Prince Rupert Club Beat C. N. R. Yesterday Afternoon

The members of the Prince Rugames were played, the visitors taking the long end of the play by winning fifteen out of twenty-four events, leaving nine for the railway

In the ladies' doubles the visitors took five out of six events; in the

On the whole the games were keenly contested in a spirit of friendly rivalry and all participants and visiting fans thoroughly enjoyed the play which was climaxed with serving of refreshments by the railway ladies under the capable direction of Mrs. J. H. Horton and MINISTERIAL Mrs. F. M. Davis.

In order that the schedule laid down could be carried out within the time set the games were limited to fifteen points straight, the best two out of three winning the event. Rev. C. D. Clarke is Elected Secre In a few instances, owing to the unfortunate sickness of players at the last minute, players were doubled to complete the schedule. Below are given the individual scores of the opposing teams, using rallway mores, first in each case:

Mrs. Carf's high praise of Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills is typical of what thousands of other grateful women have written. These pills actually create the rich new blood which is lacking in run-down, exhausted systems. Growing girls in great numbers have found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a veritable blessing. Older people have equal need of them. Get a supply from your druggist. 50c a package.

"Roar of the Dragon" and "Divorce in the Family" at Capitol Theatre

The Capitol Theatre has booked two excellent pictures for a doublefeature bill which is being presented at the first of this week. One is ture groom. "Roar of the Dragon," starring the virile Richard Dix and Gwili Andre, famous Danish beauty from Copenhagen, who makes her screen debut in the film. The other is "Divorce in the Family," in which such popullar stars as the youthful Jackie Cooper, Conrad Nagel, Lewis Stone and Lois Wilson are seen.

"Roar of the Dragon" is a stirring spectacle of the Far East which reflects a vivid panorama of the hazardous Russian-North China frontier. Miss Gwili is seen as a Russian noblewoman, one of the pathetic patricians who have haunted the towns of North China since the Red Revolution. The picture, which unfolds the tale of the experiences of a group of Occidental refugees in a small town, is said to be as graphic as a newsreel in its details of present chaotic conditions in China. Dix depicts a hard-boiled American riverboat captain who is involved in a romance with Miss Gwili. "Divorce in the Family" is a vivid drama of divorce and its effect upon children of disrupted families. Jackie Cooper plays the part of a little iai Association at its regular boy who, through his mother's dimonthly meeting this morning in vorce and remarriage, is in the care succession to Capt. Ruby Steele, who of a misunderstanding stepfather. There are many pathetic and dramatic as well as comedy moments. mother; Lewis Stone, the "real" father, and Conrad Nagel, the

Pimples On Face A Dreadful Sight

Miss C. H. Langenhahn, Ver. milion, Sask., writes: -- " My face was covered with pimples, and I hated to be seen by anyone, as I was a dreadful sight. I got no relief until a friend, who had had the same trouble, told me to use Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had taken two bottles I am happy to say my face is all cleared of the pimples."
