Daughters Give Mothers Party

The East End Canadian Girls in Training group, under the leadership of Mrs. Thornton Hay, gave a delightful party with their mothers as guests on Monday evening last at the home of Mrs. J. A. Donnell.

The Misses Louise Patrick and Barbara Quandt were in charge of the entertainment which included a contest and an indoor golf tournament. A representative demonstration of the C.G.I.T. ceremony was given by the group for the edification of their mothers. Miss Betty Wright sang a solo, "Alice Blue Gown," and a quartette comprised of Misses Velma Ingham, Betty Wright, Barbara and Molly Quandt, "Mother." The piano accompaniments were by Mrs. Ingham. There was a piano duet by the Misses Joan Quandt and Velma Ingham—"Morning Prayer."

A reading by Miss Margaret Doiron, "Mothers Never Change," was acceptable. Miss Joan Croxford presented a corsage to Mrs. Fletcher Hemmons as the mother of the largest family.

The girls all sang "For She's a Jolly Good Mother," and led their mothers to the dining room where the table was beautifully arranged with Point de Venise cloth, pink and white carnations, and illuminated by white candlelight. Completing the motif was a specially decorated "Mother" cake.

Placed for each mother was a gift porcelain cup and saucer and a personal gift for the leader. Serving was in charge of Velma Ingham and Joyce McDonald and Molly Quandt.

The meetings will continue to be held at the Community Clubhouse, Hays Cove.

"HOSTAGES" CAPITOL THRILLER

A story of love, devotion and courage among those battling Adolf Hitler inside his own lines, "Hostages," coming to the Capitol Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday, tells a dramatic tale of the terror the Nazis are now experiencing in their own European fortress. It is an exciting and dramatic adaptation of the novel of the same name. Luise Rainer, returning to the screen after an absence of four years, shares stellar honors with Arturo de Cordova, Paul Lukas and William Bendix.

The story was inspired by fearless patriots in Europe who daily risk their lives to sabotage, murder and strike terror into the hearts of the Nazis. William Bendix is the leader of an underground movement. Miss Rainer is the lively daughter of Oscar Homolka, a Czech Quisling. She falls in love with Arturo de Cordova, one of the leading figures in the underground. How Miss Rainer, de Cordova and Bendix wreak vengeance for the mass murder of twenty-five of their compatriots forms the spectacular climax of the picture as an entire waterfront is blown to bits in the teeth of the terrified Nazis, the romantic couple giving the Gestapo the slip for an exciting finish.
