ENTER THE VILLAIN—Andy O'Brien, Montreal Standard sports writer who said in a column Detroit hockey star Jack Stewart was a ruffian and worse, looks over a court writ informing him that the Red Wing defenceman is suing him for $250,000 on charges of libel. O'Brien was served with the writ as he entered Detroit's Olympia to cover the Thursday night Montreal-Detroit semi-final N.H.L. playoff game. (C.P. Photo)

JOINS CENTURY CLUB—Gazing fondly at a puck and not without good reason is Harry Watson, left winger with the Toronto Maple Leafs. It was this puck he shoved into the New York Ranger net last Saturday night at Toronto for the 100th goal of his N.H.L. career. It was his second goal of the game in which the Rangers were swamped 7-1. (C. P. Photo)

BEST CANADIAN PICTURE—This is a scene from "The Loon's Necklace," which last week was adjudged at Ottawa as the best Canadian film of 1948. It is an unusual story of Indian folklore otld by filming masks carved by Indians of British Columbia. It is filmed entirely in color and the narrator tells the story as 35 actors, wearing the carved wooden masks, enact a legendary fantasy. Non-commercial and unusual in technique, action and set design, the picture will receive widespread distribution throughout Canada.

Time was no object to Cleopatra when her slave attendants served breakfast. The Cleo of today must be quick off the mark. So no wonder Mother praises the served-in-a-jiffy, eaten-on-sight Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes. They're not only convenient but delicious and nourishing, too.

Yes—Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes provide useful quantities of carbohydrates, proteins, minerals and other food essentials to start the busy day right. Made with two grains—wheat and barley—to give you that glorious Grape-Nuts flavor in crisp, golden flake form. Ask your grocer for Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes.

CANADA'S HEAVIEST—The folk of Sutton, Ont., (population 957) on the shores of Lake Simcoe, claim that Bud Gilbey and Ellis Pringle, whose combined weight is 503 pounds (without pads), make up the heaviest ever defence combination in the history of organized hockey in Canada. That's Bud on the left, a 258-pounder, and Ellis on the right, a mere 245 pounds. They handle the regular blue-line duties with Sutton's intermediate "B" club in the Ontario Hockey Association. (C.
