Bruce Brown Raps Government For Keeping Members In Dark

Information Given Ex-Candidate First

VICTORIA (CP) — Bruce Brown (L-Prince Rupert) criticized the government Tuesday for giving information to a defeated Social Credit candidate before giving it to members of the legislature.

He said in the legislature that both he and Frank Howard (CCF-Skeena) had asked for information on a road from Kliment to Terrace and had got nothing.

Mr. Brown quoted from the Prince Rupert Daily News of Feb. 26, the day he asked for the information in the house, which said R. S. Lawrence, defeated Social Credit candidate in Skeena in the last election, had reported surveys would be started on the road shortly.

Mr. Brown said the paper said the Aluminum Company of Canada and the government would share the cost of the work 50-50. Mr. Lawrence had received the information from Premier Bennett and Public Works Minister P. A. Gagliardi.

Plane Found, Pair Unharmed

VANCOUVER — A small plane, missing since last Friday, was found today on Princess Royal Island, 350 miles north of here.

The two occupants, Pilot Alston J. R. Laurie, 26, and passenger Charles Kendall, 50, of Los Angeles, Calif., were reported safe.

The plane, a single-engine Aeronca, was on a flight from Prince Rupert to Vancouver when it disappeared. The float-equipped plane had landed on water and apparently suffered no damage.

A report from an RCAF search plane said Laurie's plane had run out of fuel, and he was forced to land at Port Belmont in Surf Inlet on Princess Royal Island.

It will be refueled by an RCAF rescue craft and escorted to Alert Bay on Vancouver Island.

