Honor Paid To Terrace Rector

Farewell Party Held for Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Hinchliffe

TERRACE, Oct. 26:—The Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Hinchliffe left Terrace on Friday to take up the pastorate at Dawson Creek. Mr. Hinchliffe, who has been rector of St. Matthew's Church here, will become rural dean in his new one.

A surprise party was arranged by friends, consisting of the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary and members of the congregation, in the Anglican Hall when music and songs marked the proceedings and when farewells were made. C. G. Sessions spoke on behalf of the congregation to which Mr. Hinchliffe replied.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinchliffe and their young family will be much missed at Terrace.

Terrace

An unfortunate accident befell Miss Merle West Friday evening when she slipped and fell against the moving train. It was necessary to amputate part of one hand.

E. Willie and C. G. Sessions journeyed to Prince Rupert on Friday to attend the funeral of the late Fred Walton. Mr. Walton was popular with many Terrace people and the news of his sudden passing was heard with regret.

Judge W. E. Fisher was in Terrace on Friday considering several cases under the cent control legislation.
