campaign of 1924, the fact is the presidential campaign of 1928 will be well under way a year hence and the first presidential primaries will be held only a little more than a year from now. Of course, the presidential candidates and aspirants, and they are numerous. are not letting any grass grow under their feet in such circumstances.

Practically all of them are busy in a quiet way laying lines in the direction of votes for their nomination in

One of the interesting questions is seriously considered, though Baltimore, where Wodrow Wilson was nominated in 1912, might have a chance if it put in a formal invitation.

Indications are the 1928 campaign will resolve itself, in part at least, to Joe Yoe, 25; Lin Wong, 58; Yee Li, 19. democratic convention is quite likely to go to some of the middle western cities and a number of them, including Des Moines, Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cleveland, Detroit, Louisville and Denver are seeking it. Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purche sing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare--should make a habit of reading the ads.
