

SHE RECOMMENDS "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Mrs. Corbett Read the Advertisement and Tried It

Avon, May 14th, 1914.
I have used 'Fruit-a-tives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. I saw 'Fruit-atives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them. The results were more than satisfactory, and I have no hesitation in recommending 'Fruit-atives'.
ANNIE A. CORBETT.

Time is proving that 'Fruit-a-tives' can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in all cases of Constipation and Stomach Trouble.

PROGRESS REPORT BY EXHIBITION SECRETARY

Seven years ago, Prince Rupert and the Northern Interior was the frontier. Today, there is a transcontinental railway cutting clear through the centre, towns with all modern conveniences, splendid farms, mines, a fishing fleet and other signs of civilization.

This is the year of the third annual exhibition of the Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Association, and from all indication the fair of 1915 bids fair to show the public that the man behind the plow, the miner, and the fisherman, have not been backward in answering the call of the Empire—for men at the front and greater production within the Dominion.

It is a proud moment for the farmer, miner or fisherman, when they can show the world and their fellow citizens how they, each in his own way, has enriched the resources of the Empire, and also the actual benefit which has accrued to them in doing so, both to themselves and their home district.

Progress is steadily proceeding in the matter of organization work. Prize lists showing a total of over $2,000 in cash, cups, medals, etc., have been distributed, and anyone desiring copies can obtain the same on application to the secretary at Prince Rupert. There are lots of prizes, in fact, prizes for all, and assuredly for those who can show results in the way of greater production.

Quite a number of the members of the association are at the front in France, in answer to the battle call of civilization, and it is therefore only right for those whose duty it is to stay at home to do "their little bit" by especial efforts towards increased production and the utilization of the district's natural wealth.

Splendid attractions for the entertainment of all, not forgetting the kiddies, are under way. Cooperation by the transportation companies as to special reduced rates and free return of exhibits has been promised, and the citizens of Prince Rupert are fully alive to the fact, that what advertises the district benefits the town, and are putting their shoulders to the wheel in an effort to give Prince Rupert's Fair visitors a right royal good time.
