WHILE RUPERT REJOICES REGINA IS RUINED

DEVASTATING WHIRLWIND SWEEPS FAIR PRAIRIE CITY

Capital of Province of Saskatchewan is Visited by a Terrible Tornado Which Cuts Swath of Wreck and Ruin Through Central Streets, Destroys Two Million Dollar Provincial Buildings and Deals Death and Dreadful Injury to Scores if Not Hundreds---Estimated Loss $5,000,000

THE DISASTER IN BRIEF.
Known killed, 29; missing, about 50.
Financial loss, at least $5,000,000.
City under martial law today.
Big buildings wrecked—Parliament House, Y. M. C. A., Baptist Church, Methodist Church, warehouses, homes.
Disaster took place at 4:30 p. m. Sunday. Many parties boating on lake believed lost. Aid is being rushed in rapidly.

Winnipeg, July 1st—One of the most appalling disasters in the history of Canada occurred last night when Regina, the beautiful capital city of Saskatchewan, was entirely destroyed by a cyclone. Scores of people are killed, some reports stating that as high as five hundred perished.

Late yesterday afternoon without warning other than a darkened sky that looked as if it might threaten a summer thunderstorm, a devastating cyclone came from the south partly wrecking the two million dollar Parliament House and sweeping away many business blocks and apartment houses as if they were matchwood and leaving the streets in a tangled mass of debris from which it was impossible to extricate one quarter of the people seriously injured. All night long in semi-darkness, the power plant having been destroyed early in the evening, willing survivors have been at the work of rescue, but dawn coming rather heightened than minimized the terrible seriousness of the disaster.

Winnipeg, July 1st---LATER---Messages reaching here today tell of the recovery of fifteen bodies from the ruins of the buildings since day break. Twenty were recovered last night. The last word received here up to 10 this morning said that the reports of the cyclone had been exaggerated and that the total list of dead would probably not exceed fifty. Several blocks are still to be reached. The list of injured will reach 200. Many of the injured are in a serious condition and will increase death roll.

Pathetic stories are told of persons seeking refuge in nearby houses, only to be knocked down and killed by flying bricks and debris. The property loss is conservatively estimated tonight at five million dollars. The Y. M. C. A. building, the Methodist and Baptist churches are all a mass of ruins, besides a large number of warehouses and homes.

The football five-a-side, which was postponed last night owing to the match with Port Simpson Wesley Guild taking up the allotted time, will be played off tonight. Teams meet at club rooms at 7:30. Kick off 7:45 sharp.

RED DEVIL HAS SAVED THE CITY

Dangerous Fire in the Heart of the Business District Swiftly Controlled—Record Turnout Made—Panitorium Gutted—$1,000 Loss.

By the prompt action of the fire brigade, which made a record turnout, the business section of the city was saved from threatened destruction at 12:30 today. The fire broke out in the Panitorium, on Sixth street, close by the Royal Hotel. In one minute after receipt of the alarm the red devil was there and full streams of water were pouring onto the blaze.

VANCOUVER ADDS TO DEATH ROLL

Canada This Summer Is Still Rolling Up a Sad List of Drownings—Winnipeg and Vancouver Add to Dominion Day List.

(Special to Daily News.)
Winnipeg, July 1.—Four young people were drowned today while boating on the Red and Assiniboine Rivers.

Vancouver, July 1.—Samuel Chadwick and John Walford were drowned today in the Narrows. While with three others they were proceeding in a launch for an outing they got caught in a tide rip and all five were thrown out of the boat. Two perished.

PRINCE RUPERT TWENTY MINUTES AGO

Several of Rupert's dressiest boys reassured regarding a certain recent fire ruin downtown. Power boat owners still puzzling over the phenomenal performance of the Laura F. Laura wears her laurels modestly. Stable, paddock and street still wrangling over horse flesh and that hitch-up contest. Citizens one and all sympathetic but profoundly thankful that they spent Dominion Day in Rupert rather than Regina. Merely Mabel says that if some of those runners in the walking race had only entered for the ten mile they might have beaten even young Rogers.

ON BEHALF OF US ALL.

Victoria, July 2.—Premier McBride, on behalf of the citizens of British Columbia, has sent a message of sympathy to Premier Scott deploring the disaster which has overtaken Regina.

