

HOW LONG WILL THE WAR LAST?

The War Against Health Is Quickly Ended By "Fruit-a-tives".

MRS. DEWOLFE

East Ship Harbour, N.S.
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefit I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For years I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person and I am deeply thankful to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

Mrs. MARTHA DEWOLFE.
"FRUIT-A-TIVES", the medicine made from fruit juices, has relieved more sufferers from Headaches, Constipation, Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Skin Troubles than any other medicine. 30c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TIME TAKING ITS REVENGE ON BORDEN GOVERNMENT

before, Mr. Casgrain, the new Postmaster General, being an old-line Conservative after Premier Borden's own heart.

Apparently what is aimed at is good riddance of a number of embarrassing associates. It transpires that though the government choked the Nationalist leaders with butter, it couldn't do the same thing with the Nationalist gospel in Quebec, where two fierce apostles still survive in the persons of Henri Bourassa and Armand Lavergne.

There is no reason to doubt

Mr. Lavergne's statement that he and Mr. Bourassa could have been cabinet ministers in the Borden government four years ago. It was the government's policy to kill all the Nationalist leaders with kindness, but Lavergne and Bourassa refused to be killed. It is not to their discredit that they put their principles above reward of office and money. These two men have sought to keep the flame alive in Quebec, but they have sought to do it openly, not clandestinely, as certain Nationalist members of the Borden cabinet are said to have done. At any rate the Nationalists' campaign against recruiting, secretly aided and comforted from within, has been very displeasing to the Borden government which decided to administer a check.

This explains Major General Sir Sam Hughes' offer to Armand Lavergne, the offer to give him command of an overseas battalion if he would take it. This offer Mr. Lavergne declined, not without adroitness. His answer was such that he left it all up to Sir Sam whether Armand Lavergne should be a martyr or not. This, by the way, is the first time Sir Sam has been called upon to play the diplomat, but as this was a coupe de theatre, he was naturally chosen to deliver the blow. Anything in the way of a blow comes easy to Sir Sam.

Meanwhile the outstanding feature is that the Borden government is not so sweet on its Nationalist allies as it once was. On occasion it even administers a rebuke, though slyly withal. When a government has a war on its back its peace affiliations may cause it a lot of trouble.—H. F. Gadsby.
