

WOULD MEET COMPETITION FROM CANADA

THAT IS U.S. OBJECT IN OFFERING
ALASKAN PULPWOOD LANDS FOR BIDS — WATER POWER AND TRANSPORTATION FAC-ILITIES

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 7. — (By Canadian Press).—The two largest timber sales ever offered by the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, are now being advertised for competitive bids. These are sales of pulpwood in Alaska, each for five billion board feet. Announcement of these offerings is made by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine. One sale is in the northern part of the Tongass National Forest not far from Juneau, and the other is in the southern part of the forest near Ketchikan. The establishment of at least a 200-ton paper mill in Alaska is required as a condition of each sale, with opportunity to expand to 500 tons. The advertisements are in response to applications for timber and water power permits filed by a number of companies or groups of responsible individuals.

In the eastern United States, scarcity of available timber close to cheaply-developed water power has prevented the growth of paper-making in recent years and has led to the establishment of new mills in Canada and Newfoundland instead of within the United States. The offerings of Alaska timber, he pointed out, will result in mills on United States soil, using United States timber and supplying United States paper users with a native product instead of an imported product.

"The purposes of the department in offering these sales," said Secretary Jardine, "are first of all to aid in the economic development of the territory by establishing large units of a new industry, using National Forest wood as its raw material; and secondly, to make that industry permanent by insuring a perpetual supply of timber. We invite and will protect the investment of capital necessary to establish large units of paper manufacture. At the same time, we must fully protect the public interest by getting fair compensation for the government timber. The sales are offered with all these purposes in mind."

Mr. Jardine said that southeastern Alaska has the timber, the water power and transportation facilities necessary for the development of a large paper manufacturing industry.

Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing

Mrs. F. Cade, Elmwood, Man., writes: "My little boy caught cold while out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and the next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them."

SUMMARY DISMISSAL OF NURSE AROUSES ASSOCIATION'S IRE

VICTORIA, Feb. 7.—The Graduate Nurses' Association of British Columbia passed the accompanying resolution at its meeting here on Saturday with regard to the recent dismissal of Miss Jessie Mackenzie by the Jubilee Hospital Board:

"Whereas it has been brought to the notice of the Registered Nurses' Association of B.C. that one of its members, namely, Miss Jessie F. Mackenzie, R.N., who far the past fourteen years has been actively engaged as superintendent of nurses at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria, B.C., has been summarily dismissed from this position, and

"Whereas this action has been taken by the board of directors of the hospital without due notice and without giving any reason therefore

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the B.C.G.N.A. desire to go on record as being astounded and indignant that a board of directors in whom the public have vested such authority and responsibility should adopt such a method in dealing with the superintendent of nurses after entrusting her for fourteen years with the care of their patients and the responsibility of their training school, and we do hereby make a formal protest against the lack of justice shown in this action by the said board."

A few weeks of married life have given Mme. Tetrazzini a deeper voice. At that rate Peggy Hopkins Joyce ought to be able to sing bass.