DIRECTOR DID NOT STRAND

Rumor Around Early Yesterday Denied—Vessel Anchored.

Yesterday morning a rumor calculated to shake confidence in the fairway facilities of Prince Rupert's fine harbor was running around. UNDER IDEAL CONDITIONS PRINCE RUPERT HOLIDAYS

In Splendid Sunshine From Early Dawn Till Latest Evening Citizens Celebrated Dominion Day With Sports by Land and Water, With Picnic Afield and Parade in Town, With Excellent Athletic Achievement, With Good Humor, Gay Entertainments and Merry Dance

Dominion Day dawned rosy for Prince Rupert. Never were weather conditions more beautiful for a general holiday. The sun bathed the city and harbor from early dawn till late evening. Amusements of all kinds were enjoyed to perfection. The athletic events and water sports went off magnificently. The city was thronged with visitors from other districts, and many well to do Indians with their families. Prince Rupert was a busy centre indeed.

repeatedly left George Weston on his father's big gray three-lengths in the rear at the post. There was so much disputing that the results have not been officially declared. Both jockeys left the saddle, as a matter of fact, and led their mounts back to the starting point, which would make the race informal at best. But beyond doubt "Babe" proved a surprising stepper, and young Ambrose a splendid little steeper. Weston sported more color.

managed to capsize their canoe just after the mixed doubles race, in which they took part. They were some distance from the nearest aid, which was supplied by three little boys in a ten foot dingy, but Mrs. Mobley proved as cool as she must have felt and held on quietly to the canoe until pulled out into a larger boat brought up after the dinghy had lent useful extra support. Young Harry is a powerful swimmer and kept an arm about his mother until she was safe. Neither was one whit the worse. All the skiff and canoe races were watched with interest. The crab race proved exciting as ever, and the four oared a fine feature.

The Power Boat Race.

Surprise was in store for the watchers of the power boat race as well as for the participants in the performance of the Laura F., George Frizzell's boat, which walked away from everything else in sensational manner and came in so far ahead of the bunch that it was thought she had given up the race and come home by a short cut.

The order in which the boats came in at the finish is given, but the official winner of the cup was not announced at once, as Water Incident.

Tremendous crowds lined the waterfront to witness the water sports, which went off splendidly. One incident caused a little excitement. That was when Mrs. Mobley and her stalwart son Athletes Out Early.

Beginning with the five mile race for men from Campbell's Cigar Store, the day was one round of events for young and old and of varied entertainment, ranging from a hundred foot plunge daringly performed by a humble painter from a ladder staging on the Knox Hotel to a furiously run hitch-up contest on Third avenue, the prize in which some spectators declare should go to the Indian mother who hitched up to her baby buggy in record time and jerked herself and the wee papoose out of serious peril when a horse and sulky took the sidewalk at Sixth street corner. Over this race and the straight horse race, in which George Ambrose on Kelly's "Babe" after sensational bucking feats in the preliminary can-

HAZELTON VS. RUPERT AT BALL

Very Good Game on the 30th at Hazelton—Rupert's Pelicans Played Well, but Were Defeated Fast Work Done.

Hazelton June 30.—In the fastest and most interesting game ever seen on local ground Prince Rupert Pelicans were defeated by Hazelton Tigers by 4 to 2. It was a pitchers' battle, Johnson's terrific speed bruised the champion's hands until they swelled double. Excitement was intense and holding on both sides spectacular. Owens pitching in a pinch saved the game for the Tigers. Following is the score: R. H. E. Pelicans 2 5 4 Tigers 4 3 3 Batteries—Johnson and Champion, Owen and Loquist. Umpire—Neil. Attendance—Six hundred. Champion's hands were so bruised in the game that he was unable to catch in the Dominion Day game. Toby pitched for the Pelicans in that game. Yesterday's game resulted in a win for Hazelton by 19 to 7.

Mooney Trial Today.

Judge Young will hear the trial of John Mooney, charged with the theft of gasoline tanks, this afternoon.

