TIN MINING IN ALASKA AND THE GASOLINE DREDGER

Dredging for tin was begun in Alaska last year, on Buck Creek, on which are the best tin placers now known in the country. This stream is about four miles long and the gravel is probably nowhere over nine feet deep, while very few of the pebbles are over four to five inches in diameter. In the creek bed the content of stream tin, carrying in the neighborhood of 65 per cent. metallic tin, has been found to be as high as 400 pounds per cubic yard in rich spots, though the average is much lower. The dredge, which was built specially for shallow digging, has buckets holding 2½ cubic feet, and is driven by gasoline engines. It is equipped with two sluice boxes to provide for continuous operation, and digs from 950 to 1,000 cubic yards each 24 hours. Operations were started on September 10 of last year and continued until the season closed on October 15. The ground dug is said to have been yield represented between six and seven pounds of stream tin per cubic yard. The total output was 92 tons of stream tin averaging 66 per cent. tin, or an equivalent of 101 tons carrying 60 per cent. tin, and sold for $52,000.

AMERICANS THREATENED IN MEXICO

Douglas, Arizona, Aug. 29.—That Americans will be killed by the rebels after September 15, is a declaration from Colonel Emilio P. Campa, leader of Orozco's rebel army, who with 800 men is operation along the Southern Pacific of Mexico below Nogales, Arizona. The only alternative given by the rebel leader is the resignation of President Madero. American Consul Dye, of Agua Prieta, Mexico, wired the State department at Washington today that Campa had declared the state of Sonora would be devastated, unless the Mexican President resigned.

WHAT THE BOMBARDIER WILL DO

Boston, Aug. 30.—In an interview published in a London sporting journal, which has just reached this side, Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight champion, declares that, barring Palzer, there is no first-class white heavyweight in this country. He says that when he returns here in the fall he intends to go down the line, whipping McCarty, Stewart and the others in rotation. Wells also declares that Porkey Flynn, the Boston heavyweight, would have a chance to beat Palzer on points in a ten-round bout.
