POLITICAL SURPRISE IN GT. BRITAIN

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Aug. 9.—Surprise is expressed today at the resignation of the master of Elbank, Right Hon. Alex. William Murray, chief Liberal whip and under parliamentary secretary, his desertion of Asquith at this time being commented on. He retires to enter business, it is said. The Unionist morning papers see in the retirement of the master of Elbank as a Liberal whip the coming downfall of the Asquith administration. Elbank has given up his seat in the House of Commons. The Liberals attribute his resignation to failing health.

ATTRACTIONS OF BERTA'S BILLIONS

"Whoops, My Dear," "Sausages," "Wild, Wild Rose," "I'd Like to Live in Loveland," "Can't You See I Love You," "Under the Pretzel Bough" and, best of all, the New York Winter Garden success, "Rum Tum Tiddle," are some of the song hits introduced in "Berta's Billions," which will be presented by the Bostonians at the Westholme tonight. A pleasant surprise is promised during the singing of "Rum Tum Tiddle." The plot of "Berta's Billions" is said to contain more good comedy situations than any other piece presented by this company, which is saying a great deal for the laugh provoking qualities of this bill.

On account of the many requests the "Dream Girl" will be repeated tomorrow afternoon instead of "The Ransom." Tomorrow night will be the final one of this engagement, and in order that all may hear their favorite songs sung by the Bostonians arrangements have been made whereby anything requested will be introduced into "Hoffman's Holiday" tomorrow night.

Requests may be left at the box office any time before six tomorrow.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That those "blooming" Roses seem still waiting to meet their Bannockburn.

That they didn't do their blooming in a window box either.

That the Callies have a mighty fine thistle crop coming up to match the thorniest of roses.

That if a 35-foot power boat can cross the Atlantic, there's still a chance for the "You Go I Go" to cross the Pacific.

That the juice seems coming cheaper still.

That the boat in harbor today was the "Dreadful," not the first Prince Rupert dreadnought.

That the Canadian Northern invasion of a G. T. P. stronghold is not so dreadful, in spite of appearances, as it may seem.

That the Mayor may or the mayor may not.

A Hermit for Five Years

WHAT would make the greatest impression on a man who had been shut away from human intercourse and denied the use of newspapers for five years—what would most forcibly attract his attention—on regaining the society of his fellowmen?

"Well," you say, "he is fairly certain to be interested in learning whether there's been a change of Government."

True, and probably he will show mild excitement if you can tell him there's been a big war in Europe. But it won't be until you get down to a recital of things that come closer to him, personally, that you'll bring him to his feet with eager questioning.

Tell him a mighty empire has fallen, and—so long as it isn't his empire—a drop curtain of highly embroidered indifference will mask his face.

But tell him the automobile has been so simplified that he can now buy one for the price of a horse and buggy, and he'll promptly bombard you with questions.

You see how it is: Newspapers carry a "news of merchandise" that is just as interesting, just as vital, as the "news of events" which the editors gather for us.

And, since this "news of merchandise" finds its only expression in the form of Advertising, must we not admit that the Advertising columns are quite as worthy of our serious attention as the scariest "scare head" or the most ponderous editorial?

Shut your eyes to Advertising—and you shut out the news of commercial progress and development—the news of things that make life worth the living.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.