Prince Rupert's Greatest Coming Industry is Fittingly Foreshadowed in the Prize Taking Feature of Prince Rupert's First Calathumpian Parade

Amidst the lavish throng of pleasures, sports by land and water, concerts, sideshows, outings, and general good times right up to the concluding dance in the K. of P. hall, there must not be overlooked the spectacular Calathumpian Parade in which our best known local firms figured so finely. Everybody was talking about George Frizzell's "Oh You Young Prince Rupert" autocar feature, and the magnificent float decorated by the Prince Rupert Fish Market, which won the Calathumpian First Prize, stood on view for the rest of the day on Second Avenue. The hundreds who saw it will be much interested in the above picture of the display made by the same firm two years ago.

PRINCE RUPERT THIS TIME LAST YEAR

Nicholson wins the ten mile. Azalli, champion of Italy, walks off with first for the walk. Many other names seen in present year's d. d. prize list feature also in last year's. News of Spokane wreck reaches Rupert. "Houston Ward" Tablet arrives. Tennis courts at school ready for play. Grant of $5,000 for Rupert's First Methodist Church announced. G. T. P. sends city cheque for $30,000 in payment of two years' taxes under assessment agreement.

A Pretty Memory of a Past Dominion Day Triumph

OUR GLAD DOMINION DAY; THEIR SAD ONE.

Dominion Day, 1912, will go down in the history of Prince Rupert as one of the greatest ever. Not that our rising city has any special one man record or series of records to claim this time, but because of the superb general success of the day. Prince Rupert's luck on Dominion holidays is getting to be proverbial. Long may it remain so. Those who are here because they're here certainly deserve every ounce of it. Our pioneers, and our present day citizens, have striven against many difficulties to make a bright, live city of Prince Rupert, and their success shows up every time Rupert makes holiday. But while congratulating themselves on the success of their civic holiday our citizens, one and all, are sending out anxious thoughts and sympathetic toward that sister-city of ours in the great, grand Dominion which is so sorely stricken in the hour of rejoicing. Fresh news from Regina is not to hand at the time of writing this. It is earnestly hoped that later details will reduce the tale of calamities.

EVELYN THAW PROTESTING AGAINST RETELLING STORY

"ANGEL CHILD" WITNESS AGAIN IN THE LEGAL SUITS RAISED BY HER HUSBAND IN HIS FRANTIC EFFORTS TO GET OUT OF THE CRIMINAL INSANE ASYLUM.

White Plains, N. Y., June 27.—Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw protested bitterly today at the hearing in the case of her husband, Harry K. Thaw, against having to go all over again the details of her relations with Stanford White.

"Right here and now," she cried when pressed by counsel for Thaw, who is trying to secure his release from Matteawan, "I want to know whether I have to go all through this thing again. It's bad enough that Thaw hid behind my skirts in his two dirty trials. 'You don't need to go into details, and you know it, and you can't get me to answer.'"

Evelyn Thaw, after having been excused at the morning session, when recalled in the afternoon identified several of Thaw's letters which were introduced in evidence and described several displays of temper over small things on his part during their life together. She was then given over for cross-examination by C. J. Shearn, counsel for Thaw.

Mr. Shearn had her go into details about her early life in a little New Jersey village, then in Philadelphia, and finally in New York, where she began to pose for artists and then went on the stage. He led her through the first stages of her acquaintance with Stanford White, of her visits to his studio with the swing hung in the ceiling, and to his quarters in the Madison Square Garden tower.

Thaw hung intently on the

FOND OF YOUR DOG; OF COURSE EVEN IF HE ISN'T PURE BRED

Why the Four-Footed Friend of Man from the Finest Pedigreed Pup to the Veriest Mongrel Finds Its Way into the Affections of Someone

If you are really fond of dogs you will be fond of every kind of dog, big and little, good and bad—the mongrel and the cur, as well as the high bred animal.

They all have the same affectionate nature, and, it may be added, the same capacity for suffering. Anybody who professes to take an interest in one dog only, or in one kind of dog only, or in well bred dogs only, may be sure that his feeling is not genuine and disinterested. It is qualified by vanity or selfishness, or the ignoble desire to be in the fashion.

The Dogs of Today.
Strange, is it not, that even in

A mongrel is simply a dog whose father and mother were of different breeds; and as the mongrel has little or no pecuniary value he is liable to be knocked about from pillar to post; to have no home or a very bad one, and to be treated with scorn and cruelty. Often, indeed, he is set adrift and abandoned by a hard hearted or thoughtless owner, too indifferent to give him even the boon of a humane death.

