INDIAN LIQUOR CASE POLICE COURT TODAY

Native Charged With Possession and White Men With Supplying

As the result of a raid by Sergeant McGlinchey and Dominion Constable Watkinson at 1 a.m. on Sunday morning at the Mochida Rooms, Fraser Street, E. Wesley, an Indian, Joe Rowat, Donald Smith, and Chas. Scott appeared in the city police court this morning before Magistrate McClelland.

Upon searching the premises the constables found one bottle of Roderick Dhu, and one bottle of Rob Roy whiskey, together with seven full bottles of beer, and 21 empty beer bottles in room 27. As a consequence E. Wesley, an Indian, was charged with having liquor in possession, while Joe Rowat, Donald Smith and Chas. Scott were charged with supplying it. The case was adjourned until 3 this afternoon.

SIR NEVILLE CUNLIFFE WAS IN PRINCE RUPERT

Sir Neville Cunliffe, of London, England, passed through the city yesterday en route to Vancouver and left last night for the south on the steamer Prince George. Sir Neville, who holds various properties in northern British Columbia, was in Prince Rupert thirteen years ago and remembers Capt. Saunders, of the 500 Digby marine station, and Barney Johnson, the Vancouver tug owner. Sir Neville stopped off at all the big cities en route to the Pacific Coast and will return to the Old Country via Vancouver.

Major R. M. Taylor, district engineer, and P. W. Anderson, road superintendent of the provincial public works department, returned last night on the Chelmsford from a trip to Bella Coola on departmental business.

Miss Allison, who has been visiting in the city, left for her home in Calgary on the east-bound train last night.
