HOPE FOR POLL TAX REMOVAL HELD SLIGHT

Hope that the city can obtain a private legislation bill to amend the Municipal Act so that the poll tax will be eliminated as a requirement to civic voting appears slight, according to a report on the legal aspect of the matter, given to council last night.

City Clerk H. D. Thain told council that the City Solicitor and the Deputy Minister of Municipalities had both expressed doubt as to whether the government would allow passage of a private bill to amend a public act for the benefit of any particular community.

Deputy Minister of Municipalities B. C. Bracewell had stated that the government had found that, in cases where such local amendments to public acts had been granted in the past, the community which obtained them had found itself at a disadvantage with subsequent general amendment to the main act, Mr. Thain said.

However, Alderman H. M. Daggett, who introduced the move to have the poll tax eliminated, told council that it should "still pursue the matter." The aldermen agreed.

Alderman Daggett suggested that council members should take the matter up with J. D. McRae, M. L. A., briefing him on the city's desire and that Hon. E. T. Kenney, Minister of Lands and Forests also should be approached during his current northern visit.

"It might also be a good plan to get in touch with other members of the house and solicit their support," Alderman Dag-

ALLEGED MERCY KILLER—Ralph Kilbon, right, 56-year-old farmer charged with the 22-rifle slaying of his wife, is led to court in Cobourg, Ont., by Provincial Constable Don Nicol. Kilbon was remanded to Nov. 14 for preliminary hearing on a charge of murder. Neighbors quoted him as saying before his arrest that his wife was suffering from a mental disorder and that he "put her out of her misery" after she tried to commit suicide. (CP Photo) gett said.

Mr. Thain's report stated that it was doubtful if the government would consider any private bill in behalf of Prince Rupert unless it also had the backing of the Union of B. C. Municipalities. The U.B.C.M. has consistently cold-shouldered Prince Rupert's attempts to have the poll tax removed.

Alderman Daggett pointed out that special provision had been made in the Municipal Act for the city of New Westminster and urged that Prince Rupert seek similar consideration.

The City Clerk was instructed to arrange a meeting between a special committee and Mr. McRae in the near future.

Is Helping To Place Settlers

James Nicoll of the Canadian immigration department here left on last evening's train for Prince George where he will spend the week on business in connection with the placement in that area of new settlers. Returning here Saturday night, he will proceed next week to the Hazelton area on similar duties. Three thousand Dutch settlers a month are now being brought to Canada and quite a number of these are finding their way into the central interior.

OCEAN FALLS PAPER TOWN

The name Ocean Falls is synonymous with Pacific Mills Limited, the paper manufacturing company which has operated there for thirty years. Its population is about 3,200, all of which, with the exception of those in the government service, are employed by the company.

Annual payroll of the district, which includes Bella Bella, Bella Coola, Namu, Rivers Inlet, Wadams and others is about $4,000,000, bulk of which is made up by Pacific Mills operations.

Developed hydro-electric horsepower is 26,850, while near-by undeveloped resources could provide more than 1,000,000.

There is one limestone quarrying operation, Kooeye Limestone Co. which produces about 10,000 tons annually, much of it used in the paper industry.

Economic supplement is given to the area by the agricultural potential of the Bella Coola valley and the salmon canning industry on the coast.

JESUS' VOICE IS REAL ONE

Prayer Discussed by Rev. L. G. Sieber at First United Church

At the morning service in First United Church on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Lawrence G. Sieber, acknowledged gratefully the many complimentary remarks he had heard about the new organ and its effectiveness under the competent musicianship of the organist, Henry Pluym, but he went on to remind his congregation of the "greater than organ" voice—the voice of Jesus. Without thunder, without mechanical amplifiers, the gracious, sympathetic charm of the Master's voice captivated his contemporaries and carries down through the ages to speak to a weary waiting world today. It still had the answer to prayers and gave satisfying hope and faith for the future.

Speaking at the evening service on "The Deeper Remedy for Peace," Mr. Sieber discussed the unexplored and unrealized power of prayer. People in their superficial thinking might first consider prayer as a way of getting what they wanted. They found that it did not supply their selfish desires. In a second stage they decided that prayer was a failure and classed themselves as realists. But they found that that attitude did not satisfy their deeper longings. It was only as they found that God would give them their heart's desires in His own way that they found prayer was the real remedy. As long as man conditioned his conduct on an animalistic or material plane so long would he fail to be happy. It would be well if mankind re-established a belief in angels for it was only when he set a higher standard than the world offers that man achieved his heart's desire. An apparently easy road to peace was a false doctrine. God's way was the complete answer.

The Junior Choir gave a spirited rendering of "Praise ye the Father" at the morning service, while in the evening the senior choir sang "Jerusalem" effectively and the restful anthem, "Lead Me, Lord." Organ accompaniments and incidental instrumental numbers were capably played by organist Henry Pluym.