The Intelligent Mongrel.
Not only is the mongrel quite the peer of the well bred dog in affection, in loyalty, in obedience, but he is often superior to the well bred dog in intelligence. But, alas! his outward appearance is against him. Like many human beings, he is the innocent victim of fate.

It is among boys that the mongrel finds his warmest friends. Boys are more natural and therefore more democratic than men. If a dog is good natured, intelligent and affectionate, they care little what his pedigree is. They love him for himself, and he returns their devotion a thousandfold.

Wonderful Eyes.

Mark the sorrowful, piteous look in the eye of the homeless mongrel, and you will be slow indeed to add to his miseries. In the last great accounting we may be sure that we shall receive no credit for the fine dogs or horses that we fed and cared for; the motive there was mainly pride of ownership. But whoever has bestowed shelter and affection on an animal that nobody owned, or wanted to own, may have produced an intercessor that he never dreamed of. It is a Russian legend that the man who be-selecting a pet mankind should be governed by fashion? And yet that is largely the case. Years ago people bought pug dogs, then fox terriers, and later Boston terriers—not, in most cases, because they preferred that kind of dog, but because it was the correct thing to own that kind.

ance is against him. Like many human beings, he is the innocent victim of fate.

It is among boys that the mongrel finds his warmest friends. Boys are more natural and therefore more democratic than men. If a dog is good natured, intelligent and affectionate, they care little what his friends a friendless animal will find that animal waiting to help him across the deep dark river that, according to the old mythology, separates this world from the next.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM VETERAN GENERAL BOOTH TO THE SALVATION ARMY

My dear Comrades—If the unexpected blow regarding the loss of my eyesight had not actually fallen, as the newspapers have stated, it is hovering dangerously near. Instead of the restoration of sight for which I had hoped, and for which I know you have so earnestly prayed, the doctors tell me I am on the very eve of entire darkness.

In a few brief hours my comrades may be under the painful compulsion of announcing that The General is hopelessly blind. In that event, what an indescribably painful loss will be mine, never again to see the light of day, or behold the countenances of my friends, or look into the sympathetic eyes of my comrades; never again to witness that for over sixty years has been to me the sight of sights—men and women kneeling at the Morey-Seat.

Then, too, I have lost the hope of being able with any facility to write, while it will be an absolute impossibility to read well.

GENERAL BOOTH

Pile up all my losses, they are many and serious. I admit; but look at the mercies left me!

First, there is my confidence in God. I am not going to allow the existence of a few things which are in conflict with my judgment to interfere with my confidence in His Wisdom—confidence that is inspired by a lifelong knowledge of His loving care.

Then, I have not lost the assurance of my own happy relations with my Heavenly Father. I have not lost the confidence and love of my own dear people. I have not lost the inestimable blessing of life.

I want the continued loyalty of my own people, and the hearties co-operation of all men and women whose hearts are fired with the same purpose as my own.

In a few weeks time I hope to be found once more on the battle field.

Anyway, my dear comrades, in the light or in the dark, you may count upon your General to trust in God and go forward!

WILLIAM BOOTH.

girl's testimony. He appeared to be biting his nails.

She told of her visit to White's apartments, but burst out with her indignant protest when asked to answer further intimate questions.

Tears filled her eyes after her outburst and she spoke in a shaky voice.

"You know all about this and so does every one else," she cried.

Asked whether she had testified that she had never seen anything to lead her to believe that Thaw was not of perfectly sound mind, she answered: "Yes." She later qualified that answer by saying, "except on the question of Stanford White."

Mrs. Thaw was still on the stand when court adjourned till Monday morning.

"I know I did. I wonder if they wouldn't compromise on a trip to the theatre instead. I don't see how I am going to divide four radishes among a dozen families."—Louisville Courier Journal.

A little boy was in the habit of creeping through a hole in the orchard fence in order to steal the farmer's apples, one day unknown to the thief, the farmer happened to be immediately inside the fence, and as the boy's head and shoulders appeared, he exclaimed, "Now my lad, where are you going?" "Awwn going' back!" the lad replied as he crawled backwards out of the hole.—The Bailie.

being sensational, such big boats at the Evelyn, Sangra, Eleanor Mac and Rover battling for the right of way in closest neck and neck struggle. It was admittedly a splendid event.

The Races.

