MADCAP MADGE AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Tonight at the Westholme, Olive Thomas, the most photographed girl in the world, appears as Madge Flower in a Thomas H. Ince Triangle Production. All the roguish bubbling joy of Manhattan is in her smile and her madcap escapades at the boarding school cause her expulsion. Immediately she joins her elder sister and mother at Palm Beach who have been trying to land a husband for six strenuous seasons. Here Madge shows that she had been rightly nicknamed, for in the events that follow her arrival she suddenly puts the fashionable colony in a tumult and drives her mother into hysterics.

The Grand Trunk steamer Prince John arrived from southern part of the Queen Charlotte Islands last evening and is today discharging a large consignment of canned salmon at the dock. She is leaving tonight again at eight o'clock for Massett and other Northern Island ports.

Mr. Joe Tracy, formerly of the Grand Trunk shops here, was among the passengers south-bound by last evening's boat. He will go as far as Seattle where he will now reside. Joe is a well known person around waterfront and railroad circles and his many friends will be sorry to hear of his departure for the south.

The Gurvich Transfer now have more teams at work and are prepared to give prompt delivery of coal, and quick service with transfer work.

Miss Roberta Sully, late of the G.T.P. audit office here, sailed last evening for Vancouver where she will reside with her parents. Miss Sully has been in the city for the last eight months and has made a host of friends. Last evening on making her way to the steamer some of the waiting friends of the bridal party mistook Miss Sully, who happened to carry a bouquet and also had an escort, in the gloom of the wharf and she was liberally sprinkled with rice and confetti before making her way to the gangway.

The second prize No. 1805 in connection with the raffle at Tite's furniture store has not yet been claimed. The first prize which was a brass bed was won by Mrs. Walter Scrimgeour holding ticket No. 3954. The doll as third prize was carried off by Miss Virginia C. Reil with ticket No. 2506.

If Cooks Could See the Factory

We would like to plan a great excursion to the plant, so every person who cooks could see the care the milk gets.

We would also like to show how carefully the milk is tested for richness and quality.

They could see the clean, sunlit buildings and scrubbed floors that would make a Holland housewife envious.

It is these things that give PACIFIC MILK its wholesome goodness.

WAR REGULATIONS ARE STILL IN FORCE

Notwithstanding that the fighting has practically stopped, the regulations issued from time to time are still in force in Canada. It is still necessary for exempted men to carry their papers, and all foreign born, their nationalisation papers, according to information given by Sergeant Adams, of the Dominion Police Dept.

Ben Self has proven himself to be something of a moss trooper these days. He left Prince Rupert last Thursday night and before his return to town on Wednesday had visited and accomplished his business in Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma and Camp Lewis, and only being absent from the city for five days.

VALHALLA DANCE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Last evening the St. Andrew's Hall presented a scene of great animation, when the Lodge Valhalla of the Scandinavian Society gave a dance. Harvey's orchestra was in attendance, and about fifty couples danced through the programme. The music was of the usual high standard, and it was with reluctance that the last number was played. There were many others present besides the dancers, and everyone had a good time.

D. D. Monroe, commissioner of the Land Settlement Board, passed through the city on Wednesday morning, arriving on the Prince George and leaving by the train for his home in Terrace.
