FRONT LINE GENERALS LIEUT.-GENERAL E. W. SANSOM

By DOUG HOW (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

To the "little men" in the field with the Canadian vanced toward the Avre. Ger-Armored Corps, Lt.-Gen. Ernest William Sansom is a mysterious as any general yet far more human than most. The troop know him as the big rotund man, usually in serge, who inspects them on ceremonial occasions with a twinkle in his penetrating eye, a quick smile, a broad knowledge.

When he left the headquarters of an armored division in Britain, a regretful captain on his staff paid his this compliment 'There goes an enthusiast and

He finished that war as a lieutenant-colonel commanding the 1st Machine Gun Battalion. He had won the D.S.O. and been mentioned in dispatches.

Since 1920 he has been a permanent force officer, doing peace time a typical round of jobs of a senior regular officer. When war broke out, he was Director of Military Training at Ottawa. He was made Assistant Adjutant and the Quartermaster-General of the 1st Division Canadian division is on display and sailed with it to Britain in "That $60. of yours, Mr. Evans, certainly gets around"

YOU say, Mr. Evans, that you put about $60 a year into life insurance premiums.

Perhaps you've wondered sometimes what becomes of your money.

There's no secret about it.

Here's the story, Mr. Evans.

THE assets held by life insurance companies in Canada are the common property of yourself and four million other Canadian men and women.

These assets certainly get around. Some of them have built docks in the Maritimes. Some of them have built grain elevators on the prairies.

Some of them have gone into highway building on the Pacific Coast. For three years, now, most of them have gone to war. Y OU also have a share in Victory, Mr. Evans.

Your insurance companies have put a large percentage of your premium dollars into Victory Bonds for you.

They have just bought 160 million dollars worth of the 4th, Victory Loan . . . making a total of 600 million dollars invested in these bonds—because they know that you and everybody else in Canada believes that Victory is the immediate business of the whole nation.

Protection is the people's own business. You, and four million other policyholders are investing in the security that only Victory will bring.

We hope you have bought some bonds, too. Worth holding on to, aren't they?