In the afternoon the crowds thronged Second avenue, where the flat races were held. Here, of the music of the Indian band, some pretty lively athletic work was done, as the results and times show. The ten mile race deserves special mention. Its winner, young Ralph Rogers, proved himself a splendid little stayer and deserves the greatest compliment possible for downright pluck and backbone. He had heavy odds against him. He could not have won had Nicholson, last year's champion, not been injured, but young and slight as he is he had an opportunity given him for grit and he showed it. Nicholson, too, comes in for huge credit. A great runner, as Rupert knows, he seriously sprained a tendon in his ankle during the mile race. Injury notwithstanding, he tackled the ten mile and actually managed, after the fifth round, to take over a lap from his most dangerous opponent. The race was Nicholson's had he been suffering less pain. As it was he showed his marvelous pluck and endurance as well as his great speed under extraordinarily adverse conditions. Rogers reaped the victory, and earned it, too, but both men proved themselves as game as the west can turn men out.

The Entertainments.

Empress and Westholme Theatres were packed in the evening. Both provided splendid programs. As the official concert in aid of the sports fund, the Empress concert was well patronized. You Do Not Know Where to Invest?

Let us tell you. There should be no difficulty about a matter of this kind if you take the trouble to exercise ordinary common sense. You would not select an old decaying city whose pulse has almost ceased to beat, would you? You would put your money into a Going Concern where there is life and hope!

Well! Why Don't You Try the West?

We suggest the west, because the west spells Progress! Here are the cities of the future, where hamlets existed a few years ago. Here are the towns which possess both sea and rail transportation facilities! Here are the towns whose strategic positions ensure them becoming large commercial distributing centres in the near future! Here is Alberni, the future Liverpool of Canada.

A Seaport Town of no Small Renown

So situated at the head of Alberni Canal on the west coast of Vancouver Island, its importance as a seaport town cannot be doubted, or too strongly emphasized. This canal opens itself out into the Pacific Ocean, after its land locked course from Alberni, extending for a distance of 26 miles. Its water is of great depth, permitting of safe navigation to the largest vessels plying the west coast, being one to three miles in width. An investment in a place possessed of such enviable features

Must Surely be One of the Best!

Yes! Without a shadow of a doubt it is one of the best! Don't be asleep to these great chances, which do not come too often. Remember, Alberni is at present served by one great transcontinental railway system, the Canadian Pacific Railway, and by the end of the year the Canadian Northern will have completed its track into Alberni. Then will come the dredging of Seymour Narrows, connecting the island with the mainland. Mail and passengers from the Orient and other routes via the Panama Canal, to be opened next year, will be landed at Alberni, and transported by rail to Vancouver, saving from eight to twenty-four hours to the present route.

ALBERNI therefore is where you should invest. Lots can be bought for $150, inside the town limits. Easy terms, 10% cash, 5% per month. Test it for yourself. Buy a lot today and help to develop the west.

A Fast Disappearing Opportunity

To get in on the ground floor at FORT GEORGE. Why will Fort George inevitably grow to be a great city? Because of its strategic location that assures her of a GREAT FUTURE as a distributing centre. Because there is the centre of the richest mining district in America—the CARIBOO DISTRICT.

Because great areas of TIMBER, 1,100 MILES OF NAVIGABLE WATER, EXCELLENT WATER POWERS, are tributary to Fort George.

Because there are 250,000 acres of good agricultural lands, open for pre-emption.

Because of all the railroad that are building or that have got their charter to build through Fort George.

Because all the grain of Alberta and Saskatchewan shall be exported through the Panama Canal, which means that all that grain shall have to come to Fort George before reaching either Prince Rupert or Vancouver.

Because Fort George has a better strategic location than Spokane and is the GATEWAY to the Pacific coast of the GREAT RIVER COUNTRY, which covers an area of 3,000,000 acres of the best agricultural land in Canada.

Within a few years Fort George will be where Vancouver and Winnipeg are today. This is the time to act. The man with a prompt decision is the man who wins, and you have everything to win if you buy right now, because this summer will see a great activity at Fort George and the prices will advance rapidly.

Although there was delay in obtaining the official result of the twelve mile race for power boats, and there still seems to be a little doubt on the matter, the following is believed by boat owners in the race to be the position regarding the cup: First, George Frizzell's Laura F.; second, Captain Freeman's Narbethong. Fastest time over course, Evelyn.