Big Fight Set Here April 2

Champ Coming On HMCS Sioux

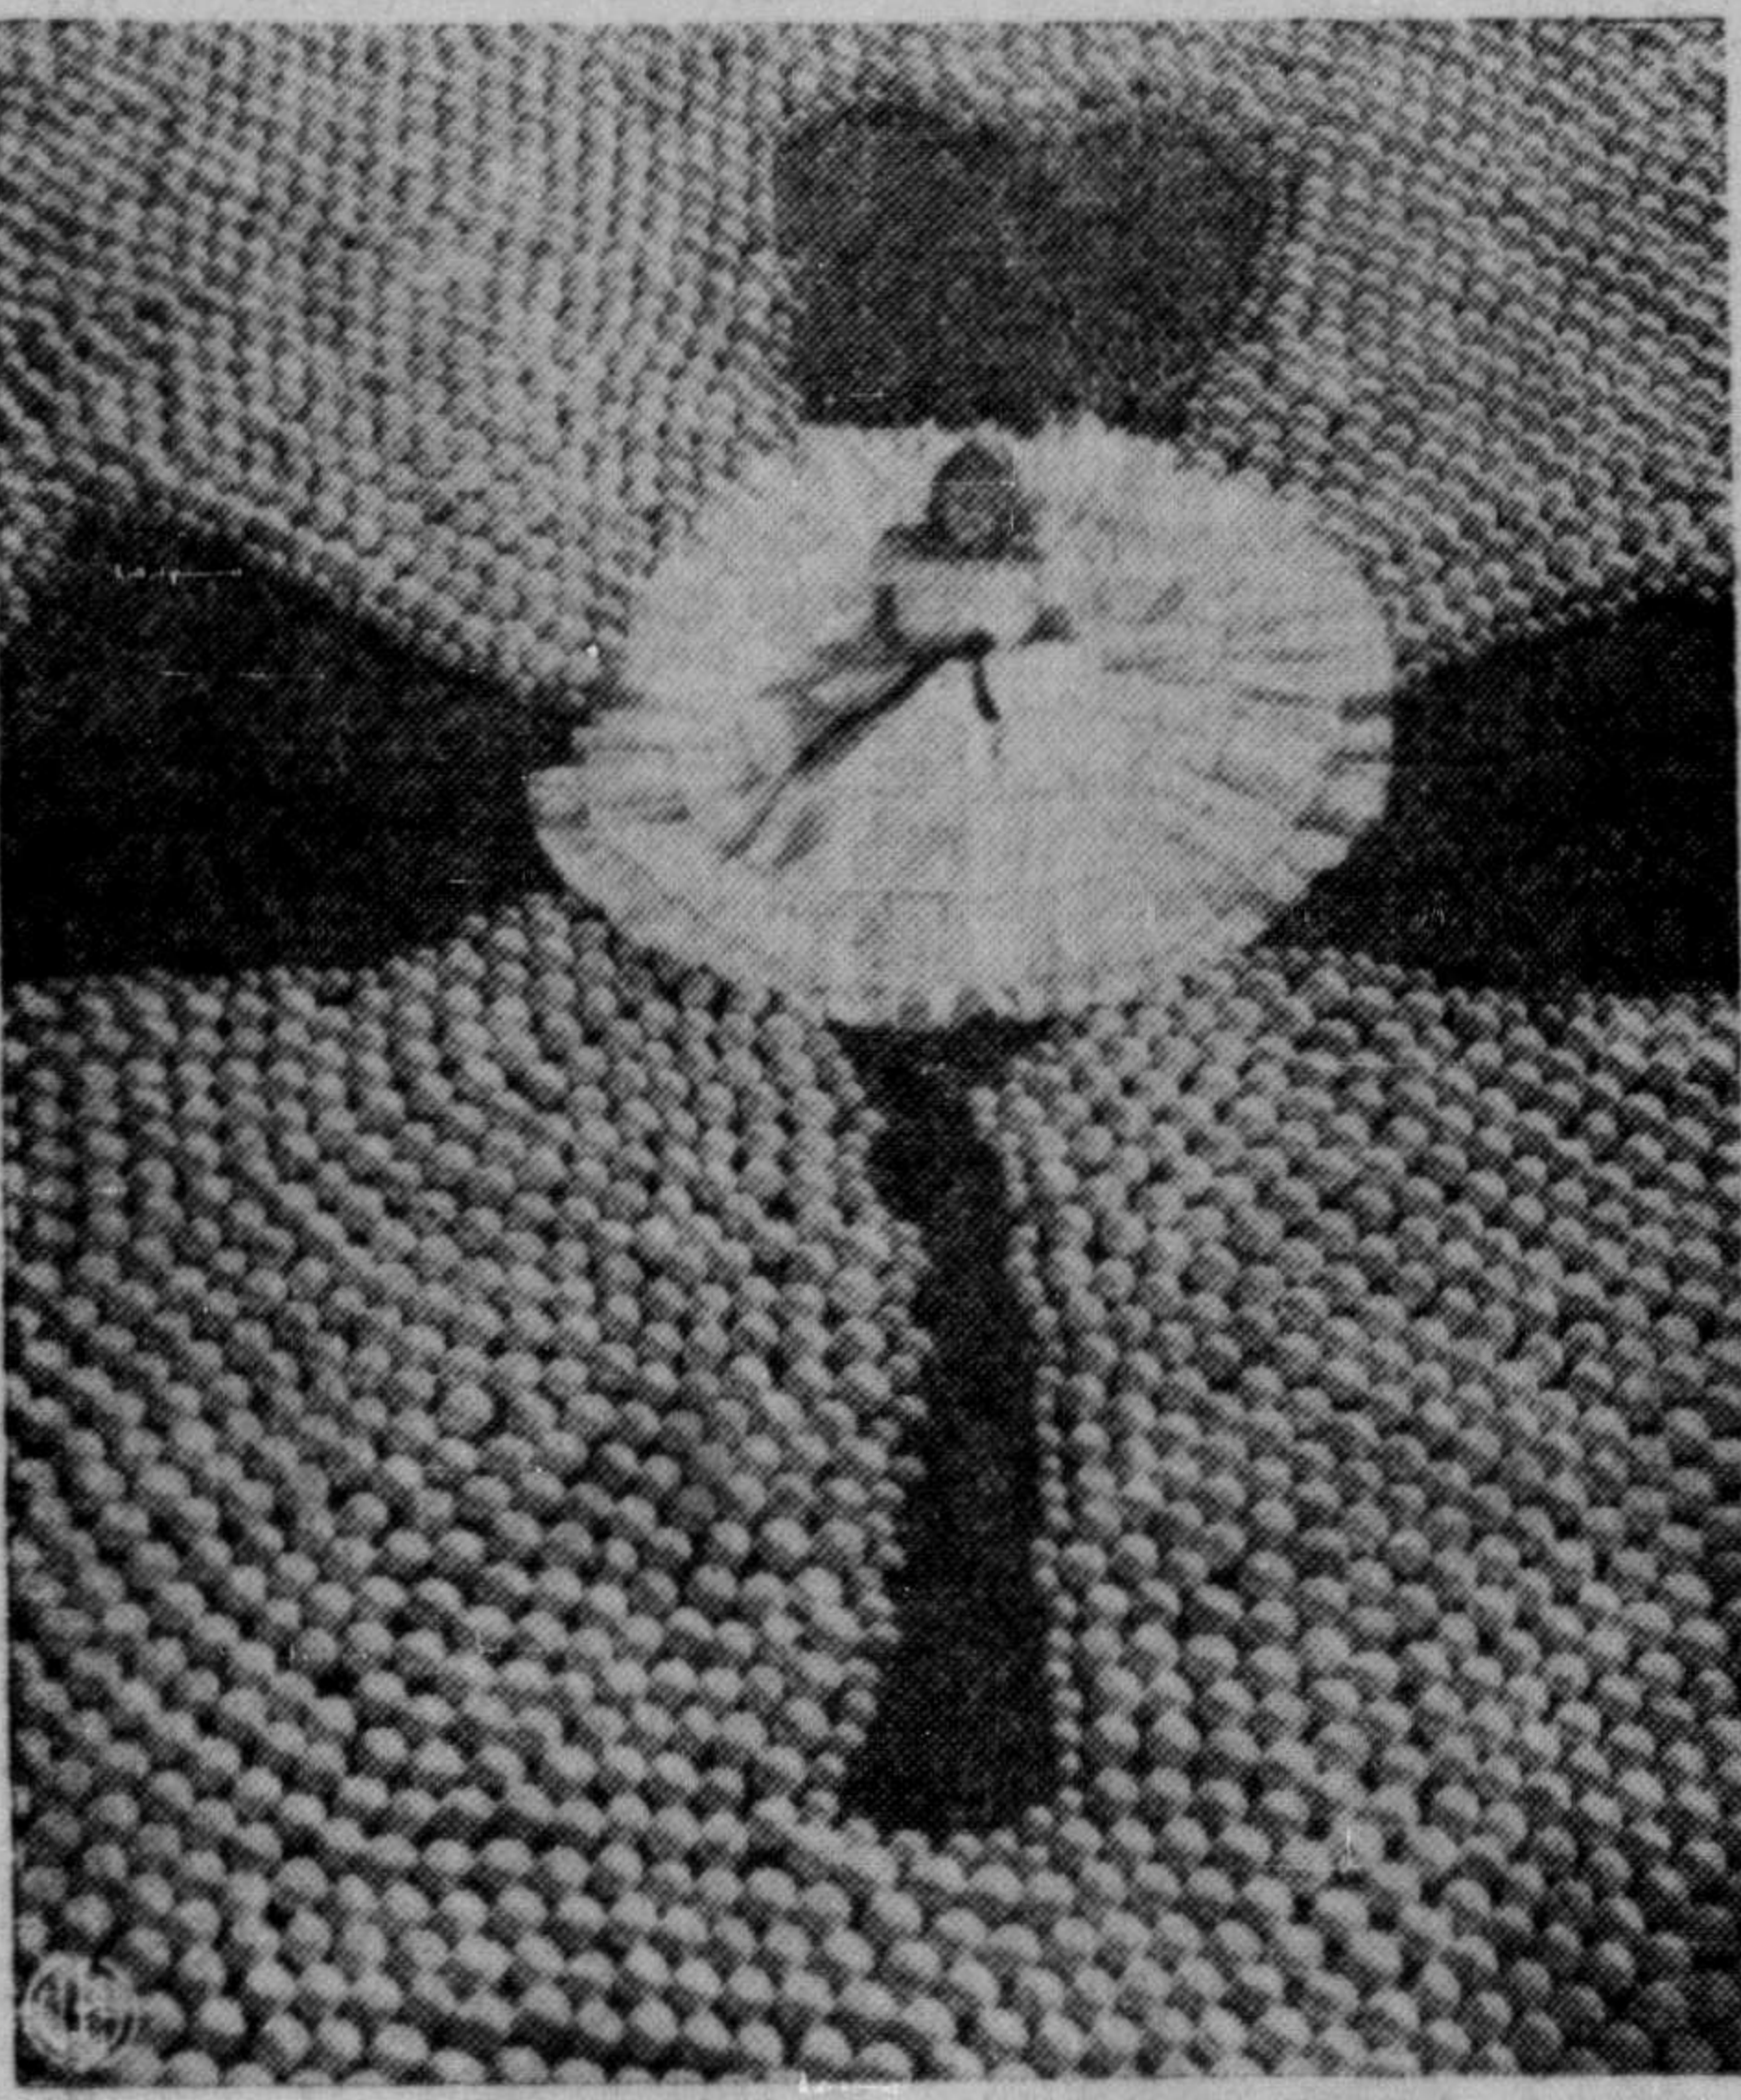

Leading Seaman Trent Ketchison of the Royal Canadian Navy will keep his date with Prince Rupert's Andy Marshall, Golden Gloves middle-weight champion on Friday, April 2 at the Navy Drill Hall here, it was announced today.

Lt. Cmdr. J. O. Pearson, of HMCS Chatham, said today that the destroyer HMCS Sioux would arrive in Prince Rupert, April 2, and on board, by "kind permission of Rear Admiral J. C. Hibbard, DSC, (CD) RCN, Flag officer Pacific Coast," would be L/S Ketchison.

Ketchison, who won the Canadian amateur middleweight championship in Montreal last year, was defeated by Marshall in Vancouver, March 5.

Accompanying Ketchison will be Lieut. J. Addison, sports officer of Pacific Command and also aboard the Sioux will be four Navy boxers ready to take on members of Joe Ward's Civic Centre boxing club.

The fight card is being sponsored by the Prince Rupert Elks Lodge in an effort to raise sufficient funds to send Marshall back to the British Empire Games trials in Toronto if he is chosen as a British Columbia representative.

Accused's Statement Preliminary Hearing Adjourned

Two RCMP constables took the stand yesterday afternoon to complete the list of witnesses. Magistrate Vance asked accused if he wished to speak, to which he replied: "I have nothing to say at this time."

Highlight of the hearing, which began March 10 and was adjourned until yesterday, was reading of a statement written and signed by Robinson on February 20.

The two policemen — RCMP Constable Riddell and Constable Weigerinck — told court they were in the room at the city police station with Robinson while he made the statement.

In it, the accused told of drinking beer in several downtown hotels on Feb. 12 and later going to the home of Lloyd Wilson where he, Wilson, Violet Sampare and Evelyn Wesley consumed a gallon of wine.

First witness, Wilson, told court on March 10 that Robinson pushed Violet Sampare down the front door steps and she landed against a huge timber lying on the ground, causing a wound to her left eye.

Further evidence disclosed Robinson took her to his home early on the morning of Feb. 13 but did not seek medical aid until Monday, Feb. 15. She died in hospital about 10 p.m. Feb. 16.

Robinson was charged with murder following an inquest Feb. 20.

BULKLEY VALLEY TRIPLETS BORN FIRST IN AREA

Special to The Daily News

TRIPLETS — A set of triplets, believed to be the first born in Bulkley Valley Hospital Tuesday.

The triplets, all boys weighing between four and five pounds, were the first born in the hospital since its opening in 1933.

Two weeks premature, the babies were immediately placed in an incubator, and doctors reported that both mother and babies were "doing well."

The triplets are the couple's first children.

Fire Alarm System City Now Complete

The new system provides about 35 boxes, set at strategic points throughout the city, and is the most complete system of its kind in operation in the area.

The system was used by the American Army for its installations here during the war, and was stored in the old warehouse on the waterfront. The old city fire alarm equipment has been sold to Terrace.

The new system is now in operation but there are still a few kinks to be ironed out and Assistant Fire Chief W. H. (Buster) Hill, who has been in charge of the project, warned today that residents using the new boxes should follow up the alarm with a phone call to the fire hall... "just in case."

The new boxes are simple to operate. Opening the door and pulling down the lever inside sets off the alarm, ringing a bell in the fire hall. An electrically operated ticker-tape apparatus then punches out the number of the alarm box in code. Firemen match up the number with the location of the box on a big chart in the hall.

Fire Chief Earl Becker, second-in-command, also asked persons sending in alarms to stay at the box until firemen arrived, to direct them to the fire.

Group Asked to Speak

VICTORIA (CP) — Senator Joseph Stinson of the United States is expected to speak here within the next few weeks.

Stinson, a hunting and sports enthusiast, is expected to be accompanied by a group of citizens. The group is expected to be the same one that sponsored a petition in Vancouver last year asking the government to inaugurate a "National Day of the Hunter and Fisherman."

EDITORIAL Help Through Red Cross

CANADIANS provide their fellow-Canadians with 13 major services through their Canadian Red Cross Society.

One other service — International Relief — is your way of saying, again through the Red Cross Society, that you are prepared to help your fellow man when and where that help is most needed, regardless of race, creed, color, and political or geographical boundaries.

Today you are asked once more to reaffirm your decision to help others, and to help them through the Red Cross — the universally recognized symbol of man's willingness to help his fellow man.

Wherever help is needed, whether it is across the street, across the nation or across the world, your hand is extended because you helped through Red Cross.

Alone, there are few of us who can help anyone other than those who are close to us. As partners in Red Cross — the greatest organization on earth for the alleviation of human suffering — we can accomplish much.

Let us give that help today.

Quota of $5,500 Sought By Red Cross Tonight

Red Cross canvassers will make a tour of the city tonight in a drive to reach the quota of $5,500.

Campaign officials announced today that no internal canvass will be made of employees in business establishments.

Members of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire have been canvassing downtown business firms.

There are also a number of women not connected with any organization who this morning began canvassing in Section 2, as well as all the area east of Hays Cove Bridge, including Eleventh Avenue.

START AT 6:30

Members of the Rotary, Gyro, Kinsmen, Jaycees, Job's Daughters, Sons of Norway, and the Elks will start their rounds about 6:30.

Each club has appointed a team captain, who will take donations to Ray Lougheed, treasurer of the Red Cross Society branch, who will be at the Northern B.C. Power Company office until all have reported tonight.

Officials said just before press time, that if anyone is not called on by a canvasser, they may call Black 210 and Mr. Lougheed will send someone.

Three women will be stationed at the Capitol Theatre and a like number at the Totem to accommodate those attending the shows.

The women will wear nurses' uniforms. At the Capitol will be Mrs. Anne Parker, Mrs. C. Strand and Miss Vivian Zappe. At the Totem, will be Mrs. Peggy Marshall, Mrs. Helen Vaughan and Mrs. Betty Saville.

