Truman, who succeeded to the presidency on the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt and won the election in his own right in 1948, made his announcement after seven years and 79 days in the White House.

The presidential secretary, Joseph Shor, later told reporters that Truman decided "about a week ago" to make the announcement to the diners.

Doukhobors Not Wanted

GUATEMALA (CP)—The Foreign Office announced today that it has refused a request made by British Columbia Doukhobor colony to live in Guatemala.

Unofficial comment from the Foreign Office officials was: "We have sufficient problems without inviting more."

Eisenhower Not Killed

PARIS—Rumors were current at the week-end that General Eisenhower had been killed in an automobile accident. They were promptly denied. General Eisenhower spent the week-end resting at his home near Paris.

The commander-in-chief is expected to make another tour of western alliance capitals before returning to the United States to enter the contest as Republican candidate for president.

NOT RUNNING

Eilers Turned Back By High-Scoring Grad

WINNIPEG (CP)—Near a point-a-minute scoring performance by King Carl Ridd Saturday night led Winnipeg Varsity Grads to a 68-61 victory over Vancouver Eilers in the first game of a best-of-five western Canada senior men's basketball final.

Ridd accounted for 37 points of his team's total. He was ably supported by Roy Williams with 12 and Mike Spack with seven.

Jack Willet did a tremendous job of checking Vancouver's starry Reid Mitchell, who counted only eight points. Nev Munroe topped the Eilers with 13 points. John Forsyth scored nine.

Trailer Camps In Ketchikan

KETCHIKAN.—Three trailer camps are mushrooming in the midst of the spring building rush here which is expected to turn into a boom with the coming of pulp mill construction crews between April 1 and May 1.

The camps are complete with water and plumbing connections as well as electricity, clotheslines and similar features. Rental will run from $35 to $50 per month.

Half a dozen or more new families have brought trailers with them to Ketchikan this winter, some of them only as temporary road workers and some planning to occupy them while building a permanent home or seeking something permanent to rent or buy. It is believed some pulp mill construction workers will want to bring their families with them for the summer and others will prefer their own trailers to crowded rental housing or bunkhouses that may be available.

Four Die In Quebec Fire

MONTREAL (CP)—Four men died and one was severely burned at Sept Iles on the St. Lawrence River north shore in the Saguenay district when a workman tried to start a fire in the construction bunkhouse stove with gasoline.

John Benzi of Montreal, sole survivor, told on Sunday night how the fire occurred.

Europe Jittery At News

LONDON.—Europeans greeted with surprise, regret and a slight case of the jitters the news Monday of President Truman's announcement that he will not seek re-election.

Mixed with these feelings was caution of European officialdom. They traditionally keep out of United States internal policies.

In London British officials warmly praised Mr. Truman's determination, often in the face of fierce domestic criticism, to help forge the Atlantic defence community.

In France General Dwight D. Eisenhower, prospective Republican nominee for President, greeted the news with silence in the seclusion of his villa.

The French were less reticent. They were sorry to hear that Truman is leaving the White House.

Would Halt Immigrants

VANCOUVER (CP)—United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union (TLC) is demanding that Canada bar immigrants until all Canadians are employed.

The resolution, passed at the union's annual convention here, also urged the government to make such changes in internal policy to allow full employment for all workers in Canada.

It is being sent to Premier St. Laurent, federal Labor Department and the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Alberta to Force Test

EDMONTON—Unless the partial embargo against Alberta livestock and dressed meats is removed soon, a shipment may be made to test the validity of British Columbia's restrictions.

In Victoria, Hon. Harry Bowman, minister of agriculture, who left at the week-end to attend a conference in Ottawa on the foot and mouth disease situation, said there would be no change in the restrictions until after he returned.

WEATHER

Synopsis

Forecast

Two Die In Gang Feud

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—A juvenile gang feud erupted in gunfire Sunday leaving two youths dead and three critically wounded. Inspector Al Nelder said Robert A. Ransom, 19, admitted having fired the shots.

Wilson Quits as Man Power Boss

WASHINGTON (CP)—Charles E. Wilson quit Sunday as mobilization boss because President Truman sided with his wage board in granting a wage increase instead of Wilson in a disagreement over how best to avert the crippling steel strike.

