ANNUAL BAZAAR OF CHRIST CHURCH AT ANYOX SUCCESSFUL

Over $400 Raised at Event In Elks Hall

ANYOX, Nov. 27.—The Ladies' Aid of Christ Church scored a social as well as a financial success when they held their annual bazaar and dance in the Elks' Hall, which was kindly loaned for the occasion. From the moment when the doors opened early in the afternoon until shortly after midnight, the sale and dance continued, and considerably over four hundred dollars was made, over and above all expenses incurred. The committee of ladies having the affair in hand left nothing undone to meet the approval of everyone who attended, gaily decorated booths calling attention to the wares on sale.

The tea rooms were exceptionally well patronized and did a land office business. This feature was presided over by Mrs. Jenkinson, who had a number of young assistants pouring tea. At the doll booth, Mesdames Selfe and Henderson were in charge; fancy work, Mesdames Kribbs, Wilkinson and Wilson; home cooking, Mesdames Eve, Vincent and Hart; candy stall, Mrs. Kelley and Miss Grogan; fish pond, Mesdames Booth, Foxley and Hawke.

Added novelties were the mirror drawing, butterfly and puzzle contests. These were in charge of Mrs. Hotson, who had as her able assistants Mrs. Crane and Miss Wade. This trio of guessing and drawing novelties furnished considerable amusement and were largely patronized, among the winners being Mrs. McIntyre and Stuart McLachlan.

Then there were the raffles, which are so successful in connection with church bazaars. Dolls, candy and a monster Xmas cake were provided to tempt the chance-taker, as well as a bean-guessing contest. The Xmas cake which was a real work of art was made and donated by R. W. Clayton. It was won by E. Simpson. The fancy dressed doll, raffled by Miss Owens, was won by Mrs. Wenerstrom; the basket of candy by Mrs. Champion; while Miss Owens was the closest guesser to the number of beans in the bottle. Altogether this affair of the Ladies' Aid was a most enjoyable one, and a credit to all concerned.
