"EMPTY HANDS"

Adapted from the popular novel by Arthur Stringer. The drama of a man and a woman, the man a product of outdoor life, the woman bred amidst the luxuries of a city, who find themselves lost in the Northern wilderness, empty-handed. A photo-play of many big scenes. Handsome men, lovely girls, the society ballroom, the swimming pool, cave-man life amidst the scenic glories of the Canadian woods, shooting the rapids, a rescue by aeroplane, all this and much more is to be found in this great picture of love and adventure.

Strong cast—Jack Holt, Norma Shearer, Charles Clary, Ward Crane, Hank Mann, Gertrude Olmsted and many others.

HAL ROACH COMEDY—"JACK FROST."

HOARD OF ROMAN SOLDIER IN LONDON

Coins Dun up Have been in Ground 1600 Years: Minted in 320 A.D.

LONDON, Dec. 19. — Some time in the fourth century a soldier in the Roman army occupying London—or it may have been an Imperial paymaster—hid in the ground of what is now Russell Square a hoard of about 500 small coins. There they lay for perhaps 1,600 years, until a working man, digging out the foundations of the future Royal Hotel, turned up a heavy lead box. It was crammed with small bronze coins about the size of a sixpence, the centenionalis, a bronze coin originally covered with a thin coat of silver, of which there are some traces. The British Museum experts found that the coins belong to the date of the great Constantine and his family, and were minted on the Continent round about 320 A.D. It was the kind of money in which the Roman soldiers were paid.

TO LEASE HIMSELF

BOSTON, Dec. 20. — Cuvier Grover Flint, a grandson of John Fiske, historian, and a son of Grover Flint, author, has offered to lease himself for a year for $1,000. He has inserted an advertisement in the newspapers under the heading "Slave" which reads: "Male, white, 24, sound, intelligent, gentle; belonged to aristocratic family; lease by the year, $1,000."

FAMOUS OLD BANK BUILDING IS CLOSED

Magnificent New Seven Storey Structure Will Replace it in 1935

LONDON, Dec. 20.—(Canadian Press).—The passing of the old Bank of England Building, which has seen some of the most stirring sights in London's ancient and chequered history, was sounded when the Exchange clock struck 12 on a recent Saturday and the great double iron doors at main entrance closed, not to re-open for at least 10 years.

The housebreakers have begun their task of demolishing the internal buildings of the Bank to make way for the magnificent 7-storey structure to be completed in 1935. For the last few weeks daily consignments of papers and ancient records have been removed to temporary quarters in Finsbury Circus.

The wonderful interior of the Bank by Sir John Sloane will remain untouched. The foundations will be laid 40 feet down in the ground, and three floors, holding the great new vaults, will be built below the street level. Five floors will rise 80 feet above the ground, and two more, slightly set back, another 20 feet. It is expected the foundations will be commenced in the spring of 1925.

Holeproof Hosiery

GIVE IT THIS CHRISTMAS—YOU'LL MAKE NO MISTAKE

Whether you're choosing a gift for wife, sweetheart, sister, mother—choose Holeproof. You can't go wrong. Every woman has a weakness for beautiful hosiery. And most women prefer Holeproof—for its durability as well as its beauty. It outwears other hosiery and outlasts most other gifts. Yet its daintiness makes it appropriate for Christmas giving.
