

BRITISHERS ALL CAN GET WORK

So Says Superintendent of Immigration in Regard to Reports to Contrary

WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—"I consider the reports that British harvest workers have been lured to Canada under false pretenses and left jobless, to be mischievous, misleading, inaccurate, and liable to do incalculable harm, as such stories will no doubt be reproduced in Old Country papers and will be a black eye for Canada. They are liable to interfere seriously with the regular immigration to this country, and make it impossible to secure harvest workers from Great Britain should their services be required again."

This was the keynote of a statement made yesterday by Major L. F. Howard, superintendent of immigration for western Canada, in commenting on published reports that British harvesters are being left stranded and jobless in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The same newspaper reports charged that the plans for bringing the harvesters had been made with the aid of the government. Respecting this phase of the matter, Major Howard said:

"I do not know who was responsible for the scheme to bring these workers to Canada; certain it is that the matter was not decided as alleged at a repre-tative meeting in Winnipeg early this summer of representatives of the government, other transportation concerns and employment officials." While I am personally inclined to think the importation of these harvest workers was a good idea, I knew nothing about it until the first groups were on the way."

Blind Man's Buff

EVEN in this age of enlightenment some folks spend their money blindly. They buy with their eyes shut. They grope in the dark as truly as if their eyes were bandaged.

And all the time a powerful light is being thrown on the very things they need and want!

Advertising is a beacon to guide you in buying. It shows you what to buy--where to buy--and when to buy. At the same time, it protects you against fraud and inferiority.

Merchants and manufacturers who advertise deliberately focus thousands of eyes upon their wares. Their values must be honest and their prices right, or they could not advertise successfully.

Don't play blind man's buff with the elusive dollar. Spend a few minutes each day running through the advertisements in this paper. Then buy the products that have proved up in the light of advertising.