Wilson said he could not accept public responsibility for government actions in the steel dispute "which I cannot control."

Truman accepted the resignation effective Monday.

100th Casualty List

OTTAWA.—The Army on Sunday issued its one hundredth casualty list of the Korean war, reporting one soldier killed in action and eight wounded. The last list was issued two days ago.

Reported killed in action was Private William John Fowler of Toronto.

The latest list brings to 746 the total number of casualties reported from Korea, including 140 dead, 540 wounded, 61 injured, four missing and one man reported a prisoner of war.

building near the top of Centre Street, where it was first housed, to the present Cathedral. For her labors on behalf of the church, she was presented with a Dominion life membership in the Woman's Auxiliary. Culminating benefaction to the Cathedral was the presentation a few years ago of the chimes in memory of her husband who was as faithful a church worker as was she.

Deceased was also honorary president of the Women's Canadian Club and the Prince Rupert Girl Guides' Association. For many years she was president of the Ladies' Music Club.

Mrs. McIntosh took a keen interest in the affairs of the Prince Rupert Museum.

MANY GOOD ACTS
One of her typical acts came in the way of a park improvement when she placed a seat alongside the hill trail in Service Park near the City Hall in which tourists and sightseers, could rest.

During World War I and World War II Mrs. McIntosh was active in the work of the Canadian Red Cross Society here.

She was always a good Samaritan, and during the 1918 influenza epidemic, she opened her home to the sick. At one time she gave refuge to a family of seven young children whose mother had died.

Mrs. McIntosh is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. R. Wainwright of Oakville, Ontario, who reached the city by air Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. George Wainwright, wife of Dr. George Wainwright of London, Ontario, who is a nephew of deceased.

A memorial service has been tentatively set for Thursday afternoon at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral with remains going to Terrace Friday for interment in Kalum Cemetery alongside those of Mr. McIntosh who died in August 1945.

Mrs. McIntosh also had a second home "The Crossways" at Kalum Crossing near Terrace.

Truman Decides

A MAJOR development on the American political scene is of much interest to Canadians because United States and Canada are so closely interlocked in political and economic affairs. Therefore, the sudden announcement of President Harry Truman Saturday night that he would not be seeking reelection as chief executive of the United States created almost as great a sensation on this side of the line as it did on the other.

We may not have always agreed with and we may not have always admired Mr. Truman but, carrying on to large extent the principles and policies of his illustrious predecessor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, he was one of the leading champions of solidarity and co-operation of the western world.

We may have been more shocked than we were surprised at Mr. Truman's decision to step down. Political developments will be speeded up in the United States now that he has made his decision and they will be followed in Canada with a tense interest almost equalling that which will excite the people of the United States for the next six months or so through the summer nominating conventions and on to the voting in November.

Canada Admired

PROPHETS are seldom viewed with honor in their own country as the saying goes. Canadians often take Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance, to task for some of Ottawa's financial rulings. The Daily News has been no exception.

It is sometimes wise to reflect on the opinions of neighbors. The Hearst string of newspapers has never been noted for friendship to Canada. There is significance then in an editorial in the Los Angeles Examiner under the heading "Strength in Canadian Dollar Reflects Government Sanity."

Recently on several occasions the Canadian dollar has sold at a premium over the American dollar. Dealers have attributed strength of Canadian money to heavy purchases of Canadian securities by Americans.

One must not discount the opinion of dealers in foreign exchange when it comes to talking about currencies. But strength of the Canadian dollar is not due to recent happenings. It is the result of conditions over a long period.

First and foremost among these is sanity in government. Canadian officials are not imbued with the idea that upon their shoulders rests the salvation of the world. They are realists. They recognize that if Canada is to occupy its rightful place in the family of nations it must be strong morally and financially.

But they have not shirked their responsibilities. They have given generously to England and are assuming their share of expenses in the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Despite these heavy burdens, the national debt of Canada has shown a decrease each year since 1946 and now stands at $15,027,000,000. Compare that record with that of the debt of the United States, which has grown by leaps and bounds each year and yet is on the upward move.

But of prime importance in the stability of any country is the manner in which its affairs are administered. In Canada there is a high standard of morality in government and little graft. But once exposed, the courts of our northern neighbor are quick to punish the guilty.