Students Elect John MacDonald City's Mayor

John MacDonald has been elected Prince Rupert's student mayor for Future Citizens' Day, April 7.

Young MacDonald won out over George Henry in the mayoralty race and eight aldermen were named in the student voting yesterday, when 175 votes were cast.

The council will sit with city council at its March 22 meeting and handle applications from students for jobs throughout the city on their special day.

Aldermen elected are Fred Kristmanson, Ron Black, Gregg Forbes, Gary Morrison, Shirley Pierce, Helen Olson, Douglas Sankey and Peter Bartlett.

City Clerk Helen Trapp announced the voting results. Returning officers were Barbara Doumont and Lenore Nilson. Poll clerks were Sena Pavilikis and Norma Gildner.

Students of grades 10 to 13 were eligible to vote in the election which followed a hectic campaign by all candidates.

Stevens Backed By Eisenhower

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today he has full confidence in the honor and integrity of Army Secretary Stevens and stands behind him.

His statement was in response to press conference questions about controversy between Stevens and Senator McCarthy.

If he didn't have confidence in Stevens' integrity, the President said, Stevens wouldn't be holding the job he does.

Canadian, U.S. Firms Confer With Bennett

VICTORIA (CP) — The heads of giant Canadian and United States enterprises, competitors for vast British Columbia and Yukon water rights, met in a hush-hush meeting in Premier Bennett's office Tuesday.

They were Thayer Lindsley, president of Ventures Ltd., Frobisher Ltd., and Quebec Metallurgical Industries Ltd., and Irving W. Wilson, president of the Aluminum Company of America.

The two enterprises both have their eyes on hydro-electric potential in northern B.C. and in the Yukon.

Neither Premier Bennett nor the company heads would comment on the discussions. Premier Bennett said it was a preliminary meeting.

The Canadian government last year rejected an Alcoa proposal for a project that would divert the Yukon river above Whitehorse into Taiya Inlet and thence to U.S. territory near Skagway, Alaska.

The company wanted to use the diverted waters to develop about 2,000,000 horsepower for a pulp project.

Frobisher Ltd. followed with another proposal to use the waters of the Yukon watershed for a mammoth hydro-electric metal refinery project which would ultimately cost up to $700,000,000.

Bomb Victims Said "Worse"

TOKYO (AP) — All 23 of the crew of a Japanese fishing boat which was showered by radioactive ash from an atomic or hydrogen blast March 1 have been taken to hospital, and doctors said today their condition is getting worse.

The Japanese maritime safety board said the boat was 14 miles outside the restricted zone proclaimed by the United States around the Bikini atoll test site. The Japanese foreign office may make a "representation" to the U.S. government.

Doctors said exposed areas on the skin of crew members is turning black, and their hair falling out.

As I See It

Soul Murder Science

IN THE Korean war the Communist world propaganda machine launched its campaign to try to convince the world that the Americans had carried out germ warfare, behind the battle lines.

The campaign was given some plausibility by the signed "confessions" of certain captured U.S. airmen. One of those airmen who "confessed" is now undergoing court-martial in the United States.

In the course of that court-martial we are getting the full, horrible truth about the methods used by the Communists to get "confessions." It is a far cry from the old, crude methods of torture which kings and leaders of various religions used a few hundred years ago to try to impose their will upon the enemy, or their prisoners.

THE NEW technique of "brain washing" is based on something far more refined and diabolical than physical torture. The chief weapons are never ending pressure, such as the denial to the victim of any chance to rest, mentally, or to sleep. Some human beings are strong enough to hold out against the whole scientific technique of what could accurately be called "soul murder" for that is what it is—the deliberate disintegration of a human personality. But others cannot.

I read the evidence of how one U.S. victim was "broken" to the point where he would literally do anything, say anything, and write anything just to get respite from the hell on earth in which he had been placed.

The most cunning weapon in the hands of the "brain-washers" was to deprive the victim not only of rest and sleep but of sanitary facilities of all kinds, absolutely.

The complete, prolonged denial of toilet facilities will break the will of certain types of human beings more effectively than, say, the threat of being burned alive at the stake, like Joan of Arc, or the victims of the Inquisition.

General Dean says that he would never again permit himself to fall as a prisoner into the hands of the enemy, but would carry along a poison pill, to be used in case of capture. Without commenting on the ethics of that statement at this time, it should certainly help to awaken people everywhere to the nature of police-state war techniques.

IT IS worth remembering that only a minority of the captured (See Philpott Page 6)

OTTAWA DIARY

By Norman M. MacLeod

The first member of the new Russian trade mission has arrived at the Soviet Embassy. He is just a routine staff worker whose function is to sort out the sales offers from Canadian industry with which the Embassy has been flooded ever since the trade announcement of some weeks ago.

The actual head of the new trade staff isn't expected to arrive until early in April. Even with the preparatory work now being carried out in advance of his coming, it will be at least a matter of some weeks after he gets here before any firm orders are placed. Samples will have to be inspected carefully. Prices will have to be compared. Moscow will have to be consulted in some cases before an order can be finalized.

It all adds up to a probable delay of at least six weeks before any Soviet orders start to go out to Canadian industry. Canadian workers are unlikely to be engaged on goods for Russian consumption much before the middle of May at the earliest.

Once the Soviet trade gets under way, the present indications are that it will be both substantial and important. An Embassy official assured this correspondent that the Russians are prepared to buy from Canada in substantial volume. In advance of the detailed negotiations, he gave the following general list of commodities which Moscow is prepared to buy "definitely" if satisfactory trade terms can be arranged:

Textiles, farm machinery, meat, fish, wheat (limited quantities) cargo ships.

An interesting feature in connection with this list is that all items upon it with the exception of meat consist of items in respect to which Canada faces a major sales problem at the present moment. Substantial Russian orders under any of these headings — textiles and farm machinery especially — could help to solve some of the most difficult of the existing unemployment "soft" spots.

The key to the possibilities which the situation offers is believed generally to lie in the level of prices which the Russians will be prepared to pay for Canadian goods. It is hoped, specifically, that Moscow won't be as "tough" in dictating price terms to Canadian manufacturers as the Ottawa government is. Just last week an Ottawa Valley textile mill shut down and cancelled an $85,000 Defence Department order which it had on its books. Its statement was that it would lose less money by closing its doors than by completing the order on the price terms which the government had laid down. Canadian manufacturers are hoping that the Russians won't be that hard to deal with.

Coast Guard Saves Fisherman

VANCOUVER (CP) — Dale Kramer, a United States fisherman, was rescued from his small boat west of Prince Rupert yesterday and taken to hospital in Ketchikan, Alaska with serious facial lacerations. Kramer, skipper of the fishboat "Seamill", was struck by flying glass when heavy seas shattered the pilothouse of his small craft.

The U.S. Coast Guard tug Citrus took Kramer aboard and took his fishboat in tow near Lewis Island.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Still, there is this to remember: the boy who saves old magazines may grow up to be a doctor or a dentist.

A father asked his son what he was thinking of as he approached manhood. The boy replied, "Womanhood!"

Quite a lot of people, both east and west, continue to be composing music. The number, while considerable, is nevertheless not half as many as go in for decomposing it.

NOTHING TO SPARE As in most other years, the first week or more of March was enough. No one could be found who felt disposed to differ.

A despatch from Arabia received in Canada this week said there had been recent shelling in the Sea of Galilee. That's one story that won't be found in the Bible.

Down through the ages there has been no limit to the ingenuity—and the agony—of women to make themselves beguiling enough to perpetuate the myth that man does the pursuing, the wooing and the winning—Eleanor or Davidson.

If all the self-styled economists in the world were laid end to end, they would probably never reach a conclusion.

WORLD VALUE

If retirement means withdrawal from activity, resting, putting, achieving nothing satisfying and productive, there is danger in it—and death. A man who has amassed many years of experience has a mature wisdom that can be, and should be of value to the world.—J. C. Penney in "Life Today."

Remarkable Missionary

SEVENTY MILES from Belfast is the small town of Downpatrick which has, as its most treasured possession, a weathered slab of granite that is said to cover the burial site of St. Patrick. The unhewn monolith bears no markings except a crude Celtic cross and the single inscription, Patric.

It is an unpretentious monument to a man whose name has, in the passage of 1,500 years, reached such exalted heights. Assuredly no other Christian missionary in history has so captured the imagination and pride of his converts.

But then, of course, few missionaries have worked among such an imaginative and proud people. Whether he be from the north or south, the Irishman is first of all the champion of a cause. With the same fierce energy that he battles over his differences at home, he goes out in the world and finds new wrongs that demand his eloquent opinion. If he had nothing but arguments, the world might resist him. But he also has abundant humor, and the world has relented, mollified and amused.

His race has other gifts, too. In literature, the Irish imagination has soared to a creative level which has given the world some of its greatest writing in drama, verse and prose. The Atlantic rains which sweep Ireland have produced rich growth from its soil, but the nourishing effect on the minds of the inhabitants seems to be even greater.

Perhaps St. Patrick did not live long enough to realize it, but his converts have made the world a much more stimulating place in which to live.

In Memory

IN EXTENDING our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family of Mrs. George Hills, we trust that all of her many friends will remember her last wish. She asked that, in place of sending flowers, they make donations to the B.C. Cancer Institute.

It was a generous and deeply meant expression from one who had suffered so long from the affliction which the Institute seeks to defeat. To do as she asked will be a rewarding and kind tribute to her memory.

Donations to the Institute, which may be made through either of the Kaien Consumers Co-Op stores, will mean that even in death Mrs. Hills was able to make this life a happier one for others.

