Synopsis of Land Act

PRE-EMPTIONS

VACANT, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation and improvement.

Full information concerning Pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C.; Bureau of Provincial Information, Victoria, or any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes within reasonable distance of road, school and marketing facilities and which is not timberland (i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre east of the Coast Range and 8,000 feet per acre west of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, on printed forms obtained from the Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

Pre-emptions carrying part time conditions of occupation are also granted.

PURCHASE OR LEASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes. Minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land, $2.50 per acre. Further information is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

As a partial relief measure, reverted lands may be acquired by purchase in ten equal instalments, with the first payment suspended for two years, provided taxes are paid when due and improvements are made during the first two years of not less than 10% of the appraised value.

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 30 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtained after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under grazing regulations amended from time to time to meet varying conditions. Annual grazing permits are issued based on certain monthly rates per head of stock. Priority in grazing privileges is given to resident stock owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free or partially free permits available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.

Man in the Moon

Melting, melting, pretty snow,
How I love to see you go
Wait until another year
Ere we once more see you here.

It was at a dance in the Moose Hall a dashing, very dashing, young man went with a confident glow of pleasure to a young lady with whom he had previously danced that evening. "May I have the last dance with you?" he inquired. "You have had it," was the laconic reply as the lady looked at her toes.

Young wife (at post office window)—"I wish to complain about the service."

Postmaster: "What is the trouble, Madam?"

Young wife: "My husband is in Hamilton on business and the card he sent me is postmarked Atlantic City."

He (chaittily): "When I was a small boy I remember I always wanted to be a clown when I grew up."

She: "It must be nice to realize your ambition."

DEFENDS RELIEF RECIPIENTS

Editor, Daily News:—

While the press is drawing attention that it was foreign born who drew the most money for relief, we are losing the main fact that children are undernourished and are becoming tubercular patients. We have got to take into consideration that there are very few Canadian families in Prince Rupert and district and it was a very good thing that they did receive that amount of money for relief. Otherwise that money would not have come into Prince Rupert and the grocery stores would not have benefitted from relief recipients.

The man out of work is not the only one on a form of relief as there are others holding jobs which are only relief jobs. For example you may take numerous government positions in different marketing boards; also the dry dock which is a government subsidized plant keeping a few men off the dole. Then why rave about the highest relief drawn by an Englishman and his family? Are not nearly all men in government jobs of marine, patrol, police, forestry, lighthouses, immigration, customs, postal services, railway offices, government offices and even our commissioner, English? We do not want to start a race or religious war as the Nazis have done in the case of the Jewish hatred. These things are started to blind the public to the main issue.

In this case the married men have gone on strike to draw attention to the deplorable condition of their families and the commissioner wishes to draw attention away from the children by starting a nationality controversy. It must be remembered that it takes all nationalities and people in all walks of life to make a nation and that the more money spent by the government for relief the more money will come into Prince Rupert. These people are doing relief work for the amount they receive at forty-five cents an hour but are not allowed to work for enough to feed the children as they should be fed. Should one of these relief recipients take a government job at reduced wages the man he replaced would have to go on the dole as there are not enough jobs to go around.

Then let us stop stirring up nationality, religious or fascist wars and work together against all wars for the bettermnt of all national and international good, so that there would not have to be any relief (although it is not relief as the men work for which they get 45c an hour). Let us join with the powers of organized labor and make it right at the next election and not be fooled by election promises as we were at the last one. Those receiving relief and working at a given rate of pay ceased to be wards of the government as before and are not disenfranchised.

SCRATCHING

Editor, Daily News:—

There is an old axiom that "literary" jackasses bray loudest at the full of the moon. I believe it myself after reading the letter in your issue of February 26 and signed "Native English."

He starts by censuring the editor for not printing the relief recipient's name and at the close he jumps behind the "Nom de Plume" bush himself. Also he is an advocate of the scratching cure for unemployed and, apparently, is in favor of sterilization while his compatriots in England are raising a cry of alarm over the falling birthrate.

Native English political supporters of old line parties and others burst into print periodically and laud the great natural resources of Canada as yet unscratched.

They would have you believe that all a real pert unemployed man has to do is scratch to the right of him, scratch to the left of him and scratch to the front of him and, lo, the problem is solved.

These same scratcher boosters will sing the praises of and back up all the doings of our great men at the heads of the various governments—municipal, provincial and federal. One of their policies is to put able bodied unemployed to work for their relief, scratching at the great natural resources! Not at all. They recommend real physique building, mental sharpening tasks like the one on Wantage Road—scratching empty tin cans, rotten vegetables, etc.

I'll scratch out a guess right now that Native English is economically safe at present.

POPULATION TO DECLINE

Peak in Gerat Britain During Next Five Years, Official Says

LONDON, March 1: (CP)—Great Britain will reach the peak population within the next five years and then undergo a gradual, progressive decline, says F. J. C Honey, official of the National Confederation of Employers' Associations.

Children born in 1937 on reaching the age of 34 or so will discover there are so many old men and women for whom they will be taxed, little of their earnings will remain to raise families of their own, he predicted.

Mr. Honey declared there would be about 7,000,000 fewer people in Britain in 1971 than at present with approximately 2,000,000 more men over the age of 45 on employment rolls.

The drop in birth rate, Mr. Honey believed, was becoming acute and from 1924 on not only Britain but the whole world would be affected "It's a pity," he says, "because the general standard of living and the real value of wages have been higher since the war than at any time in our history. The present generation can afford to bring up children more easily than their parents did."

ABDICATION LOSSES SMALL

SHEFFIELD, Eng., March 1: (CP)—Despite the wailing of Jeremiahs and Cassandras losses to the city's novelty makers by the abdication were small, almost negligible, reported the Chamber of Commerce.

CLOSE WORKLESS CENTRE

BARROW, Eng., March 1: (CP)—With most of its unemployed absorbed in engineering and shipbuilding trades and hardly anybody under 65 without work the town bureau for workless has been closed down.

GAY FARCE IS COMING

"Piccadilly Jim," With Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans, At Capitol Theatre

Hailed as one of the most uproarious comedy features of the year, "Piccadilly Jim," starring Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week. There is an exceptionally good supporting cast including such favorites as Frank Morgan, Billie Burke, Eric Blore, Robert Benchley, Ralph Forbes and Phyllis Clare, English screen and stage star, who taught the Duke of Windsor, when he was Prince of Wales, to croon.

"Piccadilly Jim" is the story of a young caricaturist in London who plunges into romantic difficulties by unknowingly burlesqueing in a comic strip the family of the girl with whom he is in love. The settngs in London and New York and on a transAtlantic liner are said to be most effective.
