Man in the Moon

The snow is here at last and the children are happy.

The snow the snow, the beautiful,
That makes the children happy,
It helps the sale of rubbers and
Still keeps the coal men peppy.
It helps the sale of handkerchiefs
And makes the druggists work.
So here's a toast to the falling snow,
The sloppy snow, the dirty snow,
And the shovellers who shirk.

The Conservative is one who continues to suck his own thumb all through life.

The Liberal is one who attends to everybody's business but his own.

What I like about these modern days is that most of the singers just whisper.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 4, 1919

Seventy local vocalists appeared last night in the first recital of the newly formed Prince Rupert Society at the Westholme Theatre under the leadership of John E. Davey. The theatre was filled and the concert was a great success. Those appearing in solo roles were Mrs. M. Y. Aivazoff, Dr. R. W. Large, Mrs. William Miller, Alex Clapperton, George Waddell and J. H. McMillan. There were humorous recitations by J. C. Brady, W. E. Williams is president of the musical society and E. V. Ling was prominent in its organization.

The Indian Department in County Court before Judge Young yesterday successfully appealed against a decision of Magistrate Carss who dismissed a charge against a local bartender of selling liquor to Indians. A fine of $50 was imposed.

Frank Mobley, M. L. A. for Atlin, has been appointed chief Liberal whip in the Legislature.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Pledge of the Newlyweds

Fact and Fable Both

MARRIAGE Bells! There's a home to be planned, each room to equip and arrange, house plans to discuss, consultations with contractors, many stores to visit and many visits to stores.

To the newlyweds these are the spending days of a lifetime—days of joy and thrills buying for the home to be. But still another pleasure they have added to these memorable shopping hours—a pride in demanding first the products of their homeland.

"Because our mutual progress through the years to come depends on the prosperity of our country, we will build our house and make our home with the products of our local industries."—This is the pledge of the newlyweds.

SOUND ADVICE

Young married people will easily recognize the importance of the "Buy B.C. Products" idea. The prosperity of both depend on the young husband's progress in his vocation. As the demand for the manufactured articles of British Columbia increase so will the young husband's position be made more secure and his advancement more certain. Obviously we should demand first and always the B.C. Product.

This is the seventh advertisement of a series Authorized by the B.C. Products Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade in the interests of the manufacturers of British Columbia.