Lumbermen's Unit Says "Benefits" Sought by IWA Same as Wage Boost

VANCOUVER (CP) — John M. Billings, manager, Forest Industrial Relations, yesterday called the "fringe benefit" proposals of the IWA "simply wage increases disguised in another form."

"Even at first glance it is obvious that the demands would be extremely difficult for anyone to forecast as to cost and could be very much more than 7½ cents an hour," said Mr. Billings.

The woodworkers' program was drafted at a week-end meeting here attended by about 100 delegates representing some 32,000 coast workers.

The proposals, to form the basis of IWA negotiations when contract talks get underway in mid-April call for:

Full union shop; payment of wages for nine instead of three statutory holidays; employer-paid medical services throughout the industry; payment of fares from point of hiring to point of employment; retention of seniority rights during any layoff period; time-and-a-half pay on Sundays for watchmen, boatmen and plant guards; provision to allow the union to negotiate for workers paid on piece-work rates, and a joint labor-management job analysis program to survey rates paid for comparable classifications in all operations.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Here is the truth about the new Hospital Insurance policy. Know the facts!

The new policy will mean that people in the low and medium income brackets will get full coverage without worrying about premium payments.

Premiums are abolished! The 2% is not new taxation, but replaces the high premiums which will be abolished. Financial experts estimate that a family of four earning $260.00 per month will actually pay less than $15.00 per year under the increased sales tax, a distinct saving of over $24.00 per year.

THIS MEANS THAT THE GREAT MAJORITY OF PEOPLE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA WILL PAY LESS.

