ANNUAL SPRING SALE OF WORK

Catholic Ladies Put on Successful Affair Yesterday Afternoon

The annual Spring sale of work held by the ladies of the Catholic Church took place yesterday at the Catholic Hall. Afternoon tea was served and was presided over by Mrs. E. W. Moersch, assisted by Mesdames S. K. Signe, J. Keefe and J. C. Gavigan. The home cooking booth, a very popular feature of the sale, was in charge of Mrs. J. J. Gillies. Presiding over the fancy work stalls were Mesdames D. W. Morrissey, J. M. Campbell, Hatcher and J. Pils. Looking after the candy booth occupied the attention of Mesdames M. P. McCaffery, G. W. Nickerson and G. Sweet who were kept busy all the afternoon dispensing the most delectable looking sweetmeats imaginable.

Prizes and Winners

The following were the prize-winners in the various drawings for prizes with the names of the donors:

$5.00 Gold Piece donated by Mrs. J. Griffith, Mrs. J. C. Gavigan.

Large fruit cake, donated by Mrs. D. W. Morrissey, Miss R. Astoria.

Pillow cases worked by Mrs. Silversides, Mrs. J. A. Smith.

Pillow cases worked by Mrs. L. McLaren, Miss P. Meagher.

Cambric, donated by Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

Silver meal fork, donated by Mrs. J. Meagher, Mrs. Curtin.

Table runner worked by Mrs. D. W. Morrissey, Mrs. G. Hartnell.

Large box of candy, donated by Mesdames McCaffery, Moersch and Sweet, Mrs. D. C. Stuart.

Dance and Party

In the evening a very pleasant little dance and whist party was held, and altogether the affair was a great success, due largely to the indefatigable efforts of the various ladies who were responsible for the carrying out of the entire undertaking.

COOK ON MALASPINA FED UP ON HIS JOB

Brought into Police Court For Leaving Service Without Notice.

There was a somewhat novel case before Magistrate McMordie in the police court this morning, when the cook on the C. G. fishery protection cruiser Malaspina named McKinney appeared to answer a charge of refusing to go on duty.

This was the technical and official way of stating the fact that the gentleman in question was fed up, wanted to quit and did not care whether the crew had any dinner or not. The case occupied the entire morning, being finally adjourned till next Thursday for the decision of the magistrate.

From the evidence of Captain Newcombe in command of the Malaspina it appeared that the whole matter hinged on the fact as to whether the accused had the power to leave the government service upon the giving of forty-eight hours' notice. The captain said he had not, but was under contract for a year. McKinney is out on bail and will not return to the ship, but will merely await the arrival of next Thursday, to learn whether he has to suffer, during the year, for his arbitrary decision to let the captain and crew of the good ship Malaspina go without the undoubted advantages of his skill and ability as a master of the culinary art. L. W. Palmer appeared for the defendant.

SELF-SACRIFICE AMONG LEPROUS OF INDIA

LONDON, May 21.—A story of heroic self-sacrifice and devotion has reached England from the leper village of Chhandag, India, where Mary Reed, a solitary white woman missionary, is giving her life to ministry to the suffering of her fellow lepers.

News of her isolated life was brought back by Mr. Oldrieve, organizing secretary of the Mission to Lepers, who has just returned from a 70,000-mile journey, visiting all the leper colonies in India.

Thirty years ago Miss Reed went into this desolate spot in the Himalayas, 6,000 feet above the sea level, offering herself to the leper cause. Although a victim of the malady, she is still able to carry on her spiritual work among those afflicted like herself.

Miss Reed seldom sees white people for her station is eighty miles from the nearest railway line. There are 46 women lepers in the community and 49 men in the men's refuge a short distance away.

According to Mr. Oldrieve, there are 200,000 lepers in India. "At present," he declared, "it is not right to say that any cure for leprosy has been found."

NETWORK OF AERIAL TRANSPORTATION

LONDON, May 21.—Almost daily extension of passenger and mail service by air is rapidly making Europe a network of aerial transportation lines.

Negotiations are now nearing completion for an airway from Berlin via Riga to Moscow, and when this service is completed it will be possible to travel by air from London to Moscow, a distance of nearly 2,000 miles.

Berlin already is connected with London by the Dutch service through Amsterdam. This Dutch branch also has inaugurated service between Paris and Amsterdam.

The existing London-Paris service connects at Paris with the airway to Warsaw which goes by way of Strasbourg and Prague.

The Franco-Rumanian Air Service Co., which is responsible for this airway, has obtained concessions from the Austrian and Rumanian governments and hopes shortly to open an airway that will connect London through Paris to Constantinople.

MEXICO PROPOSES BIG EXPENDITURE BUILDING OF NAVY

MEXICO CITY, May 21.—A naval building program calling for an expenditure of a sum equivalent to $100,000,000 spread over a period of ten years has been outlined by the Department of Army and Navy. It will be submitted to congress soon.
