LESS LIQUOR FOR ONTARIO

TORONTO, Dec. 16 (CP)— Ontario's new Liquor Control Board chairman, William G. Webster, indicated last night that the province may reduce its liquor ration again. Mr. Webster said that Ontario may return to the 13-ounce monthly ration instead of the 26 ounces now given to permit holders. He did not say when the cut may go into effect but indicated it might be next April.

High Praise For Christmas Drama

A good sized audience greeted the second performance of the dramatic cantata "The Lost Carol" at the Baptist Church last evening and high praise was elicited in the presentation of this impressive drama.

S. Calder and Miss Silverthorn played the leading roles of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Gruber with C. Reimer and Henry Bell as choir leader and repentant son respectively.

The children's stage choir consisted of Dianne Gilker, Jen Kelly, Elsie Schilder, Mary Calder, Hilda and Elsie Meufells. The tableau of the Father and Prodigal Son was impersonated by P. H. Linzey and Henry Bell.

The Good Samaritan tableau consisted of Chas. Morris, Dick Gilker, Guy Meuffels, Wesley Hughes and Jack Bougress.

The tableau of the Nativity was presented by E. Wright, Geo. Willis, G. Flynn, Betty Blake, Jennifer Kelly, Elsie Schilder, Elsie Meuffels and Mary Calder. The senior choir of the church rendered the carols and songs in a creditable manner under the capable leadership of Clarence Reimer.

The play was directed by P. H. Linzey.

LADY SUP'T IS APPOINTED

Miss P. M. Mooney, R.N., to Take Charge of Prince Rupert General Hospital

Miss Phyllis M. Mooney, R.N., who for eleven years was operating room supervisor and on occasion acting lady superintendent of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, has received the appointment of lady superintendent of the local institution. Chosen at a special meeting of the executive committee yesterday afternoon, she will assume her duties after the first of the year. She is at present visiting in the city, having arrived a few days ago from Creston where she has recently been acting as lady superintendent of the hospital.

Miss Mooney is a graduate of Boston General Hospital. Soon after graduation she went to the Orient and for a time was a surgical supervisor in a Rockefeller Foundation Hospital at Peiping, China. On her return to this country, she came to Prince Rupert and, after leaving here, spent a time at Pouce Coupe in the Peace River. Before the war she left for England and was in Nice, France, shortly before the conflict broke out. Then she returned to England and for the first couple of years of the war was engaged in civilian wartime nursing. Two years ago she returned to Canada.

"SWEET AND LOW DOWN" COMING

"Sweet and Low-Down," which stars Benny Goodman and His Band, Linda Darnell, Lynn Bari and Jack Oakie, comes next Monday and Tuesday to the Capitol Theatre.

It is the gay and heart-warming musical comedy story of one-night stands and big-league spots; the rivalries for the affection of the band's lone female singer; midnight-to-dawn jam sessions; the psychological changes in the bandleader's protege when he is catapulted from an unknown to too-sudden success; the drama of a slum-bred musician who meets—and falls for—a Park Avenue bred, symphony-grounded debutante.

In the gay and romantic story, Linda Darnell veers from a 16-year old disguise to her real role as a Park Avenue debutante whose dabbling in swing involves her in the romance of a lifetime. Svelte Lynn Bari appears as the band's vocalist—a cute trick who knows a few, while Jack Oakie handles the comedy assignment as the orchestra's frustrated unhandy man.

Playing the romantic lead opposite Miss Darnell is James Cardwell in his most important role to date. Others in the cast include Allyn Joslyn, John Campbell, Roy Benson and Dickie Moore.