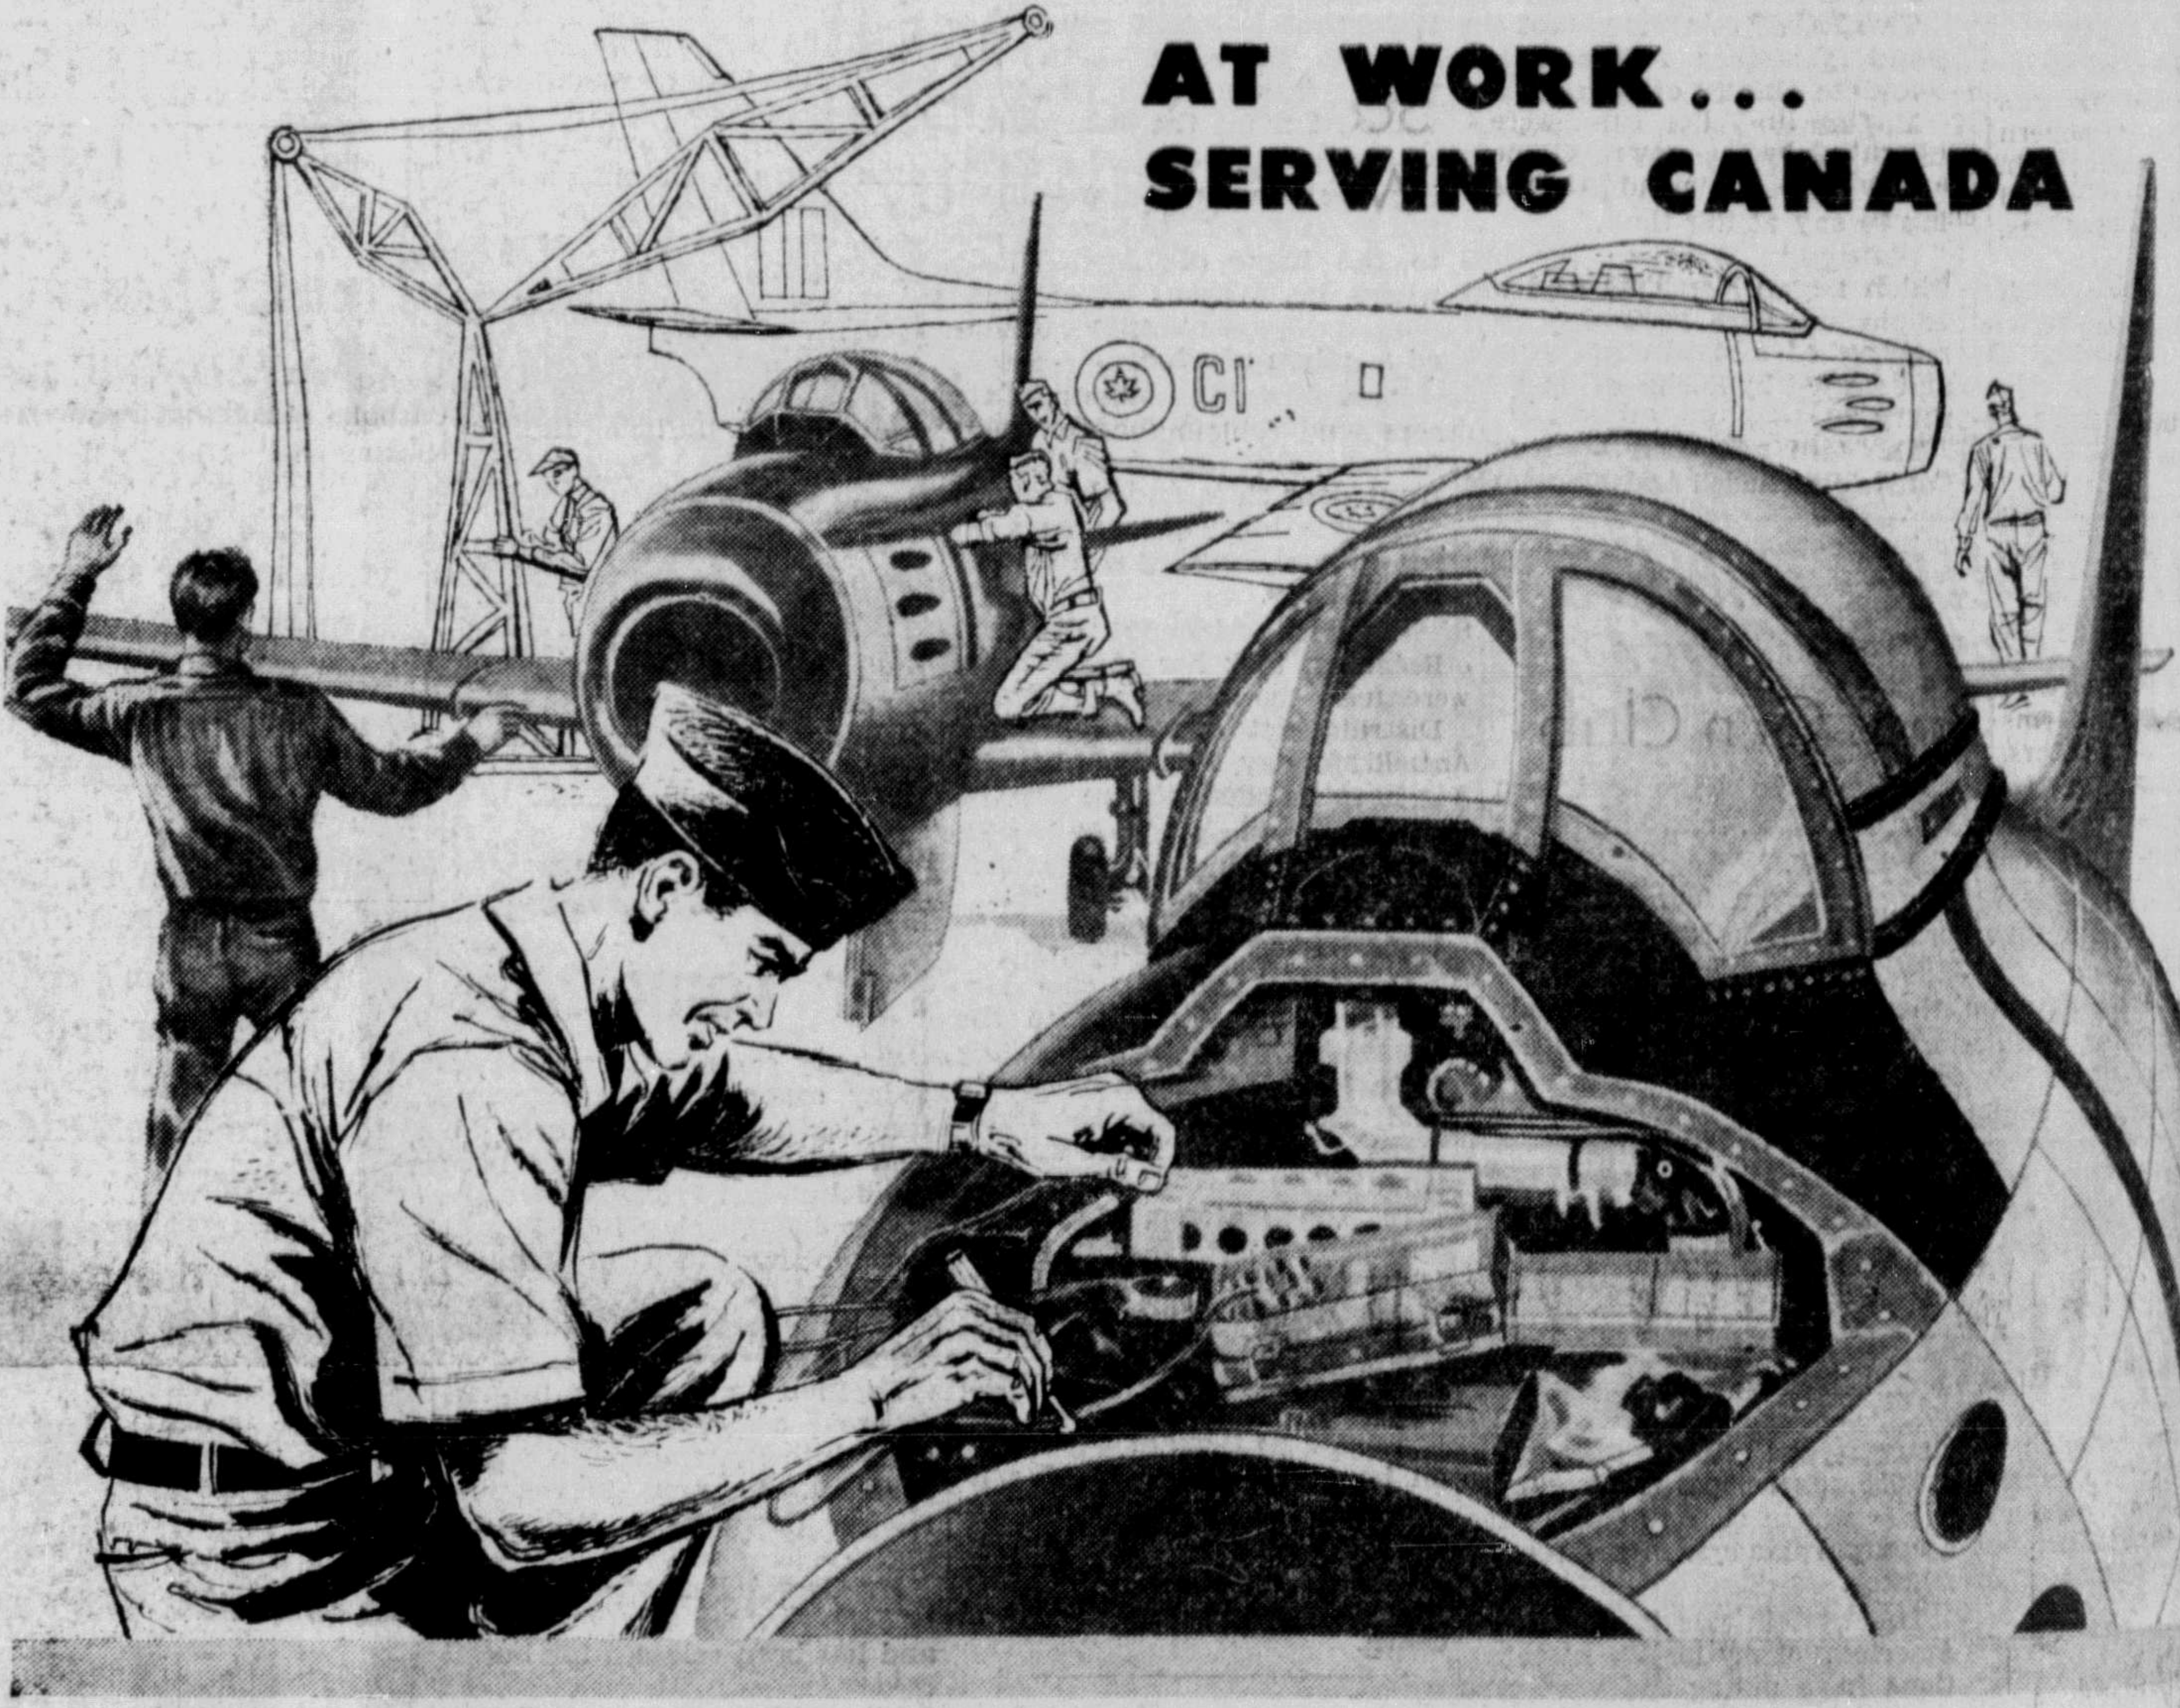

Remember, the same wide British Columbia Hospital Insurance Service benefits remain—and you CAN still claim your receipted hospital bill for income tax purposes.

A refund of unearned premiums will be made as soon as possible.

AT WORK... SERVING CANADA

"Among other things the Air Force made this possible for me."

At 18, Ken Banfield had worked in a grocery and a hardware store, and taken a short electrical course in house wiring. But nothing was happening.

"When I joined the RCAF in 1949, I learned the 'in's' and 'out's' of electrical aviation instruments, motors, aircraft wiring, batteries, link trainers..." says Ken.

When I joined a squadron and carried out my first major inspection on a plane, I got a real feeling of satisfaction, not only at the knowledge I had gained, but at being able to serve my country.

In the past couple of years I've visited many places of interest but was particularly fortunate in being selected as electrical crewman on special trips to Texas, England and Brazil.

If you want to acquire a skilled trade while you serve Canada in the defence of freedom... and are between 17 and 40 and have Grade 8 education or better, see the RCAF Career Counsellor at the address in the coupon — or mail the coupon.

City action on had passed on Third Avenue in a ten-minute period from 12 noon till 12:10 p.m.

Vice-president Mrs. M. Wayman conducted the meeting at which Mrs. A. Rivett was named Borden representative on the P-TA teacher-training bursary committee and Miss Janet Bernhoff was appointed to attend the projectionist training course offered by the local Film Council.

The group planned to stage a hot cross bun sale for students at the school April 15 and changed the date of next month's meeting, regularly scheduled for April 20 which falls during the Easter holidays. The meeting will be held April 27.

Bottle-Craft Class Opens At Civic Centre

A new bottle craft class for juniors opened yesterday at the Civic Centre with several youngsters starting the project under direction of Rolfe Miles.

The group will learn to decorate odd-shaped bottles with paints, decals, Christmas card clippings or other bright pictures. The bottles may be cut to shape for vases or equipped with electrical adapters for lamp bases.

The classes, open to elementary school-age youngsters, will be held every Tuesday at 4 p.m. Also starting at the Centre last night was a further class in pottery, starting a six-week course.

BURNS LAKE—Mark Jacque, a Cheslatta Native, was fined $150 on one game charge and given a suspended sentence on another in Burns Lake Police Court. The fine was levied when Jacque was found guilty of shooting a cow mouse out of season.

Other charge was on taking animals from another man's registered trap line. The furs were confiscated by the crown. Game Warden W. H. Richmond laid the charges.

FRANCOIS LAKE—Pete Dreidger narrowly avoided loss of his truck and a load of lumber when the truck broke through the lake ice here. The rear end of the truck crashed through the ice and the lumber caught on solid ice, holding the truck up. With the aid of neighbors and block and tackle the truck was hauled to safety.

Rod, Gun Club Plan Meeting

On Monday evening the executive of the Prince Rupert Rod and Gun club met to discuss a program for the annual meeting to be held tomorrow night at the Moose Hall.

THIS CIRCULAR MACHINE which smokes three cartons of cigarettes an hour in a test to see if mice become victims of lung cancer, has inspired a poem from a Prince Rupert reader. The smoke is pumped into a room containing mice and the machine has been used by a Welsh doctor for the past two years. Recent arguments over whether cigarettes have anything to do with lung cancer brought the machine again to the fore. Although mice that "smoke" develop lung tumors more readily than those that don't, Dr. Basil Martin Wright who uses the machine on the mice says the tests are inconclusive. The letter and poem which resulted from the Daily News running this picture is below.

The Editor, Daily News:

The following poem was called forth after perusing the above picture of a medical research device to ascertain the effects of cigarette smoke on the lungs of mice, and I think it may strike a responsive chord in many (especially Scottish) human hearts:

Wee, sleekit, cow'rin, tim'rous beastie
O what a pantie's in thy breastie
I'm truly sorry man's dominion
Has broken nature's social union.
Ye "curst horse-leeches" o' the science
Wha' mak such devilish appliance
To find if cancer o' the lung a' sets
Fra' swallowing smee k o' cigarettes.
By coofs (I'm ane!) that hae nae will
To quit the habit o' the "pill!"
Hae ye no tho't for that pur mousie,
Rinnin roon in that stark housie,
Wi' achin' banes an' baggie sore
Seekin' aye the benmost bore,
Wi' bleerit eeg the reek to jouk
An' fa' a blin't an' blastit jouk?
What hope hae ye o' paradise
When torturin' pur wee cow'rin mice?

Scouts and Cubs Jamboree Well-Received by Parents

Prince Rupert District Scouts and Cubs staged a jamboree Monday night before a big audience in the Civic Centre, to say "thank you" to parents and others who contributed to the recent Scout fund appeal.

Boxing and jujitsu exhibitions, and skits by Scouts and Cubs on their activities, plus two films, one on the national Scout Jamboree of 1953 and the other on the Battle of Britain, were featured.

District Commissioner F. E. Anfield, and P. F. P. Bird, Scout Association chairman, opened the program with a welcome to the audience and thanks for their support of the fund drive.

Scouter Art Williamson, with the assistance of Cubs in a brief skit, illustrated ceremonies in which new boys enter Cub packs.

Jimmy Baldwin and his Scouts of the 1st and 2nd Prince Rupert troops staged another skit, "Worst Aid" demonstrating how not to treat patients.

Dentists See Demonstration

Prince Rupert and Terrace dentists were instructed in latest techniques of children's dentistry at a special clinic here conducted by Dr. Max Nacht, Vancouver specialist.

Dr. Nacht specializes in dental care for children up to 12 years of age, or until all permanent teeth are present.

During his visit here, Dr. Nacht staged a chair clinic demonstrating various techniques with several youngsters aged five to eight as patients. At another session he showed slides and models to further illustrate the various treatments, followed by a question period.

