Giving Vegetables New Frills If your family inclines to a diet of meat and bread and potatoes, you'll have to lure them into the vegetable habit by subtle, feminine wiles. Let your vegetables appear in new guises, their downright, honest virtues adorned and new flavors that your imagination can devise. Remember it isn't the girl with the commonsense shoes and the mannish tie that wins hearts.

High among the vegetables to which we owe allegiance is spinach. Rich in iron, rich in vitamins, it should be eaten much more often than it is. Yet somehow noses turn up at the word "spinach." I blame the cook. I wonder if she has served it au gratin, with a hollandaise sauce, as a salad with mayonnaise, or combined with onions or leeks and cream sauce in a most tempting

The Sauce Is the Secret

A fine cream sauce is times innumerable the making of a vegetable dish. There's practically nothing it doesn't go well with, practically nothing that doesn't take on added deliciousness—if your sauce is a really good one. I have a recipe that is really wonderful-richer, smoother, creamier, more delicious in flavor by far than the ordinary recipe. It's made with Carnation Milk.

Of course you know that Carnation Milk is more dependable—certain to be pure and sweet-which ordinary milk isn't always. But for Cream Sauces ularly advantageous. One is the double cream content of Carnation Milk, dinary milk.

Then there is its "homogenization."
"Homogenized" milk has all the cream globules broken up into very minute particles; these tiny cream particles distribute themselves all through the milk instead of rising to the top. Every drop of milk is rich in cream, and imparts its richness to the cooking in which it is used. In addition, "homogenization" gives a notable improvement to texture -sauces are creamier, cakes finer textured, ice creams smoother and richer. If you haven't tried Carnation Milk you are missing a really important cooking aid. Remember, it's just the purest of whole milk, evaporated to double richness and sterilized for safe keeping. Write for "My Hundred Favorite Recipes." It's free.
