Net Earnings of Gov't Road Three Times More Than Eight Years Ago

Sir Henry Thornton Tells Quebec Canadian Club Bright Story of Progress-First Class System Now

QUEBEC, March 26:-Notwithstanding lower revenues in 1930 due to world conditions and general depression, notwithstanding a greater mileage requiring maintenance, a lower scale of rates and a higher scale of wages, net earnings of the Canadian National Railways last year were three times greater than those of 1922, Sir Henry Thornton told the Quebec Canadian Club yesterday. This was due, the railway president said, to a sense of IS LAID TO responsibility to the public which owned the system and to the efficiency with which its operations were carried on.

The operating figures he gave, which excluded eastern lines, showed that gross revenues in 1922 were $223,627,371 in the first year as compared with $221,770,445 in 1930. The gross was, therefore about $2,-000,000 less. Expenses, however, were $17,000,000 less in 1930 than in 1922—$195,259,507 as compared with $212,906,671. Net earnings in 1930 were $26,510,938 as compared with $10,720,700 in 1922, an improvement of $16,000,000.

In the meantime a first class railway system was being constructed out of the chaos of a number of old dilapidated unconnected lines and the Canadian National system emerged as a transcontinental railway fully equipped for its great task to serve the public with intelligence bearers were Arthur Caravan, John and efficiency as well as integrity.