The clinic, first presented in this area, was sponsored by the B.C. Dental Association and the provincial department of health. It is hoped that further clinics on other phases of dentistry may be held here in future.

Top Marksmanship Awards Given Rifle Club Members

More than 80 persons attended the Civic Centre Youth Rifle award-giving ceremonies last night at the Civic Centre when the three top marksmen of the group were presented with trophies won this season.

Rupert Radio and Electric trophy was presented by Frank Parlette to Wayne Crowe for having the highest average. The Manson Jewelers trophy for best average group was presented on behalf of Al Manson to Bill Holgate. The Kaien Consumers Co-op trophy for winning the handicap shoot was presented to Jim McLean by W. H. Brett.

Parents, members and friends heard a short talk on Rod and Gun club activities and an invitation to Rifle club members to join when they are old enough, from Jim Bacon, president of the Prince Rupert Rod and Gun club. Also shown was the film "Northwest Passage."

Instructors Dick Paul, Tommy Boulter and Jerry Martin released the latest averages and scores today.

Manson's Edge CCC To Take Series Lead

Manson's Omegas squeezed into a one-game lead over CCC 300 Club in the Senior B basketball finals last night with a 50-49 victory over the die hard pulp millers. Omegas now pace the increasingly hot best three out of five series 2-1.

In a hot and heavy game which saw 52 fouls called Fraser and Payne downed North Star Bottlers 50-42 to even the best of five Inter A finals at one game each.

League champion Manson's tied up the Inter B finals at one game each when they trimmed General Motors 32-26.

The Senior B game was not entertainment for those with weak hearts. The lead changed hands a minimum of 16 times and only at one time was there a gap of as many as five points between the two scores.

CLEAN GAME

The game which was tied 9-9 after the first quarter and saw CCC in the lead 24-23 at the half was a cleanly and keenly played contest. Referee Doug Sankey and Bill Morrison kept the game well in hand and handed out only 13 penalties to Manson's while calling 22 fouls on CCC.

While Ray Spring was canking up 22 points to lead the Omegas, Don Scherk and Bill Sumburg of CCC were countering with 14 points each. Manson's led 36-35 at the three quarter mark and that one point gave them the game as both teams netted 14 points each in the final quarter.

Consecutive baskets by Danny Bill and Mickey Webster gave Manson's their biggest lead at the 48-43 mark. But two field goals, one by Don Scherk and the other by brother Sid brought it back to 48-47. Ray Spring made it 50-47 at the 43 second mark and Pop Pay added two points for CCC with only 16 seconds to go before time ran out on the millers.

Foul shots could have made the difference, CCC missing 8 out of 17 tries while Manson's only muffed 5 while shooting 13 times.

LEAD FROM START

Fraser and Payne were gunning for the Inter A league champion North Stars last night as they took the lead in the first quarter and weren't crowded until the final frame. Quarter scores saw the drygoods squad take the game without being headed, 12-9, 16-9, 9-8 and were outscored 16-13 in the final quarter. However, the 37-26 three quarter lead stood up for Don Hartwig's F & P squad. North Star didn't allow their rivals to score a single field goal in the last stanza but the drygoods' boys scored 13 points on free shots. Freddy Kristmanson, who contributed 11 points to his team's total fouled out at the end of the third quarter to be followed by Greig Forbes midway through the last quarter.

The fouls caught up to North Star with a vengeance as Rod Tait, Dick Nickerson, Bill Donaldson, Bill Morrison, Rey McKay, all returned to the bench. With only three men on the floor North Star fought to the bitter end with Inter B player John Newton helping the bottlers cause with two well-earned baskets.

Bill Morrison scored 16 points to top the bottlers. Ron Ciccone with 14 points and Gary Morison with 13 both played excellent games for Fraser and Payne. Out of the 65 free shots taken North Star sank 12 out of 24 and Fraser and Payne cashed in on 24 of 41.

Mel Anderson was top scorer for Manson's as they downed General Motors 9-7, 6-2, 5-6 and 16-11 by quarters. Eugene Nelson with 7 points led the losers. The cleanly-played fixture saw only 8 fouls called on each team. Manson's had the edge on free throws sinking 11 in 16 tries while General Motors only made 6 out of 15 chances.

Bruins Cinch Playoff Berth; Sawchuk's Trophy Bid Fades

By The Canadian Press

Are Detroit Red Wings dying? Will it be the same as last year? Those were a couple of questions being kicked around the National Hockey League today after the Detroiters, one of the greatest teams in big-league history, dropped a 4-2 loss to the Boston Bruins Tuesday night.

The Red Wing loss, in itself, wasn't too bad. But the fact that it was their third straight defeat, something that hadn't happened all season, gave indications they could end up in the Stanley Cup discards like last year when the Bruins beat them in the semi-finals.

The loss also put the skids on goalkeeper Terry Sawchuk's bid for his third straight Vezina trophy.

NEW YORK OUT

The Bruins made sure of a play-off berth and left New York Rangers no hope of catching them in the stretch run. The league's 70-game schedule ends this week-end.

It was the only game of the night and the victory was Boston's fifth consecutive, equalling the longest mark of the season achieved twice by the Wings. The Bruins now have gone nine games without a defeat.

The Bruins were never in trouble. They scored once in the first period, twice in the second and then were outscored 2-1 in the final. Centre Milt Schmidt started them in the first session with the 225th goal of his big-time career. The others were scored by Leo Labine, Johnny Peiron and Dave Creighton. Johnny Wilson and Alex Delvecchio tallied the Detroit goals.

Sawchuk now is three goals behind Harry Lumley of Toronto Maple Leafs in the goaltending race. He has 122 goals against him. Each has three games to go and the trophy and $1,000 goes to the winner.

Only one game is scheduled for tonight, Montreal Canadiens, in second place with a one-point edge take on the third-place Maple Leafs at Toronto.

Penticton V's Meet Kelowna In OSHL Finals

By The Canadian Press

The battle lines have now been formed for the playoff finals in the Okanagan Senior Hockey League.

The second OSHL finalist was determined Tuesday night when Penticton V's blanked Vernon Canadians 2-0 in the last game of their best-of-five semi-final series. The win climaxed a great come-back by the V's, season-long OSHL leaders.

Penticton will meet Kelowna Packers in the opening contest of the best-of-seven finals at Penticton Thursday night. Kelowna won themselves a berth in the series last Saturday by edging Kamloops Elks 3-2 in the fourth game of their semi-final affair.

Over in the Western International Hockey League, the play-off picture will be completed tonight when Kimberley Dynamiters and Spokane Flyers meet at Kimberley in the deciding game of their best-of-five semi-final.

The winner will tangle in the best-of-seven finals with Nelson Maple Leafs, who advanced to the finals Monday night by defeating Trail Smoke Eaters 5-2 in the fourth game of their best-of-five series.

YORKTON, Sask.—A farmer at Tonkin near here accidentally shot 14 of his own chickens. Hearing a suspicious noise in the hen-house, he grabbed a shot gun to investigate. As he opened the door, his dog nudged his hand and the gun discharged. Cross ready.

Quakers Down Canucks 4-2

By The Canadian Press

It'll be a battle right down to the wire for first place in the final Western Hockey League standings.

Vancouver Canucks, currently holding a two-point edge over Calgary Stampeders with both teams having two games left to play, will have to wait until at least Friday when they play host to Seattle Bombers to clinch a first-place tie. They lost an opportunity to ensure the deadlock last night when they bowled 4-2 to Saskatoon Quakers on home ice.

Calgary, meanwhile, will have to win their game against Victoria Cougars tonight in the Prairie city if they are to keep their chances alive for finishing in sole possession of top spot. The contest is the only WHL action scheduled.

Saskatoon's victory last night rounded out their coast tour at one win, three losses and boosted their third-place edge over Edmonton Flyers to three points. The score was tied 1-1 at the end of the first and 2-2 going into the third.

Fifty Six Rinks Set For Bonsel Friday

Fifty six curling rinks, including 15 outside teams have been entered for the Third Annual Prince Rupert Curling club bonselpiel which gets under way at 11:45 Friday morning.

Due to the large entry, the spiel will start earlier and end later than originally planned and with 187 games scheduled to be played, curling will be around the clock. The first game involving visiting rinks is set for 1:15 a.m. Saturday morning, March 20.

Besides the 40 rinks entered by Prince Rupert curlers there are seven rinks from Smithers, three from Prince George, two from Terrace, two from Burns Lake, one from Skeena Crossing and one from Tulsequah.

Giordano Tops Mixed Ten-Pinners

Joe Giordano topped the Mixed Ten-pin bowling league Sunday with a high single of 224 and a high three of 603. Giordano also rolled a 201 game and others who rolled 200 or more were Neil Stromdall with 222, Art Olsen with 205 and Don Hartwig with 200.

Topping the women were Dot Marshall who collected women's high single with 194 and Jean Sharpe who rolled 492 to take women's high triple. Dominoes won team high single and high three with scores of 678 and 1819.

Results: M & M's 4, Four Aces 0; Dominoes 3, Luckies 1; Tiny-mites 4, Timberticks 0.

First day's play will be games in the Grand Challenge Fashion Footwear trophy competition and first round losers in this contest will take part in first round of second event, the Superior Auto trophy competition.

OUTDOORS With Marty

The big meeting of the year for rod and gun people is set for this Thursday evening at the Moose Hall, several new executive and committee men are urgently required, a general reshuffling is looked for, and all look with ability and desire to take a leading part in the forthcoming outdoor activities should attend and stand ready for election.