Scripture Passage for Today

"I am the living bread."—St. John 6:51.

It's You and Me

The whole world is mad, save thee and me, But sometimes I despair of thee. That's some wise man's creed, for us to heed, And it's concerning you and me.

Some sages bark, and don't fail to harp, Upon the great crisis that's going to be; Blaming some shark, when as a matter of fact, The main trouble is caused by you and me.

The public is prone, to blame our leaders alone, For all the grievances there may be; They may have a hand, in this messy stand, But the main trouble is caused by you and me.

It's a sweet old game, for us to blame, All our ills on brother thee; But it would be wise, to realize, That the main trouble is caused by you and me. —BraunPolnUlm— Digby Island, B.C.

As I See It

One Nation or Ten?

WHEN the outbreak of hoof and mouth disease was discovered in Saskatchewan emergency measures were justified.

Any public authority which had the power to draw a safety circle outside the affected area was duty bound to draw it.

Canada is not ten hostile Balkan states, but one nation within the free British world commonwealth.

THE BNA ACT is full of loopholes which lawyers get paid to argue about. A whole host of legal experts could keep the courts busy for months arguing whether or not the various provinces have or have not the legal power to stop livestock or meat shipments from one province to another.

Personally, I think they have exercised their powers as illegally as the national government did a couple of years ago when, in the dying hours of the parliamentary session, it sneaked through a bill restricting inter-provincial trade in dairy products.

But the provinces—all the way from B.C. to Quebec—clearly have the power to argue in court "till the cows come home."

NO READER of this column would class me as an unquestioning admirer of all the acts of the present government at Ottawa. But from the moment that the outbreak of the hoof and mouth disease in Saskatchewan was (at long last) correctly diagnosed, I think its handling of the crisis has been tops.

There is no reason to believe that the emergency bans by the various provinces have added anything effective to the quarantine measures already set up by the government of all Canada.

But there is plenty of proof that such bans—especially the one by B.C.—have worked hardship to many people, especially in Alberta.

B.C.'S BAN on livestock from Alberta is the more remarkable because it applies only to shipments from Calgary but not Edmonton. But it does not apply to human beings who have been in contact with the diseased area!

That bewildered Willi Bruntjen, the German immigrant who came from one hoof-and-mouth-stricken farm in Germany to another one immediately stricken in Saskatchewan is now at work on a B.C. farm. If the B.C. government was willing to accept the federal government's word that Willi was now incapable of carrying the virus it seems strange that the same B.C. government refuses to accept the o.k. of the same national authorities who give a clean bill of health to cattle shipments from Calgary.

YOU COULD understand the arbitrary bans cracked on all across Canada if we were enemy or unfriendly states in Europe where the people speak different languages and have different laws. But here we have one government which is equally responsible to every Canadian.

Once the danger was recognized, it has handled this livestock emergency as efficiently as any crisis has ever been handled in this country.

It seems strange that the Liberal government of B.C. has no confidence in the Liberal government of Canada.

Gruenther to Succeed Ike?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Richards (D-S.D.) of the House Affairs Committee said General Alfred M. Gruenther would be a "good man" to head the European command, if General Eisenhower returns home.

He said he was not ruling out the possible appointment of General Matthew B. Ridgway, UN commander in Korea.

But Richards said Gruenther, as Eisenhower's chief of staff, has a better "grasp of the actual mechanics" of running the European headquarters "than anybody else."

Richards' comment followed a secret committee session in which Gruenther described military details of the European buildup.

He was testifying on the new $7,900,000,000 foreign aid program.

Parliament Hill Report From... By Edward T. Appplewhite, M.P., Skeena. Prince Rupert Reference—Prince Rupert and our district got an indirect reference in a debate the other day when Bert Herridge was giving an outline of the history of conservation in Canada.

Referring to the active part in conservation taken by Hon. F. J. Fulton (father of the present Member for Kamloops) he reminded the House that, owing to the fact that the late Mr. Fulton could not agree with the railway policy of the British Columbia government of the day, of which he was a member, to guarantee bonds to the tune of $40,000 per mile for the construction of a railway through British Columbia, now the present Canadian National Railways to Prince Rupert, he resigned from the government of British Columbia at that time and later as a consequence resigned from the Commission on Conservation established by an act of the Canadian Parliament.

