prevalence of it in the city. The scaled bottles were different to that which he had opened at his bome before the theft. He had never seen this style of sealed King's Choice until the bottles had been produced at the pre-| iminary trial. He thought that | the cases on exhibit were the ame ones which had been taken from the Nathethong but he could not identify them as his own This had also been brought out at the preliminary trial. He was at the Narbethong at the time of Duff's arrest although he did not a hear the actual words which passed between the policeman and accused. Others present at the time were Sergt, Adams, Warden Bailey, Charles Miller, Jack Miller and Capt. Freeman. Jack Miller had no interest in the affair unless he had simply come along for the excitement, as it!

Matt Videck.

When Matt Videck was called Stuart Henderson raised an objection but was over-ruled. Videck described the two trips made to Jack Hoskins' shack with the cases given to him by Dick Leahy! in front of Lipsett's home. On his second trip out he had picked Jup ouff at Sixth and Tatlow but he had no ugnts on the car, Duff did not make any mention of the fact. He called at Bessie miley's house on the way back where he took a drink and got a pint with him. A week later he was again! called out to the sawmill and igansferred a number of cases from Hoskins' to the wharf, which was carried down by Duff, Miller and another man.

An application to admit the evidence of a witness, Miller, who is now at Ketchikan and who refuses to come here, was being discussed when the court rose for lunch.
