RUM RUNNER SPEEDWAY IS TOTAL LOSS

KU KLUX KLAN SHOOTING AFFRAY AT HERRIN RESULTS IN FOUR DEATHS

Liquor Runner was Burned Just off Cape Flattery but All Her Crew off in Boats and Saved

VICTORIA, Jan. 26.—The auxiliary schooner Speedway, 900 tons, bound for Buenaventura caught fire and blew up and sank 15 miles off Tatoosh at 3:30 p.m. yesterday. Captain Sinclair, the second mate, and five men were picked up by the freighter Manilani bound from Seattle to Honolulu early Sunday afternoon. They were later transferred to the lightship Swiftsure.

Another boat which left the burning vessel containing seven more members of the crew were missing all day Sunday but in the evening were reported to have landed with their boat at Pachena Bay and were being taken care of at Banfield. They will be taken off today by the Canadian patrol boat Armenieres, which also took aboard the men on the Swiftsure and will bring them to Esquimalt.

The Speedway had an extra cargo of fuel and it is believed this in some way became ignited. All the members of the crew are residents of Vancouver and district.

The vessel cleared from Victoria Thursday with a large consignment of liquor, bound presumably for Columbia with the expectation of losing her cargo before reaching that country. On arriving outside the straits she met with heavy seas and was brought back by the same tug which took her out. A survey was made of the vessel and minor repairs made before she started again.

The Speedway was of nine hundred tons, with a cargo valued at $300,000. The steamer is said to have been insured by John Bonner, of Vancouver, who is registered as the official owner, but his solicitor states that Mr. Bonner disposed of the vessel to others, whom he was unable to name. The Western Freighters, a firm engaged in central American trade, were the charterers for the voyage. The cargo consisted of 48,000 cases of liquor consigned to Buenaventura, Colombia.

The late Mrs. Hilchev is survived by her husband M. A. Hilchev, and four daughters and two sons, Mrs. G. H. Tupper and Miss E. Hilchev, two daughters and a son residing in Boston, and a son residing in Halifax.

ANGLICANS WILL JOIN PRESBYTERIANS SUNDAY IN OPENING OF CHURCH

At the Anglican Church last night Archdeacon Rix announced that on Sunday evening next there would be no service in their church in order that all might have an opportunity to attend the opening of the new Presbyterian Church. He said they were all pleased to know of the success of the Presbyterians and he intended to be present himself on the occasion of the opening.

A request from the Indians of the Babine Lake country for co-operation in building a road from a point on the Cronin Mine road to a point on the shore of Babine Lake about half way between the old and new Hudson's Bay forts was brought up. The Indians propose to use this new route in bringing out their catch of furs and taking in supplies during the winter months.

The new road required will be about 45 miles and the Indians are prepared to do the work themselves if help is given to purchase tools and supplies.

They have already taken the matter up with the Indian Agent and Father Ayland, and this meeting recommended that their request be placed before the next general meeting of the Board of Trade.

Products supplied by the Canadian National Railway system from territory adjoining the railway in northern B.C. will be the feature of a banquet to be held in the Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton, by Western Canada Fair Boards, on January 29. The fair boards represented will be those from Regina, Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, and Brandon, which comprise the Glass A boards.

On Saturday the Royal Fish Company shipped a quantity of halibut, crabs and clams for the banquet and turnips and several other varieties of vegetables will be secured from Terrace and other interior points. Herrin, Illinois, Scene of a Shooting Affray Between Members of Ku Klux Klan and the Sheriff

HERRIN, Ills., Jan. 26.—The bodies of Glenn Young, Ed. Forbes and Homer Warder, all Ku Klux Klan liquor raiders, and deputy sheriff Ora Thomas await burial here today as a result of a hotel lobby shooting melee on Saturday night.

The affair was so fast and furious that no definite explanation is known. Thomas was the avowed enemy of Young and was widely known as the "man killer" as the result of sensational activities in law enforcement, which several times ended in charges against him, ranging from assault to homicide.

The town has been the scene of many a clan and anti-clan battle, union and anti-union struggle and dry and anti-dry disturbance. The place is quiet today with the militia in control.

METHODIST GIRLS CHARGE OF SERVICE

Number Take Part in Pageant Before Crowded Congregation

The Methodist church was crowded to the doors last night, the occasion being a special service in charge of the Canadian Girls in Training. The church was prettily decorated in suitable floral effects.

Miss Catherine Harvey, president of the C.G.I.T., occupied the chair and Miss Haddock, deaconess, led in the prayers and scriptural readings. Miss Nellie Gurvieh gave a reading on "The Mission of Jesus," and Miss Winnifred Dibb rendered a vocal solo. Pianoforte solos were played by Miss Victoria Krieky and Miss Ella Steen.

C.G.I.T. Pageant

The closing part of the service took the form of a pageant depicting the work of the C.G.I.T. and its usefulness in the community. The girls were dressed to represent the different phases of life, both past and present, showing how the fourfold program fitted into the physical, mental, religious and social needs of the girl growing into womanhood. The whole thing was splendidly carried and much credit is due to Miss Haddock, who trained the girls for their respective parts. The pageant was brought to a close by the C.G.I.T. chorus singing their special song.

The individual parts of the pageant were taken as follows: A girl of to-day, Miss Evelyn Dubly.

Spirit of womanhood, Miss Jean Mackay.

Girl of yesterday, Miss Winnie Hill.

Girl of tomorrow, Miss Mary Allistone.

The virtues Truth, Beauty, Love, Purity, Sympathy and Canadian Girl in Training, were represented by the Misses Ada Menzighor, Florence Annesley, Vera Smith, Wade Mussallum, Dorothy Edgar, and Catherine Irving respectively.

The four standards of the C.G.I.T., Health, Ambition, Worship and Service were represented respectively by the Misses Helen Sim, Hazel Richardson, Nellie Wilson and Dorothy Dean.

WOULD WELCOME LIBERALS BACK

Newspapers Comment on Elevation of Asquith and Fortune of Party

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Interspersed with wholehearted expressions of esteem for H. H. Asquith, the newspapers, commenting on his elevation to the peerage as Earl of Oxford, speculate on the fortunes of the Liberal party and the general political movement.

The Times believes much is to be said for those who would welcome Harvey, president of the C.G.I.T., occupying the chair and Miss Dibb, deaconess, led in the prayers and scriptural readings. Miss Nellie Gurvieh gave a reading on "The Mission of Jesus," and Miss Winnifred Dibb rendered a vocal solo. Pianoforte solos were played by Miss Victoria Krieky and Miss Ella Steen.

Everything that was sealed when the tomb was closed remained intact but the priceless pall of the sarcophagus which was left outside in a thin wooden shed, deteriorated.
