The final games for the city senior and junior basketball championships will be played this evening. The C. N. R. A. won the first game of the series in the senior division and have a 13-point lead The Panthers will have to press hard all through the game to overcome that lead. As a result the game promises to be exceptionally thrilling. The Scouts have a bare two-point lead over the Japanese. Such a lead is negligible in a basto be the equal of the senior game in thrills, because these boys are well coached and play an excellent brand of ball. An exhibition ladies' game will precede the senior tussle.
