Since growing commenced the rains have arrived in each case just about the right time and have encouraged growth so that today the gardens are not as late as might have been expected considering the late start. Most people now have their dahlias and gladioli planted Margin of St. Louis Cardinals' and a few have the most forward of the latter showing above the ground. I planted out of doors! nearly two weeks ago a dahlia that was then eight inches above the blanking the Cincinnati Reds here ground. The sharp morning frosts yesterday, the New York Giants of last week singed the outside crept up to within half a game of leaves but the dahlia continued to the National League leading St. grow and is now about ten or Louis Cardinals who lost to the twelve inches high and going Boston Braves at Boston. Leading amateur tennis stars will assemble in Jamaica early in 1937 for the Jamaica Lawn Tennis Association's annual tournament. Frederick Perry, Great Britain's top ranking racquet-wielder whose long string of victories in important competitions has only been marred by the loss of his United States title to Wilmer Allison last year, has already promised to attend the tourney of the Caribbean island. Patrick Hughes, England's great Davis Cup doubles player, has sent word that he hopes to be able to attend the competition and would make every effort to be present. The association expressed itself as being hopeful of having Perry's famous German singles opponent, Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, present, and hopes of having the aging French ace, Jean Borotra, on the draw were high. Leading United States and Canadian players are expected to go to Jamaica for the event ...

Racing will be "fairly continuthe ous" during the coming track seaat son, according to Col. D. A. Mac-Island horseman, in his newspaper column "Down the Back Stretch." There is to be racing four days, August 18, 19, 20 and 21, during the Prince Edward Island exhibition, at North Sydney during the last week of August and the first week of September, at Saint John about Labor Day. From September 15 to October, races will be held at Fredericton, Woodstock and Halifax. Before Charlottetown Exhibition, heavy track programs are planned for various Maritime centres.

Permission for amateurs and professionals to compete with and against each other is "the most logical solution of the athletic 25 problem in Nova Scotia," Judge A. 00 D. Campbell, a prominent athlete 5 in his day, said in addressing a meeting of the Cape Breton Colliery Baseball League. He is the 4 newly elected president.
