NEW WORK AT PRINCE RUPERT

Prince Rupert has made a wonderful forward move D. winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. this year in its public works. First and foremost is the R. M. Winslow left for Vancouver new post office which will cost when completed and ready last evening on the steamer Catala. for occupation the sum of approximately $150,000. Then comes the new hospital which is being erected at a cost of 114,000 in addition to fittings and furnishings. Land is being cleared for new forts at the mouth of the harbor at a cost of approximately $25,000. A new seaplane base is to be established here, possibly at or near Seal Cove. A new concrete bakery valued at $6.000 is being completed on Third Avenue.

At present a survey is being made of the city in regard to its assets but we have figures to show that up to the end of August there was marketed in Prince Rupert Re: Certificate of Title No. 12144-I, to approximately 9,000,000 pounds of halibut valued at $600,-000. Salmon was caught in the district amounting to 66,-000,000 pounds valued at $2,400,000. Halibut livers brought fishermen $75,000. Logs scaled in the district up to the same date amounted to 60,000,000 boand feet or John A.
