London Welcomes President

PRESIDENT WILSON GETS UNPRECEDENTED WELCOME ON ARRIVAL IN LONDON

WAS ONLY BLACK-COATED FIGURE IN GORGEOUS STATE PROCESSION THROUGH LONDON—GREAT CROWDS SURROUNDED BUCKINGHAM PALACE

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, Dec. 27.—The greatest moment of President Wilson's first day in England was when he stood with the King and Queen and Mrs. Wilson on the balcony of Buckingham Palace today, facing the multitude which stretched clear down the Mall to the Admiralty, half a mile distant and overflowed into St. James Park on one side and Green Park on the other. Only the corporals guard could hear the President's brief speech, but the people demanded that he show himself and gave him a greeting more clamorous than any other guest of nation has commanded within the memory of the oldest Londoners. The day's events constituted a tribute to the President. The official ceremonies included a reception by Dover Corporation and the Navy, the welcome at the station by the Royal family and the chief officials of the Empire. The state passage, through the heart of London were colored with touches of mediaeval pageantry, even to the crimson coated beef eaters from the Tower bearing Halberds which the British people cherish.

PRETTY WEDDING IN ANGLICAN RECTORY

Mr. Tom Silversides and Miss Millicent Thomas Married Last Evening.

SAILED FOR VANCOUVER ON HONEYMOON TOUR

A quiet and dainty ceremony was solemnized last evening at the home of Canon Rix, rector of the Anglican Church, when two of Prince Rupert's pioneer citizens Mr. Tom Silversides and Miss Millicent Thomas were united in wedlock. The affianced couple had intended to be wed at the Rectory, and slip away south on the steamer, but the Sons of England Society, and the Great War Veterans' Society, both of which the groom is a member, refused to have it so, and they turned up in force to the Rectory to see the knot securely tied. After the ceremony, a dainty supper was served by Mrs. Rix after which Mr. and Mrs. Silversides returned to the home of the bride's mother on Borden street, to further celebrate and cut the wedding cake. On their way to the steamer, they had to run the gauntlet of a host of friends who were gathered on the wharf, and they got a great send off. They will spend their honeymoon in the south, and on their return to town, will take up their residence on Sixth Avenue West.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Vancouver, December 27.—Walter C. Findlay, former commissioner under the Prohibition Act in B. C., is back in Vancouver and will be the principal witness at the inquiry before Justice Clement into the operations of the alleged whiskey ring today. Findlay, it is understood, has agreed to lay bare everything on the promise of immunity from further prosecution. He will tell the whole story. According to a report from Victoria, if Findlay had not voluntarily returned, he would probably have been arrested. Leaving Victoria nine days ago, he stayed several days in Seattle and then went to Portland, where it is said he used the name of "J. Z. White." He says he only imported one car of whiskey and that this is the first crooked act of his life. He claims to have no money.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Paris, December 27.—The United States Shipping Board has decided to create a permanent world organization for the purpose of handling the government's trade fleet with the greatest efficiency and effectiveness. "We will open at once offices in London, Paris and Rome," said E. N. Hurley, chairman of the board today. "From these centers," Mr. Hurley continued, "we will be directed ten or twelve other offices such as in Shanghai, Yokohama and Bombay in the east, Genoa in Italy, Buenos-Ayres, Valparaiso and Rio Janeiro in South America, and at Rotterdam and Antwerp. Take for example vessels bringing supplies to Belgium or France. It is of the greatest importance that we have a quick turn around. It may be of advantage to re-route the vessels on this side to India or South America."
