Oscar B. Sather, president of the Sons of Norway Lodge, was in the chair and he made suitable remarks in opening the proceedings. "O Canada" was then sung and the first number on the program of entertainment was a march by twenty five girls in Norwegian costume, led by Miss Inga Murvold. this being as attractive as it was unique. Community singing of Norwegian songs was enjoyed with Miss Olive Dybhavn accompanying at the piano. The play "A Scene in a Cafe." was then presented and it proved very entertaining. Taking part were Mrs. Gunnar Selvig, John Storseth, Mrs. Chris Jensen, Miss Astra Selfjord, M. Soreheim. Oscar Haveroy, T. Murvold and Gunnar Selvig.

Following the program, refreshments were served and the floors were cleared for dancing. Accordian music for dancing was furnished by Julius Welle and Chris Jensen and Oscar Sather was master of ceremonies. Dancing kept up in full swing until 3:30 a.m.

A feature of the proceedings was the presentation of prizes to girls who had taken part in the costume parade. First prize went to Helen for lawns, gardens, flowers and her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Stephens, at Skogmo, second prize to Lena Murvold and third prize to Magnhild HARDWARE. Storseth. Hjordis Skaland drew the lucky ticket in the drawing for a big Norwegian doll in costume, the winner being P. Johansen.

Mrs. Hans Underdahl was convener for the evening, other members of the committee in charge being Mrs. Chris Jensen, Mrs. Gunnar Solvig, Miss Astra Selfford. John Murvold Terloff Murvold, M. Sorheim. Oscar Haveroy, Mrs. O. Wick, Mrs. H. Sorensen and John Storeseth.

T. H. Johnson, president of the club, was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members.

Flavor

KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes have a delicious "wonder" flavor discovered by W. K. Kellogg and never successfully imitated by any one else.

Freshness

The minute Kellogg's leave the toasting ovens, the flakes are completely sealed in a WAX-TITE bag which is placed inside the red-and-green package and keeps every flake fresh and perfect. It's a patented Kellogg feature!

Value

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are among the most economical and convenient of foods. Guaranteed by W. K. Kellogg: "If you do not think them the very best corn flakes you ever tasted, return the empty red-andgreen package and we will refund your money." Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario,