The Game Commission has awarded this zone the hoped-for pair of delegates to its convention, the Rupert Clubsters are duplicating the Terrace move in electing a lady secretary (more about these gallant gals shortly), and there are plenty of plans for the betterment of sport for us all, provided co-operation and support is obtained. The finalizing of this year's resolutions is also to be done, and last minute suggestions will still be heard. Be there, my brother of the bush, and be heard!

Seven sea lions disporting themselves around Pig Island on Sunday. At one time small clouds of herring were seeking the skies in their efforts to get away from them. No reports on salmon being taken in the vicinity.

A number of excellent rifle shots among the younger set, the time appears ripe for some snappish shooting training at unknown ranges in the bush (with due regard to safety and backstopping); their own ingenuity and skill can be used in preparation of targets and grounds.

Another unfavorable report on running dogs, this time between Grassy Bay and Miller Bay; perhaps the law on checking this practice needs adjustment, and the power to stop such animals placed in additional hands.

Among revised figures on world record fish just published is Coho at 31 pounds; this is held by Vancouver Island and moths it could be transferred nearer home. Most certainly these fish are taken of larger size by our own commercial fishermen, so there is something worth while for anglers to strive after. Good luck to you!

Spring salmon on sports gear remains at 83 pounds by a fish taken years ago from the Umpqua River in Oregon. At least two larger fish were sold here last summer, and eventually one will fall to some fortunate rodman. It is surprising to learn that only one trout record (out of eight) is held by a Canadian fish, this is the 14½-pound brook

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Partners Who Do Not Co-operate Lose Games

Mr. Champion made a beautiful defensive play in today's deal but to make it effective he needed the co-operation of his partner—and this he didn't get.

Mr. Muzzy led the seven of spades and Mr. Champion won with the ace and returned the nine. Mr. Masters ducked the second spade and Mr. Muzzy won with the jack. Now, with no possible quick re-entry to his hand, he decided spades were hopeless and shifted to the nine of hearts.

Dummy played the five and even this early in the hand Mr. Champion realized the extreme importance of his seven spot. He played the ten and Mr. Masters won with the ace.

On the bidding it seemed certain to Mr. Masters that the king of clubs was on his right, so he planned to throw Mr. Champion in and make him lead away from that card. He cashed the king of spades to take that safe return away from Mr. Champion.

Mr. Champion had already seen what was coming. That is, after three rounds of spades, one round of hearts and five leads of diamonds, he would be down to four cards. These would have to be the king and one club and the king and one heart. Mr. Masters would then throw him in with a heart and if both of his hearts were high, he could cash two hearts but would then have to lead into dummy's ace-queen of clubs.

To avoid this trap, Mr. Champion planned to discard the queen of hearts on the run of the diamonds and to retain the seven. If Mr. Muzzy had the eight of hearts he could squirm out of the end-play.

This was very fine planning but it didn't work out. Mr. Masters played the hand as contemplated, running five diamonds and then leading a heart. On the lead of the last diamond, Mr. Muzzy discarded the deuce of hearts. (What good is a deuce?)

Now when Mr. Champion got in with the king of hearts, his partner's eight spot dropped on the trick. The seven was then high and after cashing it Mr. Champion had to lead from his king of clubs after all.

B.C. Days Lost Due to Strikes Less in 1953

VICTORIA (CP) — The number of man working days lost through strikes in British Columbia in 1953 was six times less than the 1,234,000 lost the previous year, Labor Minister Lyle Wicks said in the legislature Monday.

