Behind This New Railroad

∆ LENGTHY debate, in Ottawa, finally ended by / \ a committee of senators agreeing the Canadian National Railroad must fence the right-of-way of the proposed rail link from Terrace to Kitimat.

It was the opinion, however, held by some of the senators speaking on the final passage of the Bill which authorizes the rail construction, that the territory between Terrace and Kitimat is "barren and uninhabited"-therefore no need to fence in the railroad.

Fascists Re-Rise

I AM NOT surprised that the Fascists are making quite a comeback in Italy. On my trips to that country in 1949 and 1951 I saw plenty of evidence to suggest that it they did so.

Even in 1949 they were selling that time Graziana was still in jail as a "war criminal."

I just don't see how Mus- solini ever successfully regi- mented them like he did. For they seem to me so naturally lighthearted and witty that they don't seem to fit the totalitar- ian mold. Last year they were selling a guide book to Rome. I noticed there was one brief reference to its "liberation" by the allies. They didn't say from whom it was liberated—that is, from themselves. Also in Florence a guide was showing me some of the battle scenes. He told us that on one side of the river were "the allies." "Who was on this side?" I asked. "The enemy," the quick-witted rascal replied. "The enemy" of course included the Italians—of whom the guide may well have been one in person.