VARIETY OF SUBJECTS It is remarkable the variety of subjects one has to take an interest in here. For instance, recently I had occasion to look into the trade situation with Cuba. With a large sugar crop sold at the highest prices in thirty years, 1951 found Cuba booming—because sugar, the island's major industry which accounts for over 80 percent of all exports, was booming. Total income from the sugar crop in 1952 should be close to last year's, because of the 1952 crop's larger size. But labor conditions generally there have become quite unsettled, and the indications are that trade projects for the immediate future with Cuba are not too rosy.

HIT BY FLU I have been "slowed up" a bit this week owing to an onslaught of the flu which kept me in bed for a couple of days and I must confess that I still feel somewhat below par. That, I guess, is as good an excuse as any, for the lack of literary brilliance in this report.

TUBERCULOSIS An outstanding question was brought before the House by Gordon Higgins of Newfoundland when he asked the Minister of National Health and Welfare if he has taken any action with respect to the use in Canada of the new drugs used in the treatment of tuberculosis. Although the Speaker expressed the view that this was not a sufficiently urgent matter to be raised on the orders of the day, the Minister was permitted to make a statement because, as he said, the matter was of great "significance." He warned that it is too early as yet to say how successful these drugs are, but the Department is following the trials with "interest, caution and hope."

THE EXPERTS Say...

By KAY REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BUY WHAT IS NEEDED—Canadian women owe it to themselves—and to the economy of their country—to buy only what they need, not what they want, says Mrs. Allan Turner Bone of Montreal.

As president of the National Council of Women, Mrs. Turner Bone has special interest in measures calculated to cut living expenses. For the last five months the council has been urging its 600,000 women to economize.

Mrs. Turner Bone explains that this Thrift Campaign is an anti-inflationary effort. The council doesn't want its members to forego spending—but to curb it, and restrain it, and delay it. The N.C.W. president expressed her views to the Canadian Press after she was asked for her opinion about current high prices and how she meets them in her own home.

The council head practises what she preaches. Enclosed with her letter were recipes for two inexpensive dishes, favorites with the Turner Bone family.

COLD MEAT IN OVERCOATS

This, says Mrs. Turner Bone, is an excellent way to use meat left-overs:

Ingredients: One-half cup of flour; one-quarter teaspoon of baking powder; one-quarter teaspoon salt; one egg; milk; thin slices of left-over meat (cham, beef, etc.)

Mix dry ingredients. Add egg and enough milk to make a thick batter. Beat well. Dip slices of cold meat in batter. Fry in greased pan.

Mrs. Turner Bone's Poor Man's Pudding is a fine dessert for chilly weather.

Ingredients: One cup brown sugar; one cup raisins; one cup sour milk (or buttermilk); 2½ cups flour; two tablespoons butter; one teaspoon soda; spices to suit taste.

Steam in mold for two hours.

MORE THRIFT—"Thrift" suggestions from the National Council include the following recipe for an inexpensive spot remover.

Ingredients: One-half ounce alcohol; two ounces concentrated ammonia; one-half ounce ether.

The above items should be measured and mixed by a druggist. Then, cut three-quarters of an ounce of castile soap into small pieces and dissolve in one cup boiling soft water. When thoroughly dissolved add six cups soft water. Add the drug-store mixture, bottle and cork tightly.

If soft water is not available use rain water or melted snow. The latter may need to be strained through cheese cloth until clear.

For general sponging dilute with equal parts water.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Veteran coastal steamer Princess Mary, recently withdrawn from service after a long and honorable career on the coast, having operated successively on Prince Rupert local, west coast of Vancouver Island, Alaska and Powell River runs, has been sold by the British Columbia Coast Steamship Services of the Canadian Pacific Railway to Union Steamships Ltd. The Princess Mary will be cut down by her new owners and converted to a barge for service on the coast.

Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt. William McCombe, making her final trip on the Queen Charlotte Island run, returned to port at 6:45 last evening from Masset. Inlet points and sailed at 8 p.m. for Vancouver. On conclusion of this voyage, the Chilcotin is being withdrawn for annual overhaul and will be next seen here when she comes out on the Alaska tourist run in the summer. The Camosun will take over the Island run this week, being due Friday. Second Union steamer in port last night was the Coquitlam which arrived from Vancouver at 11 p.m. and sailed this morning for Alice Arm and Stewart whence she is due back here tomorrow south-bound.

Final Rites for William Bailey

Funeral service was held Saturday for William Bailey, 79, old timer here and veteran soldier who died early last week. Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright of First Presbyterian Church conducted the service from Grenville Chapel.

Drift of Church in Latin America Worry to Jesuits

By PATRICK CROSSE

ROME (Reuters) — The powerful Society of Jesus—better known as the Jesuits—has issued a call for the "rescue" of Roman Catholicism in South and Central America.

The society is the most militant and highly-disciplined of the Catholic Church's religious orders.

"Catholicism in Latin America has passed through so formidable a crisis, lasting more than a century, that it is a miracle if that vast territory can still call itself Catholic," says Gentes, the missionary organ of the Jesuits.

In an issue entitled "Latin America—S O S," it says the three main points of the situation are:

1. "A world of 154,000,000 so-called Catholics must be re-Christianized."
2. "The Catholic forces available are extraordinarily insufficient for the task."
3. "Every delay in this undertaking of religious reconstruction marks a progress in the methodical advance of Protestantism, if not of communist materialism."

BIG PROTESTANT JUMP
The publication says the advance of Protestantism in the last few decades has been considerable.

"In 1925 there were in all 708,000 Protestants in Latin America. Today there are 4,700,000. Official statistics show that there are: 19,428 Protestant places of worship; 3,655 ordain-of the faithful." Gentes estimated that less than 20 per cent of city dwellers in Latin America and less than five per cent of country attend mass.

Opening Bid Of Shorter, 4-Card Suit Again Paves Way For a Sound, Game Contract

Mr. Masters opened his four-card diamond suit rather than his five-card club suit so that he would have a convenient rebid no matter how his partner responded.

If he had started with a club bid and Mr. Dale had responded with a heart, he wouldn't have liked to rebid one no trump with a singleton heart in his hand. He wasn't strong enough to reverse by bidding two diamonds over one heart.

He would have had to make a simple rebid of clubs and submerge his diamond suit. However, the diamond opening bid eliminated this problem right at the start.

PROBLEM
 When Mr. Dale's actual response turned out to be one spade, Mr. Master had the easy bid of two spades available. He also had enough to carry on to game when Mr. Dale showed interest by going to three spades.

Mrs. Keen opened the king of hearts and switched to a trump when she saw dummy's singleton. This made Mr. Dale pretty busy but he was equal to the occasion.

He won the second trick in his own hand with the jack of spades and ruffed a heart in dummy. He then came to his hand with the ace of diamonds, led his last heart and ruffed it. At this point there was nothing left on the board but diamonds and clubs, and the problem arose of getting back to the closed hand to take out the remaining outstanding trumps.

SOLUTION
 Mr. Dale would have done better to lead the king and another diamond here, but instead he chose to lay down the ace and a small club. Mr. Champion took the second club with the jack and after some thought led back the five of clubs.

If Mr. Dale had ruffed this trick either high or low he would have gone set. Instead of ruffing, however, he made the proper play, discarding a small diamond.

Mrs. Keen ruffed and returned a diamond, but the rest of the tricks belonged to Mr. Dale.