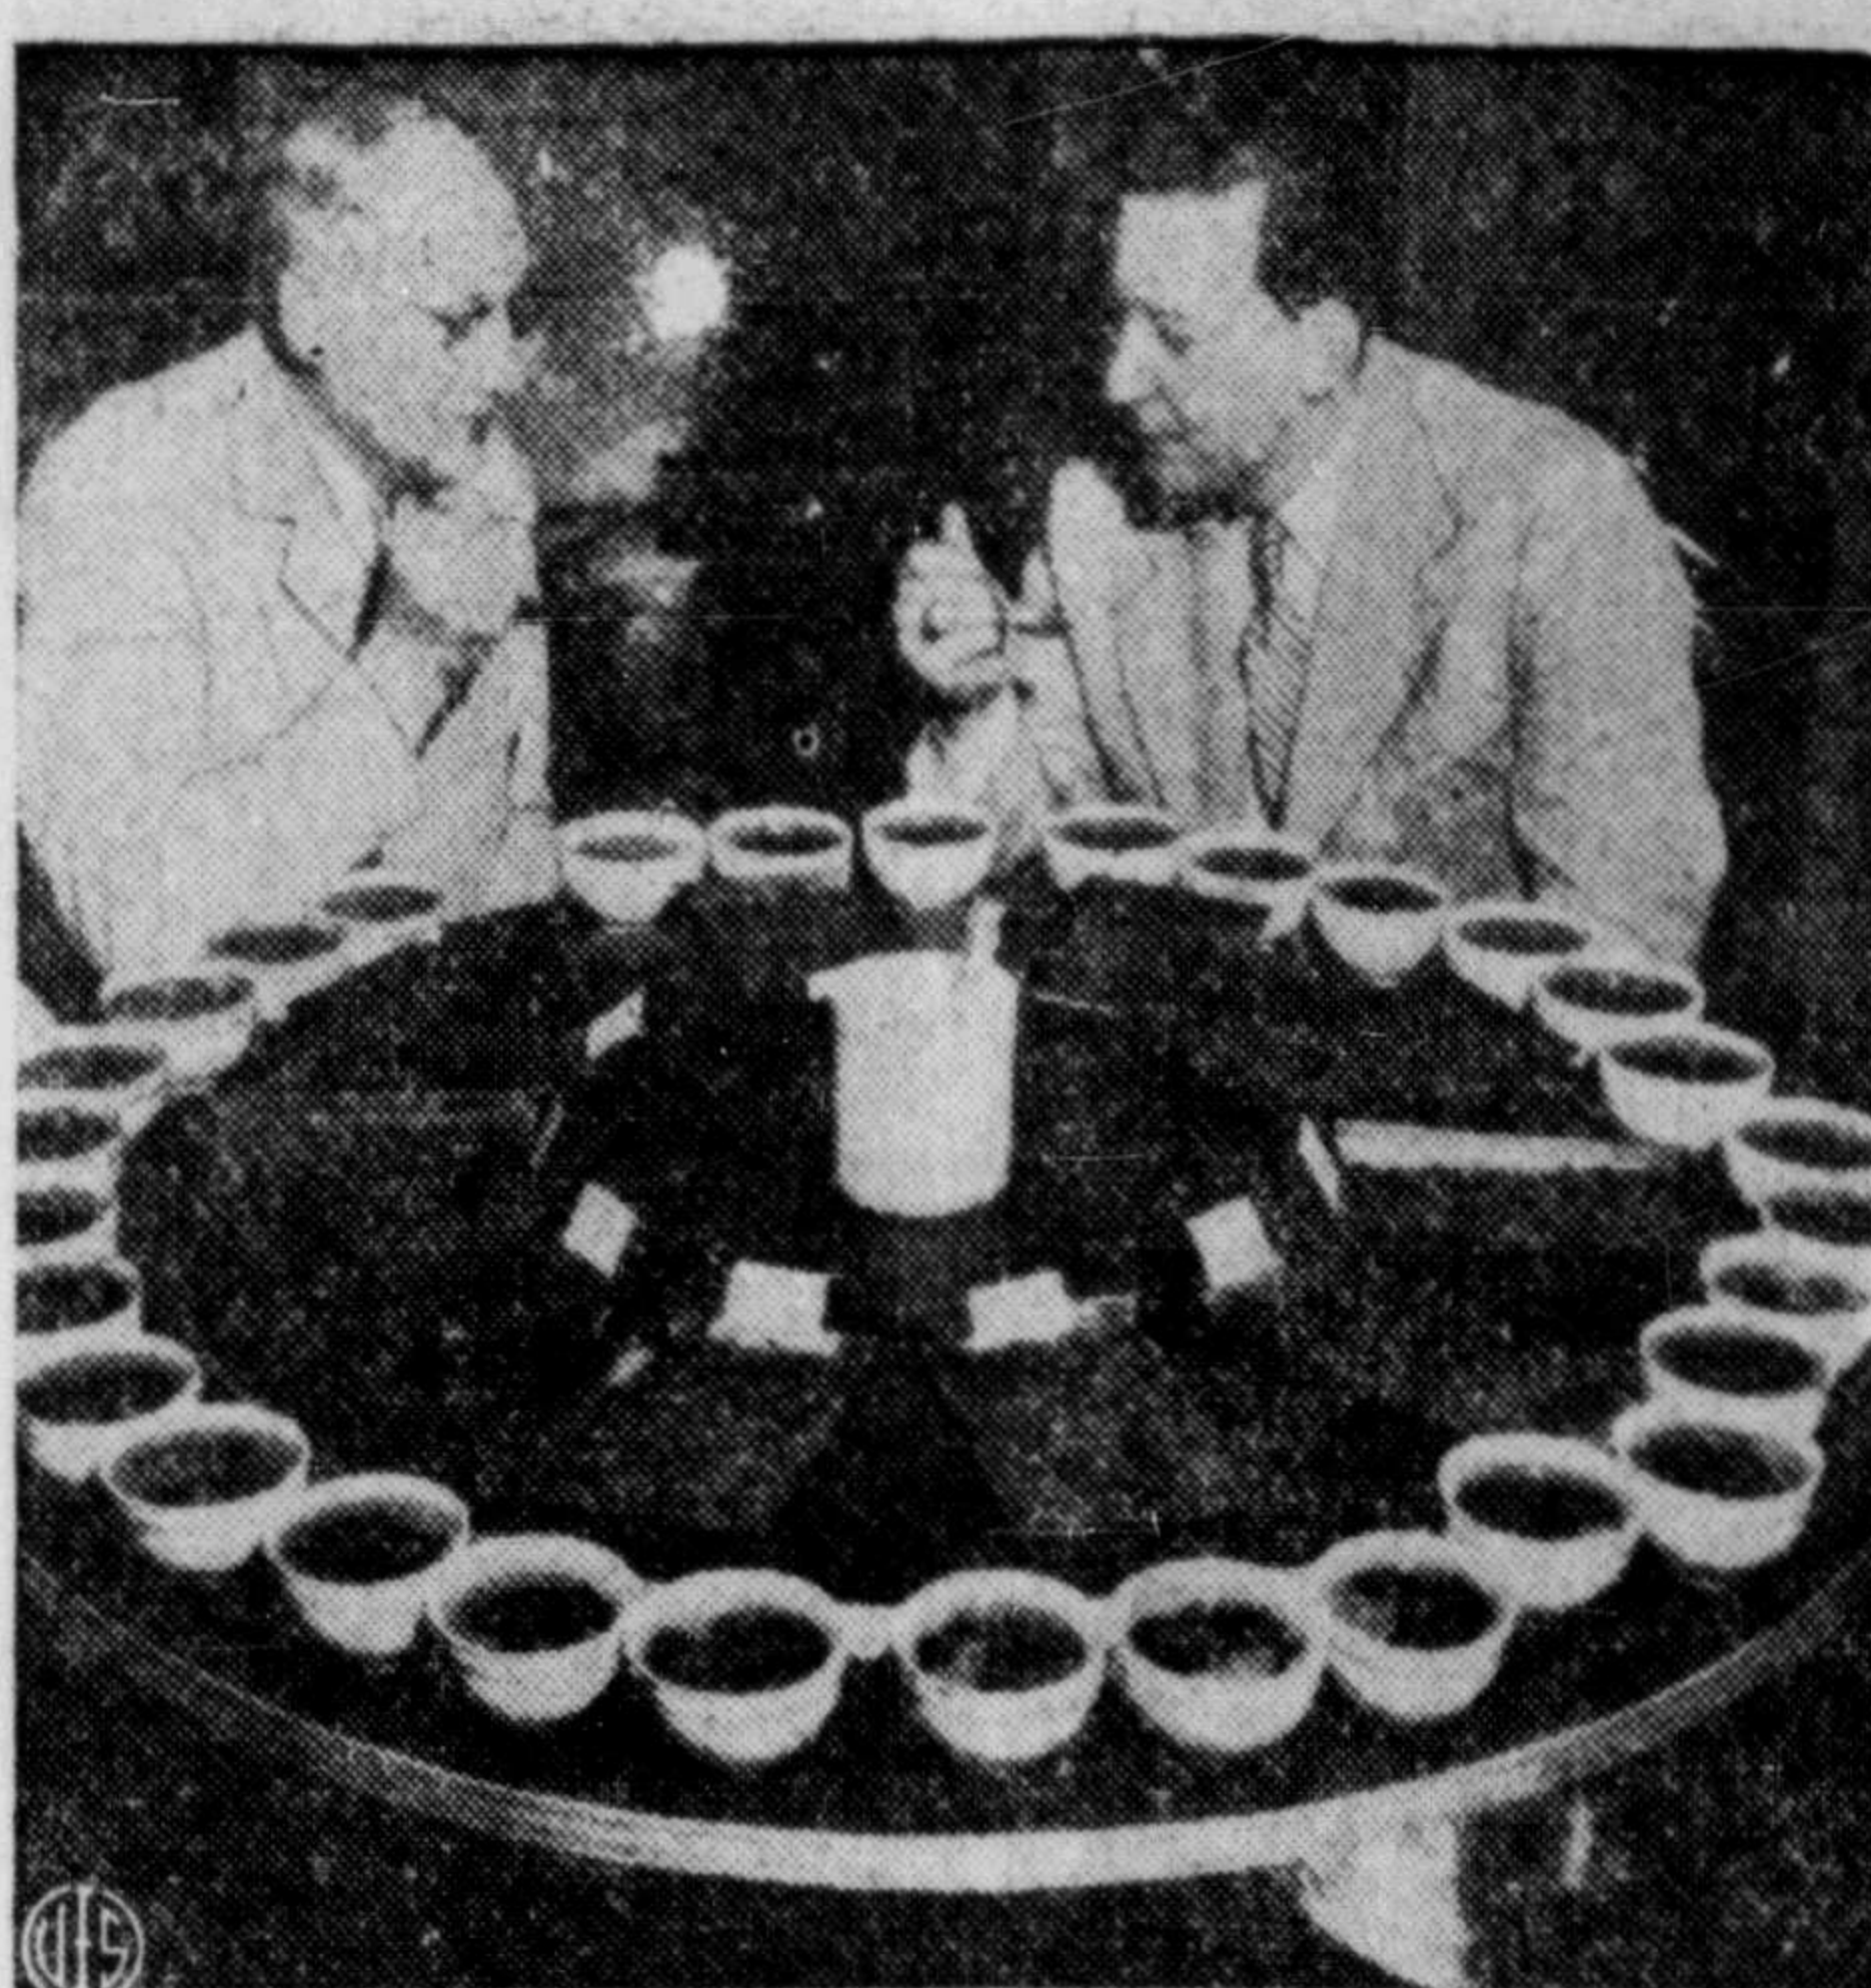

There were 16 strikes by American Federation of Labor and Trades and Labor Congress Affiliates, involving 21 employers, 1,833 employees and a loss of 21,212 man working days.

Congress of Industrial Organization and Canadian Congress of Labor affiliates had 17 strikes, involving 76 employers, 4,769 employees and a loss of 212,859 man working days.

Independent unions had two strikes, involving 15 employers, 1,601 employees and a loss of 26,256 man working days.

There was one strike by four unorganized employees against one employer with a loss of eight man working days.

The total was 36 strikes involving 113 employers, 8,207 employees and a loss of 260,335 man working days.

BERNARD A. LEHMKUHL (left), and Howard Sneden are not planning to cut down on their daily coffee no matter how high prices go. In Nestle's New York City laboratory they sip 300 or more cups every working day. Both are veteran coffee tasters who sample their company's purchases, often worth millions of dollars, and pass judgment on quality or determine improved blends.

Education, Health, Welfare Gain Most From Sales Taxes

By The Canadian Press
Education, health and social security programs will benefit most from the $128,000,000 five Canadian provinces expect to collect in sales taxes in the 1954-55 fiscal year.

Revenue in the current year is estimated at about $102,000,000 and $25,000,000 of the anticipated increase will be paid in British Columbia where the tax was increased this week from three to five per cent.

New Brunswick, where the tax was lowered to three from four per cent Wednesday, expects a drop of $1,750,000 in revenue from that source, while Quebec, Newfoundland and Saskatchewan the other provinces with provincial sales taxes, anticipate modest increases.

Quebec has a two per cent provincial tax but this is increased in many cities and towns by a municipal tax of one or two per cent and an education tax of one per cent. The accumulated tax in Montreal and Quebec, for example, is five per cent.

The tax in Saskatchewan and Newfoundland is three per cent. British Columbia, with the highest provincial tax, anticipates the greatest revenue in 1954-55. This is expected to amount to $60,000,000 compared with $35,000,000 under the old levy, known as the social services and municipal aid tax.

Part of this money will be paid as grants to municipalities. The share was one-third when the tax was three per cent.

The remaining money is used for social services such as hospital care, cost of living bonuses for the aged and blind, and welfare cases. British Columbians have paid a provincial sales tax since 1948.

Quebec, where the provincial tax has been in effect since 1940, anticipates revenue of $41,000,000 in 1954-55 compared with $40,000,000 in 1953-54. Half this amount goes to an education fund and the balance to ordinary revenue.

Saskatchewan imposed a two per cent tax in 1937 and increased it to three per cent in 1950. Revenue was $14,000,000 in 1953-54 and is expected to be $16,000,000 next year. Two-thirds of the money goes to education and the balance to hospital services.

new techniques of "brain washed" Americans, subjected to the "ing" actually caved in. Most of them stood firm. Maybe some were killed outright. But others refused to "confess" to the lies their tormentors wanted. They are back home now.

We may ask ourselves: What was the purpose of this particular Communist trick? I think the answer is obvious: The Russians, like other big powers, have been experimenting with germ warfare devices for years past. The clumsy, crude campaign in China was designed to pave the way for Communist use of germ warfare, in event of world war three. Their own people would then be told "after all the Americans confessed to using germ warfare in Korea."

Newfoundland's three per cent tax has been in effect about two years and is used for social security, most of it for old age assistance. Revenue is between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 a year.

The New Brunswick tax, known as the social services and education tax, is expected to bring in $7,350,000 in the year ending March 31. The province has had a sales tax since 1950.

Two Fishermen Survive Wreck

TOFINO, B.C. — Two Vancouver Island west coast Indian fishermen are being treated here for exposure and shock after swimming ashore from their small cod boat which was blown nearly 100 miles and wrecked on a reef.

The pair, Archie Thompson and Bert Mack, lost the boat's gasoline tank Monday off Bamfield, at the mouth of Alberni Canal. They rigged a sail, but winds drove them past Uclulet to Long Beach where the small craft struck a reef and sank. They swam to shore and later were taken to Tofino.
