parracks.

The arrest of Bessie Riley makes the fifth implicated in the case and under the same charge. It was made on Saturday evening by Warden Bailey. The complete evidence has been given in the Duff case and Magistrate Mc-Mordie will probably give his finding tomorrow morning. Then the four other cases will be proceeded with. L. W. Patmore is defending Hoskins and Bessie Riley. "All the five have been granted bail at $1,000, but so far Hoskins is the only one who has been able to raise sureties for that sum so is the only one who is not confined to the lock-up. Bessie Riley is confined to the Salvation Army
