Hanson Asks For Information In Regard to Radio

Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, has asked questions of the minister of marine in the House of Commons at Ottawa as to the total expenditure in connection with the Canadian Radio Commission for the last twelve months ending March 1, 1934 as follows:

Salary of each commissioner.

Travelling and other allowances to each commissioner.

Office help.

Inspection and field work.

Broadcasters acquiring and improving stations.

Other expenditures in detail.

Twenty Years Ago
In Prince Rupert

April 26, 1914

Ranchers and farmers of Terrace are about to establish a co-operative store there. Tom Stewart, formerly of Prince Rupert, will be in charge.

Superintendent W. C. C. Mehan reports that the track laying gangs of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway have reached Mile 359 at Fraser Lake and that only fourteen miles more remains to be laid before reaching Nechako where the line will be linked up. This gap may be spanned within a week or ten days.

A largely signed petition has been received by Bishop F. H. DuVernet requesting that Rev. W. E. Collison be stationed at Massett. Owing to the condition of Mrs. Collison's health, however, it is not expected Mr. Collison will be able to accept the call.

LIPSETT ON CUBA

Vancouver Business Man Tells Gyro Club of Recent Trip to Central American Regions

"No president can last for ten minutes in Cuba unless he has the soldiers behind him," Edward Lipsett of Vancouver declared before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its luncheon yesterday in describing a visit which he made recently to that troublous isle in the course of a central American cruise. Mr. Lipsett spent eight days in Havana during the period of unrest and told of some incidents such as bombings and demonstrations. Cuba, as a country, was most beautiful and productive. Havana was a splendid city with a fine harbor in which there were a number of United States warships at the time of his visit.

Mr. Lipsett also described a visit to the South American republic of Colombia including such cities as Bogota, the inland capital, and Cartagena and Puerto Colombia, two of the principal seaports. The natural resources, some of the customs, architecture, churches, living conditions, etc. were interestingly alluded to by the speaker in passing.

The speaker also referred briefly to visits paid to New Orleans, Atlanta and other points on the return trip home via the Eastern States.

W.H.Tobey, president of the club was in the chair and guests at the luncheon included Fred Brown of Anyox and Peter Lakie and W. E. Drake of this city.

Delkatla Slough Bridge Is Under Rebuilding Now

Good progress is being made with the job of rebuilding the bridge across Delkatla Slough near the town of New Massett in Massett Inlet, according to word brought to the city from the Queen Charlotte Islands by the steamer Prince John which arrived in port yesterday.

Member Draws Attention To Prince Rupert

Urges Development of Natural Ports Before Spending Money On Dredging

OTTAWA, April 26:—Prince Rupert was heard from when Olof Hanson, member for that district, drew attention to the fact that the harbor was in need of no artificial improvements. The government railway ran to it and it was 500 miles nearer the Orient than any other Pacific port. He thought the natural harbors should be developed before money was spent on dredging artificial harbors.

Mr. Hanson asked for some little improvements to the wharves at Silver City and also on Queen Charlotte Islands and the minister promised to have a report on these from the district engineer.
