WONDERFUL BALL GAME

Rotary Club Beat Gyro by 14 to 13 Yesterday Afternoon

The Rotary-Gyro baseball game was not the burlesque show which many anticipated although the score was large and the younger men won by a narrow margin of 14 to 13. In all, the Gyros used four pitchers and many other substitutes on their team which brough up their total number of players to about 15. Possibly the feature of the game was Consul Wakefield's pitching for the first three innings when he had the Gyros eating from his hand. He was given good support by (Ty Cobb) Munro and (Hans Wagner) McLeod who fielded and batted well over the 1000 mark with fine exhibitions of base sliding and base running thrown in for good measure.

For the Gyros, South Paw Nelson, and Canary Campbell held forth on the mound at first and gave good satisfaction, although they tended to be a little wild in the pinches. (Tris Speaker) McNaughton on third base lived up to his reputation and played a good game both with his hands and with his voice.

The early stages of the game was all Rotary, who easily held their opponents in check and piled up a good tantalizing score. In the third inning, the Gyro team went up in the air badly and before Manager Eddie Mann, could pull his kite to earth the Rotarians had piled up a lead which was difficult for the "young uns" to overtake.

Napoleon's Army

The Gyro lineup resembled something like Napoleon's army and, apart from Lionel Holtby, Leo Waugh and a few others, the whole club was thrown into the breach to stem the tide. The Rotary team was the same throughout, and when George Munro was injured in the fourth he was relieved by Sid Johnson who held down third sack up to this time. "Dazzy" Vance stepped into the box for the Rotarians when the Gyros threatened in the fourth and while he did not equal the strike out record he served up a few twisters which took the cover off the ball.

Joe Scott umpired and the teams lined up as follows:

Rotary—E. A. Wakefield, p; G. Munro, c.; H. Little, 1b; N. Watt, 2b; S. Johnson, 3b.; G. Bryant, lf,; W. Vance, cf.; and W. Fisher, rf.

Gyros—R. McNaughton, 3b.; S. K. Campbell, p. and rf.; Joe Greer, 2b.; Robertson, 2b.; M. Gonzales, 1b.; W. Cruikshank, c; C. Balagno, cf.; W. Nelson, p.; M. M. McLachlan, lf.; R. Harlow, rf.; Charlie Starr, c.; H. McEwen, cf.; and Eddie Mann who played a good game on the sidelines.

Sport Chat

Friends of the late Pancho Villa, world's champion flyweight boxer who died on Tuesday in San Francisco, at the age of 24 years, estimate that he leaves an estate of less than $10,000, although he earned upward of $115,000 in his colorful career of six years in the ring. He was born in Iloilo, Philippine Islands, August 1, 1901, of parents of moderate circumstances, and his baptismal name was Francisco Guilledo. He had an engaging personality, and no idea of the value of money. After coming to America he maintained an expensive establishment in an exclusive district of New York and, although he was not given to dissipation, he acquired expensive taste and, as might be expected, spent his money freely. Villa was not frugal. His was a case of "easy come, easy go," as in the old days of professional athletics in various branches.

Failure of Miss Lillian Harrison, Argentine girl swimmer, who swam fifteen miles before being taken out of the water in her attempt to cross the English Channel was not unexpected. It is a gigantic task for a strong man, specially prepared. No woman has ever succeeded in swimming the twenty miles between England and France, although several have gone greater distances elsewhere. Miss Harrison did approximately fifteen miles before succumbing to the cold, and probably found the last mile more difficult than the others that preceded it. She selected the Cape Gris-Nez to Dover route, while the Englishman, Webb, who crossed in 1875, swam from Dover to Calais. Burgess of England from Dover to Calais in 1911, Toth crossed in 1923 from Gris-Nez to Dover, Sullivan in 1823 from Dover to Calais, and Tiraboschi from Calais to Shakespeare Cliff in the same year.

Shortly after his return to New York from Europe last week, Jack Dempsey entered into a tentative agreement with Tex Rickard to box Harry Wills, but stipulated that the bout be held in 1926. At the same time the champion admitted that he and Jack Kearns had had a disagreement, and that Kearns was only nominally his manager. It was evident from the moment that Kearns took over the management of Mickey Walker and announced a severance of relations with Dempsey in their California realty ventures that there was something wrong somewhere between the king of the heavies and his manager. Dempsey may decide to wait until after Sept. 1, 1926, before taking on Wills, that being the date on which the Kearns-Dempsey contract expires. In the meantime Dempsey may take on some less formidable apponents, in an effort to regain his form, after his long lay-off since the Firpo battle. The champion is now in his thirty-first year, and Wills is in his thirty-fourth.

SONS OF CANADA TASTE DEFEAT

Sawmill Won Baseball Game Last Night by 5 to 3

The baseball game last evening between the Sons of Canada and the Sawmill was won by the Sawmill by a score of 5 to 3, it being the Sons' first loss. The match was one of the best so far this season from the fans' point of view, and Lidstone, who was in the box for the Mill, turned in one of the best games of his career. Schlenker for the Sons pitched a good game but, on the pinches, was not accorded support from his team. This accounted for some of the tallies of the mill who were ready to seize every advantage. The back stops on both teams played well and held the base runners on nearly every occasion. It was the brand of ball that called for the support of the fans and the Mill rooters did not hesitate to show their appreciation for their team's efforts. They also caused a little annoyance to the Sons' batters and, on more than one occasion, the Sons threatened to go up in the air but the steadiness of some of the older players held the team in check. The Sons were the worst offenders as far as errors were concerned and this, in large measure, accounts for the difference in the score.
