WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight Only, 7 and 9 p.m.

"Salomy Jane"

The George Melford Production

An adaptation of Bret Harte's famous story. A stirring romance of the days when the West was a world of wild adventure. A tale of the times when the stage- coach galloped into the muzzles of guns and masks of quick trigger "stick-up" men; when the Vigilantes were the law and a rope and tree brought swift justice. Set amidst the scenic grandeur of California, the golden state. Superb cast includes Maurice Flynn, Jacqueline Logan, George Fawcett, Charles Ogle, James Neill, Louise Dresser and many others.

"Felix in the Bone Age." International News.

Admission 35c and 10c.

DANCE AT AUDITORIUM WAS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The Labor Day dance held last night in the Auditorium was very successful. About 130 people indulged in dancing to the melodious strains of Art Easson's orchestra until the early hours. Refreshments were served at midnight under the direction of Mrs. Carroll. The moonlight dances were a feature of the evening. L. J. Marren acted as floor manager. Another dance will be held on Friday night.

SUCCESSFUL SALE BY THE PYTHIAN SISTERS

On Saturday the Pythian Sisters held a tea in a store building down town which proved most successful, the sum of $45 having been added to the treasury through it. The following were in charge of the various departments:

Home cooking, Mrs. T. J. Shenton and Mrs. F. W. Hart.
Sewing, Mrs A Iverson.
Tea, Mrs. Hoss.
Raffles, Mrs. E. Large.
Fortune telling, Mrs. Clarke.

Several raffles were won as follows:

Cake donated by Mrs. Shenton, won by Miss Skattebol.
Camisole donated by Mrs. Hoss, won by Mrs. S. Batcher.
Jardinere donated by the lodge won by Mrs. C. Taylor.

Miss Myra Kinslor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kinslor, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Vancouver, returned home on the steamer Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards and family, who have been residing for the past year at Hannah, are returning to the city shortly to resume their residence here in their home on Fourth Avenue East.

The fire department responded to six alarms during the month of August. Little damage resulted. One alarm was caused by a smoke scare and there were three calls to the garbage dump on Park Avenue. Rubbish near a stove and a cigarette stub caused the other two fires.

LABOR DANCE WAS SUCCESS LAST NIGHT

Large Attendance at Elk's Hall Under Joint Auspices

The Labor Day dance held under the joint auspices of the Trades and Labor Council and B.P.O. Elks, in the Elks' Home last night was a distinct success. Some 165 couples enjoyed dancing until the early hours of the morning. Gawthorn's orchestra furnished the music for the first part of the dance being relieved at 11 o'clock by the Westholme orchestra. Refreshments were served at midnight. The dance was under the general supervision of Ben Self assisted by Frank Derry and Murray Fuller on the door; Chas. Folsom and Ald. S. D. Macdonald, masters of ceremonies; and Harvey Fraser, D. Sampson and Geo. Kerr in charge of refreshments.

C.N.R. Steamer Had Biggest List of Season Out of Vancouver This Trip

C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. Donald, arriving from the south at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, had the largest passenger list of the year out of Vancouver. Of the 150 on board fifty left the vessel at Ocean Falls. The majority of the balance were teachers returning to the city and district after having spent holidays in the south. There were several local passengers but few tourists.

BALL AT SMITHERS WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL

SMITHERS, Sept. 2—Rounding off a most successful fair, the ball held in the Smithers Town Hall on Friday night was a marked success. The floor was full at every dance with 250 dancers, Gray's orchestra supplied the music which was splendid.

Visitors from all over the valley were present.

Just before the supper waltz the prize drawing was made when J. McMillan won the Ford car.

Dancing was kept up until nearly 3 a.m.

How the West Moves

Mrs. W. A. W. says she can remember when British Columbia products were not counted as being equal to eastern made things.

Now she finds that Pacific Milk and certain other foods are better than any the East can produce.

Nature gives us finer quality milk. We retain the natural goodness and purity of flavor.
