"LILLIAN'S HUSBANDS" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic tonight has a top-notch show, including a great 3-act comedy entitled "Lillian's Husbands." It is the story of a wealthy girl whose guardian wants to marry her. She and her school friends lead poor old "guardy" a terrible dance, in which some of the scenes are funny in the extreme.

"The Little Engineer" is another of those delightfully bright railroad dramas, with the adventurous Helen in the lead. "The Vulture," a story of London society, is the finest item on the bill, and is claimed to be alone worth the price of admission. It deals with the adventures of a clever actress who has been turned down by the leaders. Incidentally she plays havoc amongst the gentlemen. "All Stuck Up," one of the funniest of comedies, completes a great show.

A man may be a hero as a lover, but seldom as a husband.

Local News Notes

Wm. Angle has announced himself as an aldermanic candidate.

The mixed freight and passenger from the east arrived yesterday afternoon at 2.15.

There is one bond of unity in the city, in that all are in favor of serial bonds as compared to sinking fund bonds.

It is rumored that Jimmie Russell, who went to the front with the first contingent, is on a fair way for a commission.

Mitchell & Currie have received a contract to erect a warehouse for the Imperial Oil Company at their wharf at Hays Cove.

Prince Rupert Nautical Academy scored another success yesterday, when D. J. Russell passed his examination for captain's certificate.

J. G. Stirrat, who arrived from Vancouver yesterday, has secured a contract for the removal of the ledge of rock in front of the slip at the drydock.

George Kerr said last night that the $5,000 worth of telephone wire which is lying around the city could be sold today for $9,000. Why not sell it for $9,000 and buy a supply when it is needed at normal prices, George?

In the Letter Box

Mr. Editor:—I see Mayor Newton is again seeking election on the lines of "Impartiality, practicability and economy." I claim he has been a miserable failure in all three. An instance of his impartiality is the appointment of the deputy returning officers. There are two from the Sons of England, two from the Sons of Scotland, and one Socialist, and only one of the five is a ratepayer. Some of them would not know an Indian if he came to vote. At that, all five are working more or less, and many of the real old-timers here are right up against it and away behind in their taxes. I met one a few days ago who had spent his last cent before Christmas at the grocery store. He is a strong, able-bodied man with a record of eight years in Prince Rupert and 30 years in B. C. He has been trying for two months to get a little work from the city. If he had been a foreigner or owed a big grocery bill, he would have no trouble.

As for economy, Mayor Newton cannot name a city in Canada of double the population where there is so much money spent or wasted, both in salaries and in material which is littered all over the city. Bylaws passed long ago and taxes collected for work never begun, like the Morse Creek bridge. The city hall staff could be largely reduced, as well as salaries, if we had a capable executive. If they can get aldermen in Toronto and Vancouver for $300 a year, there ought to be enough civic pride here, at a time when everyone is making sacrifices, to get a city council to act for one year without salary. There is no trouble to get capable men to serve on the board of trade or agricultural association without salary.

The Federal and Provincial governments have set the city a good example, and I hope the voters, in marking their ballots at this election, will skip any man who looks young and husky enough to wear the King's uniform.

Yours truly,
W. SIBBALD.

-FACT HUNGER-

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
