HOAX IS REVEALED

HOPEWELL, May 17:-Col. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of New Jersey state police, announced today that John Curtis Hughes, shipbuilder and one of the Norfolk negotiators in the Lindbergh kidnapping case, had written a complete confession that all the people with whom he had told of negotiating at sea and all the boats on which he said he had met them were creations of his own imagination.

TRENTON, N.J., May 17:- Despite the assassination of Premier Inuome criticism which has been voiced at his handling of the case, Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the New Jersey state police, will continue to direct the investigation into the kidnapping and murder of Charles Augustus Lindbergh jr., it was announced yesterday. The offer of the United States secret service of assistance has been accepted but its operations will be under

Col. Schwarzkopf's direction. It was said last night that officers were hot on the trail of a gang of five men and one woman, who are supposed to have received the $50,000 ransom which was paid lover on behalf of Col. Lindbergh and who are suspected of the kidnapping and murder. Arrests are expected momentarily, it was stated. Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon, who paid the $50,000 over at a rendezvous in the Bronx, is personally assisting the police in efforts to identify the abductors. The search was also being carried on by coastguard vessels for the ship which Norfolk intermediaries claimed to have met to negotiate with representatives of the supposed kidnappers and which since the finding of the baby's body was said to have dropped out of sight.