Terrace Junior Artists Busy
 TERRACE—Mrs. Bennie's art students at the Seventh-Day Adventist School of Terrace are showing good progress in color discrimination which, according to Mrs. Bennie, is an important first step. The children work with poster paints learning in the first lessons to blend colors and acquire in general the color sense so necessary to good work later. The drawings are done in charcoal and painting in oil follows the poster paint work.
 Desks were pushed against the wall last Tuesday afternoon and on a huge piece of wrapping paper in the middle of the floor rested paintings of the day. It was interesting to note the different treatment of one idea "an octopus in sea waters."
 The children were going on with various ideas of their own choice, and the child working on a red bowl containing daffodil foliage and white flowers, informed that the daffodils died off and the plant was blooming again with a different flower. A challenging idea for gardeners not to mention the "dual purpose era" in which we live.
 Judging from the reluctance shown when "class dismissed" the children thoroughly enjoy their art classes.
 Immediately following the children, adult classes start their lessons for the day. Mrs. Bennie emphasized that as much as possible copying from pictures should be omitted and real models used as this develops a better color sense always.
 After a preliminary discussion on shading to which point this adult class has progressed, the work started on canvas in oils. Still-life model of the day arranged on a white cloth with green napkin over one half of desk and a grey background consisted of one half a loaf of bread, knife, green pitcher with pink interior, a blue mug, red apple, and brown tea-pot.
 These objects are drawn in charcoal then flicked lightly with thumb and fore-finger to leave only a dim outline for the artist to follow.
 Mrs. Bennie felt the painting would take approximately two weeks to complete.
 Painting planned next by this class is a "gypsy child" as model.

Mansons, King Ed Take Minor League Finals

Season's Toughest Battle in Junior Playoff

A point-by-point battle running into overtime gave Mansons a two-point win over Beavers Saturday night for the junior city basketball championship. Score was 26-24 in the hardest fought playoff game of the season.

With 11 seconds to go, Fred Christensen sank a free throw for Beavers to tie the scoring 21-all at the end of the fourth quarter. Christensen hit the hoop for two more in the overtime period to lead all in scoring with 12 points.

But Art Helin, whose shooting for Mansons was off throughout the game, came through with two baskets and a free throw to first tie, then win the game with a two-point lead as overtime ran out.

A small crowd witnessing the season's last basketball show were on their feet cheering and rooting for the last high school team still in the running.

In the Pee-Wee playoff finals, King Edward found no opposition in Helldivers, clobbering them 32-15 to take the championship with a 30-point margin in the two-game, total-point series.

EXHIBITION

The exhibition feature between High School's senior Rainmakers and intermediate Hi-Greens proved a poor maintenance. Older students won 56-37 in a game peppered with personal fouls and jump balls.

Five senior students scored over eight points, headed by Letourneau with 10. For the Hi-Greens, Webber score high with eight.

Spring Most Valuable—Morgan Best Sportsman

Two most outstanding players in Prince Rupert were chosen Saturday at the presentation of the championship trophy which marked the end of the hoop and cage season.

Spring, red-headed former senior Mansons, was named with the Daily News Valuable Player award.

Herb Morgan, veteran of 20 years on local courts, was named as the most outstanding player in Prince Rupert.

At the presentation of the championship trophy which marked the end of the hoop and cage season.

Hunter said the all-star team served a lot of credit for the finals and should be encouraged because they made their first attempt at the championship. He commended the team's early plan to improve their standing next season.

...the members of the Civic Centre executive read with amazement, the article appearing a few days ago over the signature of Larry Stanwood, in which he outlines a phantasy, conceived, so he says, in the minds of himself and Mr. Stirn. Let there be some in the city who, having recently come here, are not entirely familiar with the true facts in the case. I hope you will permit this explanation to appear in your paper.

At the outset, may I say that we all are proud of the accomplishments of our basketball team and, as in the past, the Civic Centre Association stands ready to do all in its power to aid in the development and training of basketball players. Nothing would give us more satisfaction than to see Prince Rupert win the Senior A Canadian championship and some day they undoubtedly will. But let us be honest about this. We are told that before we can win, Prince Rupert requires a larger floor and taller players. Larry Stanwood notwithstanding, it is not possible to provide a larger floor on the land presently owned by the Civic Centre. We would point out, however, that this is not a particularly serious matter. In our new High School we have a floor as large as anyone could wish. It is the expressed wish of the Department of Education that school premises be used as fully as possible in community activity. As a matter of fact, our team practised several times on this floor before going south and, when the permanent baskets are installed, we will have a floor which will be entirely adequate.

A much more serious matter is the misrepresentation of financial figures in Mr. Stanwood's article. Anyone who read our financial statement of last year, knows that the Civic Centre has not fifty thousand dollars in bonds. In order to meet the annual deficits we have had to hypothecate bonds to the tune of eight thousand dollars. As Mr. Stanwood knows, the annual meeting decided to put in a roller skating floor for approximately five thousand dollars in capital outlay. With the large deficit that is rolling up for this year...

