International Week Observed

Biz-Pro Women Complete Plans for Big Social Event

Business and Professional Women's Club made final arrangements Wednesday night for their first annual shamrock card party to be held March 7 in the Civic Centre.

Members will make up their own tables. They will have a choice of their favorite games—bridge, whist, cribbage or canasta, and have a chance of winning a prize. Refreshments will be served.

This is the Business and Professional Women's big event of the year and they hope to give everyone a good time as well as make it a financial success.

Mrs. Nora Arnold gave a paper to commemorate International Week along with the candlelight ceremonial. All clubs throughout the world meet each February as members of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women. The purpose of this meeting, said Mrs. Arnold, is to "bring to mind our colleagues throughout the world, who, as members of their own federation are working alongside us to achieve our common aims."

The candles used in the ceremony are symbols of international federation, and the ceremony is to remind members of its size and scope, and to honor its quarter million members in 19 countries.

At the conclusion of this ceremony Mrs. Arnold gave a short talk on the life and personality of the late King George VI and members showed their respect to the late King and his family by bowing their heads in prayer.

There were 20 members and two visitors present. President Mary McMillan was in the chair.

BURGULARS DRUG VICTIMS

SINGAPORE (Reuters)—Burglars here have delved into Malayan folk lore to find the secret of a mysterious drug to dope their victims before robbing them. Police said the burglars are using a white powder which produces "deep sleep" in many successful burglaries.

Rotarians were also notified by President Fred Scadden that installation of the Smithers Rotary Club would take place March 15. Local members are invited. A curling bonspiel will be added for entertainment of visitors.

Legion Arranges Gilbanks Funeral

Canadian Legion will sponsor funeral arrangements for a veteran of two wars and Legion member who died suddenly Wednesday night in the Legion club rooms. He was John Gilbanks, 62, of King George Hotel.

Mr. Gilbanks, born in Liverpool, England, came to Canada in 1910 and enlisted in the Canadian Army Tenth Field Ambulance Corps in 1915. In the Second World War he was a member of the home guard.

Here for 10 years, he saw service aboard CGS Alberni, as an oil trimmer.

Surviving him are his mother, and a sister, both at Wallasey, England.

NYLON DRAPES—Canadian-made nylon upholstery fabrics are making their debut this spring. The luxurious matelasse on this chesterfield, the frieze on the chair, the deep pile rug, and the gay printed drapes are all of nylon. Nylon fabrics can be kept clean with soap and water and stand up to long, hard wear. Curtains won't sag, won't shrink, and need little or no ironing. They last for years.
