opening of the event. In a brief address, Mayor my Burns, Albert Dalzell, Rob-Daggett outlined the objective of the campaign and wished the I.O.D.E. groups success in their effort.

The second Memorial drive has aims similar to the one which followed the first World War and which provided $1,200 bursaries to 251 sons and daughters of deceased or disabled servicemen of that conflict, and also provided post-graduate scholarships to 148.

Among graduates of the I.O D.E. Memorial foundation are such outstanding Canadians as Matthew Halton, radio corres- 8 p.m. pondent, Dr. Allie Douglas, M.B.E., Ph.D., dean of Women, Queen's University, and John L. 14th. Mrs. C. H.
