QUOTA QUANDARY

Your grocer is a harried man
With limited supplies,

He does the very best he can
With rules as they arise.

For customers he has to plan
And fairly equalize

His "Royal City" to the can,
As you must realize.

★ ★ ★

"Here today and gone tomorrow" often seems to be the case these days when you go to your grocer's for "Royal City" Canned Fruits and Vegetables. He has many customers asking for this popular brand, and with restricted supplies, he can't always meet the demand, so don't blame him—he's doing the best he can.

Select Driver For Ambulance

The recently established four-man ambulance committee met last night to recommend an ambulance driver to the city council which will decide the matter of hiring. Twelve applicants for the recently advertised job submitted tenders ranging from a monthly salary of $125 to $450. The name of the applicant selected was not announced.

Plans were laid by the committee to put on a drive among dry dock dorkers to raise funds for the new ambulance. A tag day has also been arranged for February 5.

Money accumulating in the ambulance fund today totalled $1,951, more than $3,000 short of the anticipated cost of the new ambulance.

Armed with the necessary priority requirements, Alderman T. H. Sorenson is at present in Vancouver negotiating for a new machine.

Mrs. G. S. Hanes, wife of City Engineer G. S. Hanes, left last night to return to North Vancouver after spending the past several weeks in the city.