To Broadcast Hockey Game

Tomorrow evening's National Hockey League play-off game between Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs will be broadcast from CFPR starting at 6:05 p.m. With the Wings now three games up in the best of seven series and going strong, this may be the last game in the semi-final bracket.

CLOSEST MATCH in the recent Prince Rupert curling bonspiel finals saw Skip Bert Rowbotham (left) lead his rink to victory for the North Star trophy by one point in the 13th end. He defeated Bill Watson of Smithers in the unusual scoring shown on the boards. Neither Watson, or Rowbotham scored more than one point at a time. Others in the picture are Len Loucks, third; Bud Schuman, second, and Dr. Hector McDonald, lead.

GRAND CHALLENGE bonspiel trophy goes to the Dominato rink, which defeated the Shier rink in another 13-end battle. Holding the trophy is A. J. Dominato. Prince Rupert Curling Club vice-president Jack Laurie (left) made the presentation. Rink members are Jim Georgeson, (Dominato) Skip Bill McKenzie and L. Ostertag.

New blood entered the Prince Rupert Football Association executive Sunday with election of officers, headed by President Robert Smith. Others elected are Marlin Nuyten, vice-president; Jerry Ford, secretary, and I. Davidson, treasurer. J. S. Wilson was named honorary president.

Three teams, possibly four, are expected to form the football league this year, including C.Y.O. Battery, and C.C.U. 66 (Columbia Cellulose). General Motors was viewed as a possible entry.

Schedules for the season's games will be presented at the next meeting. Practice will begin as soon as weather permits.

Royals Capture Ten-Pin Honors In Final Roll

Royal Hotel's squad captured the men's ten-pin champion Sunday afternoon, defeating City Transfer 4299-4112 in a five-game, total-point roll-off.

A hotly-contested match from the outset, only one point separated the two teams at the end of the third game.

In the fourth, Royals shot a hot 942—the highest game rolled all season—drawing curtains for City Transfer. By comparison, the truck drivers put up a much stiffer battle than did Commercial last Sunday in the semi-finals, and yesterday's championship could have gone either way.

Top man for the roll-off was Gunderson of Royals, who rolled 931. City Transfer's top man in the scoring division was Arney with 915. Smith rolled high single with 237.

SCORING
Royal Hotel—Gunderson 931, Bury 894, Simundson 859, Smith 817, Morin 798. Total 4299.
City Transfer—Arney 915, Elliot 833, Menzies 791, Dominato 781, Duffus 510, H. Menzies 282. Total 4112.

DeMan Takes Student Curling Championship

Blair DeMan's rink won the Armstrong trophy and the high school curling championship Saturday afternoon, defeating Peter Bell's rink 12-11 in a 13-end match. The extra end was made necessary when DeMan tied a one-point lead in the twelfth.

Keyed up to the climax, play was heavy in the extra end, won by DeMan's hanger. Third Feness made a draw to the button which was taken out by Bell, but he went out himself. When DeMan put a guard on his own hanger, Bell had no choice but to draw for shot and he was light by a few feet, leaving the winning point to count for DeMan.

DeMan took an early lead but Bell scoring four stones in the eighth, tied the game 7-7. DeMan scored one in the ninth, then Bell came through with another terrific four-ended leading three. DeMan came back with one on the eleventh and was laying four in the twelfth, when Bell played his last shot to knock out two stones, tying the game.

T. G. Bateman, who sponsored the high school curling group was enthusiastic about the sportsmanship of the students.

"I am proud to be associated with such a group. They have shown excellent competitive spirit and a type of sportsmanship that would make anyone proud of these lads," he said, after the tourney.

The competition ends curling for the students this year, but all vowed they'd be back next season. Mr. Bateman thinks more will be back with them.

Personnel of the winning rink were DeMan, skip; Roald Feness, third; Stan Kaardahl, second; Bill Greene, lead. Losers were skipped by Peter Bell, with Roy Sieber, third; Peter Bartlett, second, and Larry Linklater, lead.

Meanwhile, the Ladies' Curling Club bonspiel opened Saturday afternoon. Fourteen rinks have been entered in the three competitions, primary, secondary and consolation.
