teams took to the ice Sunday night in loop games played in Chicago, Boston and Detroit. In Chicago, the Black Hawks handed the visiting Montreal Canadiens a 5-1 trouncing—the worst suffered by the Habitants this season. Close to 18,000 Windy City fans saw the Hawks strike quickly to clinch the victory. Clint Smith scored two firstperiod goals and Red Hammill punched in the third. Max Bentley finished up the Chicago scoring with one goal in the second frame and another in the final stanza. Toe Blake put in Montreal's lone tally.

The Detroit encounter saw the New York Rangers flash in three goals in the opening period, Alex Shibicky, Tony Leswick and Bill Juzda doing the honors. The second period was scoreless until 20 seconds from the finish when Mac Colville made it 4-0. Adam Brown put in Detroit's one and only goal of the game at 12:47 of the final period. The final curtain was brought down with the scoreboard reading New York 4, Detroit 1.

The Montreal Royals continued undefeated atop the Quebec Senior Hockey League Sunday by nosing out the Ottawa Senators, 4-3, in a game played before a capacity crowd in Montreal. get underway at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday and Friday and the gymnastic class at 8:30 on those evenings. These classes are held in the I.O.D.E. Hall.

Personalities-

"Personality" for today is Miss Marjorie Jackson, an instructress in the ladies' section. Marjorie (all young men please take note) is an attractive, blue-eyed girl, with curly brown hair and a sweet smile. Her home is Vanouver and her first jaunt away from home was to Prince Rupert She arrived in 1942, and worked first for the Prince Rupert Dry Dock until May of 1945 when she became secretary to W. O. Fulton, a local barrister. Sport has always been Marjorie's hobby and she is a keen skiler, having of Prince Rupert and its facilienjoyed many an expedition up ties. Seymour Mountain. George Mitchell mentioned the need of a hotel here.

S. E. Parker felt that something should be done about greater use of the elevator at a time when Vancouver was shipping large quanties of grain. India and Russia were becoming important markets for Canadian wheat and Prince Rupert was situated strategically for the handling of such shipments. It seemed that provision should be made for the payment of higher wages here. At present there was a limit of 50c whereas Vancouver was paying 75c.
