"Dodge City," In Technicolor, Is Exciting Re-creation of Boisterous Days On Plains

The roughest and toughest cattle town in the history of the western frontier is the setting for a vigorous adventure told in "Dodge City," technicolor production starring Ero'clock yesterday afternoon, leav- tinued their voyages to Seattle af- rol Flynn, which opens tonight at the Capitol Theatre for a threenight stand. Other members of a notable cast include Olivia de Havilland, Ann Sheridan, Bruce Cabot, Frank McHugh, Alan Hale, John Litel, Henry Travers Henry O'Neil, Victor Jory, William Lundigan and Guinn Williams.

> The story of "Dodge City" is laid in the period when this little community in the southwestern corner of Kansas, terminus of the famous old Chisholm Trail and of the Santa Fe Railway, became the west's greatest cattle shipping centre. When Flynn arrives there, Dodge City is under the dominaheaded by Bruce Cabot. He becomes sheriff and proceeds to clean up the town. Miss de Havilland is an employee of the town newspaper and works with Flynn in his campaign. The story increases in excitment as the picture moves

TERRACE

At the meeting of the Canadian Legion on Wednesday it was decided to go ahead as usual with the celebration of / mistice Day and also to make no change with regard to the disposal of poppies It was felt that, although there is another war in progress. it should not prejudice the welfare of those who are still suffering! afrom the effects of the last war.

Terrace was treated to a sur prise in the way of entertainment one evening during the past week. This was provided by a striking personality who goes by the name of "Tarzan." This giant of strength gathered a crowd in front of Terrace Hotel and, after collecting a sufficient inducement, performed! the remarkable feat of pulling a full sized truck along with his

There was a fire alarm at Giggey's sawmill on Friday. A crowd! of willing helpers was soon at the scene and the damage was confined to the sawdust carrier."

The municipal Tax Sale was held according to schedule on Saturday. It speaks well for the solvency of Terrace that there was jonly one lot on offer and it appears likely that or! was due to an oversight on the part of the owner as he is away working on a job at some distance.

A. J. Lancaster paid a visit to Terrace on Saturday to hold a tax sale of land on behalf of the provinvial government. Most of the properties offered at the sale were relics of the land boom of twenty years ago.
